CUSTOMER PERSONAL DATA PROTECTION CHARTER

Last Updated: April 08, 2025

1. THE ACCOR GROUP'S COMMITMENT TO PROTECTING PRIVACY

We consider you an important customer. Our first priority is to offer you exceptional stays and experiences throughout the world.
Your complete satisfaction and confidence in Accoris absolutely essential to us.
That's why, as part of our commitment to meeting your expectations, we have set up (and we had a privacy policy before the much anticipated GDPR - General Data Protection Regulation ;-)) a customer personal data protection charter. This charter formalizes our commitments to you and describes how the AccorGroup uses your personal data.

2. SCOPE OF APPLICATION

In this charter, “AccorGroup” means:

- Accor SA, the AccorGroup parent company, with registered offices at 82 rue Henri Farman, 92130 Issy-les-Moulineaux, France;
- Subsidiary or “family” companies of Accor SA involved in the hotel businesses of the AccorGroup; and
- hotels operated under one of the AccorGroup brands throughout the world (Raffles, Sofitel Legend, Fairmont, SO/, Sofitel, onefinestay, Rixos, MGallery, Pullman, Swissôtel, 25hours Hotels, Novotel, Mercure, Mama Shelter, Adagio, JO&JOE, ibis, ibis Styles, ibis budget, Grand

Good to kn

You probab ed by Accor SA or one c nchise or manageme ies across the world).

This is why, when staying in one of these hotels, your personal data will be dealt with by Accor SA and the hotel, both acting as Data Controllers for their own, separate, purposes. In summary:

- Accor SA will process your data because it manages a central booking engine, which allows Accor SA to collect the data necessary to organise your stay in hotels under an Accorbrand and to communicate this data to the concerned hotels. Accor SA also manages a global database of clients who stay in hotels under an Accorbrand. With the help of its subsidiary PRO-FID SAS, Accor SA also manages the Le Club Accor loyalty programme;
- Each hotel will process your data to manage its contractual relationship with you (invoicing, payment, booking management etc.), to perform marketing activities and to comply with its legal obligations.

Accor SA has communicated the principles set out in this charter to all of the Accorbranded hotels and their respective owners. We will do our upmost to ensure that all hotels comply with the applicable data protection laws and this charter in relation to the processing of your personal data.

3. ACCOR' TEN PRINCIPLES FOR PROTECTING YOUR PERSONAL DATA

In accordance with applicable regulations, in particular the European General Data Protection Regulation, we have instituted the following ten principles throughout the AccorGroup:

1. Lawfulness: We use personal data only if:
    - we obtain the consent of the person, OR
    - it is necessary to do so for the performance of a contract to which the person is a party, OR
    - it is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation, OR
    - it is necessary in order to protect the vital interests of the person, OR
    - we have a legitimate interest in using personal data and our usage does not adversely affect the persons' rights
2. Fairness: We can explain why we need the personal data we collect.
3. Purpose limitation and data minimisation: We only use personal data that we really need. If the result can be achieved with less personal data, then we make sure we use the minimum data required.
4. Transparency: We inform people about the way we use their personal data
5. We facilitate the exercise of the people's rights: access to their personal data, rectification and erasure of their personal data and the right to object to the use of their personal data
6. Storage limitation: We retain personal data for a limited period

4. WHAT PERSONAL DATA IS COLLECTED?

At various times, we may collect information about you and/or the persons accompanying you, including the following:

- Contact details (for example, last name, first name, telephone number, email)
- Personal information (for example, date of birth, nationality)
- Information relating to your children (for example, first name, date of birth, age)
- Your credit card number (for transaction and reservation purposes)
- Information contained on a form of identification (such as ID card, passport or driver licence)
- Your membership number for the Accor loyalty program or another partner program (for example, an airline loyalty programme) and information related to your activities within the context of the loyalty program
- Your arrival and departure dates
- Your preferences and interests (for example, smoking or non-smoking room, preferred floor, type of bedding, type of newspapers/magazines, sports, cultural interests, food and beverages preferences, etc.)
- Your questions/comments, during or following a stay in one of our Accorbranded establishments
- Technical and location data you generate as a result of using our websites and applications.

Feedback

The information collected in relation to persons under 16 years of age is limited to their name, nationality and date of birth, which can only be supplied to us by an adult. We would be grateful if you could ensure that your children do not send us any personal data without your consent (particularly via the Internet). If such data is sent, you can contact the Data Privacy department (see clause "Your rights" below) to arrange for this information to be deleted.
In order to meet your requirements or provide you with a specific service (such as dietary requirements), we may have to collect sensitive information, such as information concerning race, ethnicity, political opinions, religious and philosophical beliefs, union membership, or details of health or sexual orientation. In this case, we will only process this data if you provide your express prior consent.

1. We share your data with a number of authorised people and departments in the AccorGroup in order to offer you the best experience in our hotels. The following teams may have access to your data:
    - Hotel staff
    - Reservation staff using Accorreservation tools
    - IT departments
    - Commercial partners and marketing services
    - Medical services if applicable
    - Legal services if applicable
    - Generally, any appropriate person within AccorGroup entities for certain specific categories of personal data.
2. With service providers and partners: your personal data may be sent to a third party for the purposes of supplying you with services and improving your stay, for example:
    - External service providers: IT sub-contractors, international call centres, banks, credit card issuers, external lawyers, dispatchers, printers.
    - Commercial partners: Accor SA may, unless you specify otherwise to the Data Privacy department, enhance your profile by sharing certain personal information with its preferred commercial partners. In this case, a trusted third party may cross-check, analyse and combine your data. This data processing will allow Accor SA and its privileged contractual partners to determine your interests and customer profile to allow us to send you personalized offers.
    - Social networking sites: In order to allow you to be identified on the Accorwebsite without the need to fill out a registration form, Accor SA has put in place a social network login system. If you log in using the social network login system, you explicitly authorize Accor SA to access and store the public data on your social network account (e.g. Facebook, LinkedIn, Google, Instagram…), as well as other data stated during use of such social network login system. Accor SA may also communicate your email address to social networks in order to identify whether you are already a user of the concerned social network and in order to post personalized, relevant adverts on your social network account if appropriate.
3. With local authorities: We may be obliged to send your information to local authorities if this is required by law or as part of an inquiry. We will ensure that any such transfer is carried out in accordance with local regulations.

Your data may be sent, in particular as part of the reservation process, to Accorhotels located outside of the European Union, in particular in the following countries/regions: South Africa, Algeria, Andorra, Angola, Saudi Arabia, Argentina, Australia, Bahrain, Benin, Brazil, Cambodia, Cameroon, Canada, Chile, China (including Taiwan Region, Hong Kong Special Administrative Region and Macau Special Administrative Region), Colombia, South Korea, Ivory Coast, Cuba, Egypt, United Arab Emirates, Ecuador, United States of America, Fiji, Ghana, Guatemala, Equatorial Guinea, India, Indonesia, Israel, Japan, Jordan, Kuwait, Laos, Lebanon, Madagascar, Malaysia, Morocco, Mauritius, Mexico, Monaco, Myanmar, Nigeria, New Zealand, Oman, Uzbekistan, Panama, Paraguay, Peru, Philippines, Qatar, Democratic Republic of Congo, Dominican Republic, Russia, Senegal, Singapore, Switzerland, Chad, Thailand, Togo, Tunisia, Turkmenistan, Turkey, Ukraine, Uruguay, Vietnam, Yemen. Other than those that are required to carry out your reservation, data transfers to countries having different levels of personal data protection, are regulated by standard contractual clauses defined by the European Commission.

9. DATA SECURITY

Accor SA takes appropriate technical and organizational measures, in accordance with applicable legal provisions (in particular: Art. 32 GDPR), to protect your personal data against illicit or accidental destruction, alteration or loss misuse and unauthorized access, modification or disclosure. To this end, we have taken technical measures (such as firewalls) and organizational measures (such as a user ID/password system, means of physical protection etc.) to ensure the ongoing confidentiality, integrity, availability and resilience of processing systems and services. In relation to the submission of credit card data when making a reservation, SSL (Secure Socket Layer) encryption technology is used to guarantee a secure transaction. Organizational measures ensure the security of the processing.

This "Privacy Policy for California residents" is part of the Accor SA "Customer Personal Data Protection Charter" and should therefore be read in conjunction with it.

The California Consumer Privacy Act 2018 ("CCPA") requires that we provide California residents with a privacy policy that contains a comprehensive description of our online and offline practices regarding the collection, use, disclosure, and sale of personal information and of the rights of California residents regarding their personal information.

The CCPA defines "Personal Information" as information that identifies, relates to, describes, is reasonably capable of being associated with, or could reasonably be linked, directly or indirectly, with a particular California resident or household. In the context of this "Privacy Policy for California residents" section, the term "Personal Information" will refer to this information.

Accor SA may collect the categories of Personal Information as described in section 4. What personal data is collected? of our Customer Personal Data Protection Charter.

If you would like more details about when your Personal Information is collected, what purposes it is collected for and how long we retain it, please see sections below of our Customer Personal Data Protection Charter:

5. When is your personal data collected?

6. What purposes is your data collected for and how long do we retain it?

In addition to the purposes set forth in our Customer Personal Data Protection Charter, we currently collect and have collected and "sold" (see section "Do Not Sell" below) Personal Information for the following business or commercial purposes:

- Auditing related to a current interaction with you and concurrent transactions, including, but not limited to, counting ad impressions to unique visitors, verifying positioning and quality of ad impressions, and auditing compliance with this specification and other standards
- Detecting security incidents, protecting against malicious, deceptive, fraudulent, or illegal activity, and prosecuting those responsible for that activity
- Debugging to identify and repair errors that impair existing intended functionality

We may share your Personal Information with internal and external recipients subject to the conditions set forth in section 7. Conditions of third-party access to your personal data of our Customer Personal Data Protection Charter. The categories of third parties to whom your Personal Information may be disclosed or "sold" (see section "Do Not Sell" below) on a need-to-know basis are:

· Service Providers: external Service Providers;

· Other Third Parties: appropriate persons within hotels and Accor Group entities; commercial partners; social networking sites; local authorities (if and as legally required).

We do not knowingly "sell" (see section "Do Not Sell" below) the Personal Information of minors under 16 years of age. For more information on data collected in relation to persons under 16 years of age and to arrange for this information to be deleted, see section 4. 14.3 Privacy Notice for Chinese residents

14.3.1 Introduction

This Privacy Notice for China is part of the Accor SA "Customer Personal Data Protection Charter" and should be read in conjunction with it. This notice is made pursuant to the Personal Information Protection Law of the People's Republic of China (" PIPL") and applies to our personal information processing activities:

- in the People's Republic of China (which, for the purposes of this notice only, excludes the Hong Kong SAR, Macau SAR and Taiwan China) ("China"); and
- outside China for the purposes of providing products and services to people in China.

Feedback

For the above personal information processing activities, if there is any inconsistency between this Privacy Notice for China and the above Customer Personal Data Protection Charter, this Privacy Notice for China prevails.

14.3.2 Collection, Use and Retention of Personal Information

The PIPL defines "Personal Information" as any kind of information related to an identified or identifiable natural person as electronically or otherwise recorded, excluding information that has been anonymized. Processing activities include the collection, storage, use, processing, transmission, provision, disclosure, and deletion of personal information.

For a break nario, please see the details below. Any sensitive personal information under PIPL involved will be highlighted in bold and underlined for your attention. We will implement strict protective measures to ensure the security of sensitive personal information and will not cause any significant impact on your personal rights and interests. If you provide personal information that is not your own, you must ensure that you have obtained the individual's consent.

(1) Hotel Activities

a. Hotel Reservation

To verify customer identity, confirm reservations, and communicate with you when necessary, we collect the following personal information: your name, mobile number, email address, country or region, and reservation details (hotel name/address, check-in/check-out dates, room type/rate, and number of guests). For certain reservations requiring advance payment as a guarantee, we also collect your payment card information to complete the booking.

Additionally, if you inform us that a minor will be staying with you, we will collect the minor's age to provide child-related services.

b. Hotel Stay

To provide you with hotel accommodation services, including check-in, membership points calculation based on your stay and expenses, check-out, communication during your stay, and requested services, we collect your name, accommodation details, email address, contact address, payment card information, transaction and consumption records.

We may also send a guest satisfaction survey to your email or through other means. If you choose to participate, we will collect information about your country and gender to better understand your feedback.

(2) Loyalty Program

To create your membership account for the Accor Loyalty Program and communicate with you regarding related information, you are required to provide at least your name, title, email address, phone number, country or region, and membership account password (if registering through the "Accor Live Limitless" WeChat mini-program, no password is required, and login is done via SMS verification code). Additionally, we need to collect your accommodation information, transaction

You may also choose to provide us with (or we may proactively record) your preferences (such as smoking or non-smoking room, preferred floor, bed type, preferred newspapers/magazines, sports/cultural interests, dietary preferences, etc.) to meet your personalized service needs. You can update your preferences by visiting the Accor website and accessing your personal account under "Overview" – "Stay Preferences."

(3) Others

a. Marketing Activities

With your consent, we may use the email address and phone number you provided to send you marketing information and news about our products, services, or promotional activities. You can opt-out of these marketing communications at any time.

b. Statistical Analysis

We may use the personal information we collect for overall data statistics and performance analysis. These statistics and analysis results will be used to understand business conditions, product and service development and optimization, etc. The results will support our business decisions but will not include any identifiable personal information.

c. Online Activities and Security Protection

When you interact with us via online channels (website, app, WeChat mini-program), we will collect relevant personal information you provide. To support, maintain, and improve our online services, we may collect device information, network data, and application information while you use these channels. In addition, to ensure the rights and safety of ourselves or others, we may use the information collected to detect and prevent security incidents, including fraud, abuse, illegal use, or violations of our terms.

14.3.5 Protection of Your Personal Data During International Transfers

We use central information systems located overseas to process your reservation, accommodation, and membership information. The details are as follows:

Name of the overseas recipient: Accor S.A.

Contact details of the overseas recipient: data.privacy@accor.com or 82 rue Henri Farman, 92130 Issy-les-Moulineaux, France

Purpose of processing: As a global multinational company, Accor Group adopts globally integrated standards for its products, services, and management. The central information systems are used to manage customer reservations, accommodations, and memberships worldwide. Specifically: when you book our hotel, we need to collect your personal information to coordinate the hotel reservation management system globally (including but not limited to China) and integrate the group's global resources. This information is used for hotel reservations and prepaid management. When you stay and consume services at our hotels, we need to collect your personal information to efficiently and consistently monitor your experience, address needs and issues during your stay, understand guest accommodations across different hotels, analyze hotel performance and service, and meet internal audit and management requirements. This is used for member points calculation, non-member communication channels, customer surveys and analysis, and hotel performance analysis. When you register as an Accor member or enjoy Accor membership services, we need to collect your personal information to ensure the effective operation of our global membership system (including point accumulation and redemption, global promotions, personalized services, etc.). This is used for membership registration, ALL Plus card management, preference management, loyalty points management, and fast payment management. Additionally, the overseas recipient may use the collected personal information for internal audit purposes.

Method of processing: Collection, transmission, storage, use, processing, provision, and deletion.

Types of personal information processed: When you book our hotel, the overseas recipient needs to process your name, email address, phone number, country or region, booking information, payment card details, transaction and consumption records, age of guests under 14 (optional), and Accor membership ID (optional). When you stay and consume services at our hotel, the overseas recipient processes your name, accommodation information, email address, country (optional), gender (optional), accommodation satisfaction feedback (optional), and contact address. You can exercise your rights as a data subject under the Personal Information Protection Law by emailing the designated email for Accor China (China.dataprivacy.team@accor.com) or the Accor Group email (Data.privacy@accor.com) (Please refer to Section “14.3.8 Your Rights”).

14.3.6 Data Security

We take appropriate technical and organizational measures, in accordance with applicable legal provisions, to protect your personal information against unlawful or accidental destruction, alteration, loss, misuse, access, modification or disclosure. For more information, please read 9. DATA SECURITY in the Customer Personal Data Protection Charter.

14.3.7 Protection of Personal Information of Children

We take the protection of minors' personal information very seriously and comply with the requirements of the PIPL to safeguard the personal information of minors (under the age of 14).

Please note that our services are primarily intended for adults. If it is necessary to collect a minor's personal information (e.g., when booking a room, providing the age of a minor staying together), such information must be provided by an adult. We would be grateful if you could ensure that your children do not send us any personal information without your consent (particularly via the Internet). If such information is sent, you can contact us (see section 14.3.9 "Questions and Contacts" below) to arrange for this information to be deleted.

If you have any questions, requests, or concerns regarding the protection of children's personal information, please contact us as indicated in section 14.3.9 "Questions and Contacts".

For matters not specifically addressed in this Protection of Personal Information of Children section, the relevant provisions of the Customer Personal Data Protection Charter shall apply.
