Privacy Policy

Last updated: August 2025

If you are a minor, and are not sure you understand everything in this Policy, please make sure to speak with a trusted adult before using BeReal. Please also remember that BeReal is not meant to be used if you are under 13. If you are over 13 but under 16 years old, your parent or guardian must approve your use of the app.

In this Privacy Policy, we will explain what information we collect about you, how we use it, when we share it, and the controls we provide you to manage the information you share with us.

1. Information we process about you

BeReal (the 'App') collects information that you provide directly to us, through your use of our App and your visit to our website or shared by third-parties.

1.1 Data that you provide to us

Account Creation Data: when you create an account on our App, we will ask you for the following information. Without it, we cannot provide you access to the App:

- Your phone number, full name, date of birth and username.
- The email address of a parent or guardian, for users under 16 years old.

During (or after) account creation there is also some additional information you can decide to share with us:

- A biography, your location (as precise as you want), and a profile picture.

Content Data: when you use the App, you can decide to share the following data:

- Your reaction to your friends' Content: RealMojis, emojis, captions and comments.

Chat Data: when you use the BeReals chat function, we collect the messages, photos and videos you share with your friends within the chat.

Communications with BeReal: When you report a concern with our App, respond to a survey, request assistance, we collect the following data:

- Your email address,
- Content of communication with us,
- Photos you may decide to share with us,
- Copies of government issued identification (only when strictly required to identify you with certainty),
- Identifiers (e.g., phone numbers or email address),
- Any other information you may decide to share with us.

1.2 Data we collect when you use our App or visit our website

Like all internet based services, as you use our App or visit our website, we automatically receive information about you from your device and your usage of our App and your visit of our website. Most information is collected through trackers:

a. Through the use of our website:

Connection and Technical Data such as IP address, device type, operating system version, browser, language preference, and browsing data.

b. Through your use of the App:

Connection and Technical Data such as:

- IP address, account creation date, last login, terminal equipment and port, operating system, system configuration data, device type, operating system version, browser, language preference, and applications.

We use cookies to enhance your browsing experience, serve personalised ads or content, and analyse our traffic. By clicking "Accept All", you consent to our use of cookies.

Interaction Data:

- Friend (number of friends, friend invitations, the friends with whom you interact the most).

Inferred information: We will analyse Account Creation Data and the Content Data to infer information about you:

- Your time zone.
- Your interests.

Usage Data: actions performed on the App or our website, time of posting Content, how many times you retook a photo before posting, number of BeReal posts, Content viewed, Content interactions, the fact that you deleted Content, or that you blocked users, when you take a screenshot in our App, application crashes, pages visited and event logs.

Geolocation Data: when you use our app, we infer your country, city, region based on your IP address.

Address Book Data: You can decide to allow BeReal to access your address book to identify the friends in your Address Book who may already be on BeReal or to recommend you new friends. We do not access your Address Book without your permission. Bear in mind that even if you don't agree to share your Address Book with us, we can still make personalized friends' suggestions to you based on your contact details that we received from your friends who use our app (see below). You can revoke your permission to access your Address Book Data at any time through your device settings. Once access is revoked, we will no longer collect or update contact information from your address book, and previously uploaded contact data will be deleted within a reasonable time.

Integrations with partners: When you decide to connect a partner application (for example Spotify) to use a specific integration on BeReal, we receive information that allows us to bring that feature to you. This will include all necessary device data, and other optional data that you may choose to share as part of the integration.

1.3 Information about you provided by third parties

We may receive information about you from other users of our app. For instance, if other users know you and choose to use contact importing, they may share your Address Book Data details such as your phone number with us, just as you may share theirs. 3. When we share information about you

3.1 We share information about you with our employees and service providers, who will process it under our control.

BeReal Employees: To allow you to use the App to you or provide you support, authorized BeReal employees may need to get access to your information. We strictly limit who can access your data.

Service Providers: To bring you our App we work with a small group of partners who provide us services. This includes partners who help with technical and hosting support, sending notifications, publishing, and sharing content, user analytics and satisfaction surveys, management of security incidents or fraudulent activity, etc. In working with those partners, we may share your information with them to bring you our App.

Counsels: For compliance with our statutory obligations, in particular in terms of accounting, auditing and internal control, we wight share your information with our counsels (legal, financial, audit).

3.2 We also share information about you to third parties, who will process it under their own control.

The Voodoo Group: BeReal is part of the Voodoo Group ("Voodoo"), and we share your information with Voodoo, who can use it for its own purposes, as described in its Privacy Policy. Voodoo might combine the data shared by us with data they hold about you from other apps. This sharing only occurs if you have consented to.

Ad Partners: To allow us to monetize the ad inventory of our app and provide users with free products and services, we can share your information with our partners. Those partners usually collect data via their own tools (Software development Kits or "SDK" and cookies) but we can a you that we hold. You will find a list o t describe their practices and allow y sharing only occurs if you have c

P re we may need to share your ir App.

We value your privacy

We use cookies to enhance your browsing experience, serve personalised ads or content, and analyse our traffic. By clicking "Accept All", you consent to our use of cookies.

Legal and Statutory Purposes: From time to time we may receive legal requests for information related to our users, be required to proactively share data with authorities (governmental authorities, courts, and similar third parties) when we learn of certain Content on our App (e.g., Child Sexual Abuse Material or terrorism), address fraud or security concerns, or protect people on our App or elsewhere from harm.

Change in Ownership: In the event of a merger, acquisition, reorganization or sale of assets, or bankruptcy, BeReal may share, sell or transfer information about you. This Privacy Policy would apply to all transferred information.

4. Children's data

BeReal never knowingly or willingly collects any personal data concerning children under 13 years of age. Depending on where you live, if you are under the age of consent in your country, a parent or guardian may also have to provide consent for you to use our App. If you are under 13, please do not use BeReal.

5. International transfers

Some of the partners and service providers referred to in this policy are located outside of the European Union.

In such case, we ensure that:

- The personal data is transferred to countries recognized as offering an equivalent level of protection or,
- One of the mechanisms offering appropriate guarantees is implemented (for example, the adoption of the standard contractual clauses of the European Commission.

6. How long we keep information about you

We keep your information only for as long as it's needed to provide our services to you, in line with legal requirements and data protection authorities guidelines.

7. [illegible] n the App

We value your privacy

We use cookies to enhance your browsing experience, serve personalised ads or content, and analyse our traffic. By clicking "Accept All", you consent to our use of cookies.

Who sees your Content: Note that when you share Content through our App, that Content is available to your BeReal friends. Each time you share Content, you can also decide to allow friends of your friends to see it or even to publish it on BeReal's discovery feed. You can control this at any time in the settings of the applications how other users use your Content is not under our control.

Time Zone: When you create an account we determine your time zone for the purpose of providing you our App. In the settings of the applications you can change your time zone at any time.

Integrations: From time to time we may offer integrations with partners to provide you certain features. If those partners require you to log into your account on their services to avail of the feature, you will be able to control those integrations in the settings of the applications at any time.

Deactivate Memories: In the settings of the App, you can choose to activate or deactivate the memories feature at any time. If you deactivate this feature, you and other users of the App won't be able to see your prior Content.

Delete Your Account: In the settings of the App, you can choose to delete your account at any time. If you choose to delete your account, your account will be scheduled for deletion. This process takes approximately 15 days. If you log back into your account during that 15 day period, it will stop the deletion request. If you do not log back in, your account and all of your information will be permanently deleted. Note, information will not be deleted where BeReal has received a valid legal request requiring us to preserve your information.

Consent: When we rely on your consent, you can withdraw your consent at any time from the "settings" page in our application.

If your account is permanently suspended by us and you choose to delete your account, we will keep Account Creation Data related to your account to prevent permanently suspended users from creating new accounts.

8. What rights do you have over your information

We may nevertheless need to retain certain limited data in an archived database, in particular if we have a legal obligation to retain such personal data or if it is necessary for the exercise or defense of legal claims.

- Right to restrict processing: In certain circumstances, you may request the limitation of the processing of your personal data, in particular when you request the rectification of your personal data.

- Right to withdraw your consent: Where the processing of your personal data is based on your consent, you may, at any time, withdraw any consent you have previously provided to us. Such withdrawal does not affect the lawfulness of processing based on consent prior to withdrawal.

- Right to object: You may also object at any time to the processing of your Personal Data when it is used for commercial prospecting purposes or for reasons related to your particular situation.

- Right to portability: In certain cases, you may also obtain a copy of your personal data, in a commonly used and machine-readable format, to enable you to exercise your right to data portability.

- Right to set instructions for how your data is processed post-mortem: If you are a French user, you also have the right to set directives concerning the management of your personal data after your death.

- If you are in the European Union, EFTA States or the United Kingdom, and wish to raise a concern about our data processing practices, you have the right to do so with your local supervisory authority or BeReal's lead supervisory authority, the Commission Nationale de l'Informatique et des Libertés (CNIL), using the contact details listed on their website.

Some of these rights (rectification, deletion and consent withdrawal) can be exercised directly from the App, in the setting section. You can also exercise these rights and all other rights by addressing your request to our support at contact@bere.al or our Office of Data Protection at dpo@bere.al. Since we don't necessarily collect your address email, we sometimes will need additional information to make sure that the request does come from you.

Information We Collect
We collect information that identifies, relates to, describes, references, is capable of being associated with, or could reasonably be linked, directly or indirectly, with a particular consumer or device ("personal information"). Specifically, we have collected the categories of personal information described in the section of our privacy policy "Information we process about you" from California residents within the last twelve (12) months.

Use of Personal Information
We may use or disclose the personal information we collect for one or more of the business or commercial purposes described in the section of our privacy policy "How we use information we receive about you".

Data Retention
We will retain personal Information from or about you as reasonably necessary and proportionate to achieve the purpose(s) for which the personal Information was collected or processed unless a longer retention period is required or allowed by law.

Sharing Personal Information
We may share your personal information with third parties for business purposes, including:

- Advertising Networks: To provide tailored advertising based on your activities, contents, profile, browsing history and preferences.
- Data Analytics Providers: To understand app and website usage patterns and improve our services.

In the past twelve (12) months, we have disclosed the following categories of personal information for business purposes:

Your Rights and Choices

As a U.S. resident, you have specific rights regarding your personal information under federal and state laws, including the CCPA, CPRA, CPA, CTDPA, FPPA, ICDPA, MCDPA, NHCPA, NJPIPPA, OCPA, UCPA, TDPSA, VCDPA, and FTC Act. These rights include:

1. Right to Know

You have the right to request that we disclose certain information to you about our collection and use of your personal information over the past twelve (12) months. Once we receive and verify your request, we will disclose to you:

- The categories of personal information we have collected about you.
- The categories of sources from which your personal information was collected.
- The business or commercial purpose for collecting or selling your personal information.
- The categories of third parties with whom we share your personal information.
- The specific pieces of personal information we have collected about you.

2. Right to Delete

You have the right to request that we delete any of your personal information that we collected from you and retained, subject to certain exceptions. Once we receive and verify your request, we will delete your personal information from our records, unless an exception applies.

3. Right to Opt-Out of the Sale and share of Personal Information

You have the right to opt-out of the sale and share of your personal information. If you wish to exercise this right, please contact us using the information provided below.

Only you, or a person registered with the California Secretary of State that you authorize to act on your behalf, may make a verifiable consumer request related to your personal information.

The verifiable consumer request must provide sufficient information that allows us to reasonably verify that you are the person about whom we collected personal information or an authorized representative.

You may make a verifiable consumer request for access or deletion no more than twice within a 12-month period. The request must:

- Include sufficient information: Details that allow us to verify your identity and your request. This may include providing us with specific information we already have on record.

- Describe your request with enough detail: So that we can properly understand, evaluate, and respond to it.

We will respond to your request within 45 days (up to 15 days in case of data sharing) of its receipt. If we require more time (up to an additional 45 days), we will inform you of the reason and extension period in writing.

Response Format and Delivery
We will deliver our written response by mail or electronically, at your option. If we cannot comply with a request, we will explain the reasons in our response.

For data access requests, our response will cover only the 12-month period preceding the verifiable consumer request's receipt. The response will explain the reasons we cannot comply with a request if applicable. If you are between 13 and 16 years old and wish to exercise your rights, please follow the instructions provided in the privacy settings of our app or contact us directly.

Do Not Track (DNT):

Some browsers offer a “Do Not Track” (DNT) setting that allows you to express a preference not to be tracked by websites. However, there is no universally accepted standard for how DNT signals should be interpreted. As a result, our website does not currently respond to DNT signals. Instead, we focus on compliance with recognized privacy preferences, such as the Global Privacy Control (GPC).
