When you register with the Application or Services, we contact you from time to time about updating your personal information to provide you features that we believe may benefit/interest you.

Information sharing

TIL shares your information with any third parties without obtaining the prior consent of User in the following limited circumstances:

When it is requested or required by law or by any court or governmental agency or authority to disclose, for the purpose of verification of identity, or for the prevention, detection, investigation including cyber incidents, or for prosecution and punishment of offences. These disclosures are made in good faith and belief that such disclosure is reasonably necessary for enforcing these Terms or for complying with the applicable laws and regulations.

TIL proposes to share such information within its group companies and officers and employees of such group companies for the purpose of processing personal information on its behalf. We also ensure that these recipients of such information agree to process such information based on Our instructions and in compliance with this Privacy Policy and any other appropriate confidentiality and security measures.

In case you are not logged in as a TIL SSO user and wish to comment on any article or topic, We will ask for your name and email address and will be stored by TIL to display them against your comments. Please note that your name and email address against your comment will be stored by ET for legal and regulatory purposes. Further, ET reserves the right to delete or disapprove any comment related or unrelated to the respective article or post if We find it defamatory, abusive or illegal.

How long do we store and use your Information

We retain the information which We have collected no longer than is necessary. This is determined on a case by case basis. Normally We will retain the information as long as you maintain an account with Us and till the time you continue to access and use ET Services. We will delete your information whenever you request Us to do so. However, We may archive and/or retain some information for legal purposes.

If you wish to request the deletion of your data, please email support.et@timesinternet.in from your registered email address with the subject line: "Data Deletion Request."

EEA Residents' Controls and Choices

For any of the below request you may send Us an e-mail to Our support team

A. Accessing and rectifying your personal information

When you use the Services Website/application (or any of its sub sites), We make good faith efforts to provide you, as and when requested by you, with access to your personal information and shall further ensure that any personal information or sensitive personal data or information found to be inaccurate or deficient shall be corrected or amended as feasible. We ask individual users to identify themselves and the information requested to be accessed or corrected before processing such requests. We may decline to process requests that are unreasonably repetitive or systematic, requiring disproportionate technical effort, jeopardizing the privacy of others, or would be extremely impractical (for instance, requests concerning information residing on backup tapes), or for which access is not otherwise required. In any case, where we provide information access and correction, We perform this service free of charge, except if doing so would require a disproportionate effort.

You can make access requests by sending an e-mail to Our Grievance officer. You will get a link on your registered Email address through which you can access all the data ET collects and stores about you.

You can ask Us to correct inaccurate or incomplete personal information Concerning your login credentials by editing the same through My Accounts section, through the SSO portal. The same shall be reflected across all properties.

Concerning details that are separately collected and maintained by ET by sending an e-mail to Our support team to perform the rectification.

B. Data Portability

You may also be entitled to request copies of personal information that you have provided to Us in a structured, commonly used, and machine-readable format; wherever feasible. If you are registered on the ET Services, then you can download the information which We have collected and stored by using the Download functionality through the link https://economictimes.indiatimes.com/gdprform.cms . Through this, a copy of your information that We have collected and stored will be downloaded on your machine.

C. Data Retention and Erasure

We retain your personal information as long as necessary for Us to provide services to you or you ask Us to not retain your data. If you no longer want Us to use your information then you can request that We erase your personal information and close your ET Services account. Please note that if you request for the erasure of your personal information;

The personal information (Name, E-mail, Mobile No) will be retained as a part of the SSO Login functionality and will be governed by the SSO Login Policy

We may retain some of your personal information as necessary for Our legitimate business interests, such as fraud detection and prevention and enhancing safety. For example, if We suspend the ET Services account for fraud or safety reasons, We may retain certain information from that account to prevent that user from opening a new account in the future.

We may retain and use your personal information to the extent necessary to comply with Our legal obligations. For example, we may keep some of your information for tax, legal reporting and auditing obligations.

Information you have shared with others (e.g., Reviews, forum postings) may continue to be publicly visible on the ET Services, even after your account is cancelled. However, attribution of such information to you will be removed. Additionally, some copies of your information (e.g., log records) may remain in Our database, but are disassociated from personal identifiers.

Because We maintain copies of personal information to protect from accidental or malicious loss and destruction, residual copies may take a period of time before they are deleted from Our active servers and may remain in Our backup systems.

You can request for deletion of your information by using the delete functionality through https://economictimes.indiatimes.com/gdprform.cms. Your request will be processed and you will receive confirmation of the same via email. Please note that this will only perform a deletion of the information that has been collected by ET and will disable your SSO information for ET. You will still exist as a user across all the other TIL platforms. In case you also wish to delete your SSO related information, kindly follow the instructions displayed on the screen or please read the SSO privacy policy to understand how to invoke your rights.

Please note that if you have multiple accounts with Us, then you will have to raise separate requests for each of the accounts, along with the associated email IDs or phone numbers.

Further, We may retain and use Your personal information to the extent necessary to comply with Our legal obligations. For example, We may keep some of Your information for tax, legal reporting and auditing obligations.

D. Withdrawing Consent and Restriction of Processing

For withdrawing your consent at any time during the tenure of your services with Us, you may choose to do so by sending Us an e-mail. We shall review your request and may ask you to verify your identity. Post verification We will withdraw the consent for which request was made by you and stop any further processing of your personal information.

E. Objection to Processing

Where your personal information is processed for direct marketing purposes or any contests or promotions or other services, you may, at any time ask Us to cease processing your data for these direct marketing purposes by sending an e-mail to Us.

Please be aware that if you do not allow Us to collect personal information from you, We may not be able to deliver certain experiences, and services to you, and some of Our services may not be able to take account of your interests and preferences. If collection of personal information is mandatory, We will make that clear at the point of collection so that you can make an informed decision whether to participate. If you have questions about the specific personal information about you that We process or retain, and your rights regarding that personal information, please contact Us at the below mentioned e-mail address.

We may take 30 days from the date of receipt of request to complete your requests. However, if the nature of the requests are excessive in nature or would require significant effort then may ask for an extension of 60 days by giving a prior notice to you with the reason for the extension.

We ask individual users to identify themselves and the information requested to be accessed, corrected or removed before processing such requests, and We may decline to process requests that are unreasonably repetitive or systematic, require disproportionate technical effort, jeopardize the privacy of others, or would be extremely impractical (for instance, requests concerning information residing on backup tapes), or for which access is not otherwise required. In any case, where We provide information access and correction, We perform this service free of charge, except if doing so would require a disproportionate effort.

F. Complaints

You can write to Us in case of any grievance or compliant at the support e-mail address. If you have any complaints regarding processing of your personal information you may contact Our data protection officer at the below mentioned e-mail address. You have the right to complaint about the data processing activities carried out by ET Services before the competent data protection authorities.

Children's Privacy

ET is not intentionally designed for or directed at persons less than 18 years of age. ET does not knowingly permit any person who is under 18 years of age to register with the services or to provide any other personally identifying information. If ET becomes aware or get notified that any personally identifiable information of persons less than 18 years of age has been collected on the ET Services without verified parental consent, then ET will take the appropriate steps to delete any such information.

However, We consider it the responsibility of parents to monitor their children's use of Our services. Nevertheless, it is Our policy not to collect and process any personal information from children below 18 years of age or offer to send any promotional materials to persons in that category. ET does not seek or intend to seek or receive any personal information from children. Should a parent or guardian have reasons to believe that a minor has provided ET with personal information without their prior consent, please contact Our customer support team to ensure that the personal information is removed from the ET Services.

Data transfer, storage & processing globally

We operate globally and may transfer your personal information to individual companies of the ET affiliated companies or third parties in locations around the world for the purposes described in this privacy policy. Wherever your personal information is transferred, stored or processed by Us, We will take reasonable steps to safeguard the privacy of your personal information. Additionally, when using or disclosing personal information transferred from the European Union, We use standard contractual clauses approved by the European Commission, adopt other means under European Union law for ensuring adequate safeguards.

Security measures

We take appropriate security measures to protect against unauthorized access to or unauthorized alteration, disclosure or destruction of data. These include internal reviews of Our data collection, storage and processing practices and security measures, including appropriate encryption and physical security measures to guard against unauthorized access to systems where we store personal data. All information gathered is securely stored within the Company controlled database. The database is stored on servers secured behind a firewall on the cloud; access to the servers is password-protected and is strictly limited. However, as effective as Our security measures are, no security system is impenetrable. If you know or have reason to believe that your ET account credentials have been lost, stolen, altered, or otherwise compromised or in case of any actual or suspected unauthorized use of your account, please contact Us by contacting Our customer support team.

Updates & Changes

We may alter Our privacy policy from time to time to incorporate necessary changes in technology, applicable law or any other variant. We reserve the right to amend the terms of this Policy from time to time. Any changes We make will be effective immediately on notice, which We may give by posting the new policy on the Site. We may also make reasonable efforts to inform you via electronic mail. In any case, you are advised to review this Privacy Policy periodically on the Website.

E. California Residents’ Rights
Residents of California are entitled to certain rights under CCPA.

Right to Know - You can request and receive a copy of the specific pieces of the personal information that we have collected from you in the last 12 months of making the request.
You will receive the copy of your requested data electronically in a portable and technically feasible format, free of charge.
This request can be made by the user twice in a period of 12 months.

Right to Delete - You can request deletion of your personal information that we have collected except where an exemption applies

We take reasonable steps to verify your identity before responding to any of the above requests, which may include, at a minimum, depending on the sensitivity of the information you are requesting and the type of request you are making, verifying your name, email address or mobile number.

You are also permitted to designate an authorized agent to submit certain requests on your behalf. In order for an authorized agent to be verified, you must provide the authorized agent with signed, written permission to make such requests or a power of attorney. We may also follow up with you to verify your identity before processing the authorized agent's request.

If you would like to exercise any of the rights, please send us an email at grievance[dot]et[at]timesinternet[dot]in or support.et@timesinternet.in

F. Non-discrimination for exercising your rights

CCPA prohibits discrimination against California residents for exercising their rights under CCPA. ET holds the practice of non-discrimination strongly and does not denies or provides a different level or quality of services or charges different rates or penalties on residents who exercise their CCPA rights.

G. Metrics

California law requires us to compile metrics for the previous calendar year regarding consumer requests and responses catered. ET will disclose the metrics with relevant details by July every year.
