(3) Location Information

Time will collect your Location Information, including the country code, latitude and longitude, network location, IP address and the system country and system time zone recorded on your device. This information will help you to tag the location to the photos where they were taken. Except as otherwise provided in this Policy, we will not share this Location Information with any third parties. If you no longer wish to allow us to collect or use such information, you may turn off your Internet access or GPS, or disable our access to information about your network, GPS and device. Please note that we may still continue to receive some Location Information, such as your Network Information, IP address and system time zone, as a result of you using the Services.

(4) Network Information

When you use the Services, we will collect information about the network you use, including the name of the operator and the type of network, so as to understand the distribution of operators and networks used by our users. In addition, we will collect information such as the name of the WiFi network to which you connect, the location of the WiFi network, and the duration of your WiFi connection to understand the environment under which you prefer to use our Services.

(5) Log Information

When you use some of the Services, including generating and browsing certain content, we will automatically collect certain relevant log information stored in our Service ("Log Information"). Log Information may include (i) details on when and how often you use the Services, (ii) device statistics, including critical operation paths, errors, crashes, language and time zone. This Log Information is used to improve the Services and is NOT USED to identify our users individually.

(6) photos, videos, and associated metadata

When you enable the "Team Auto-Sync" photo feature, we will collect and store your uploaded photos, videos, and associated metadata (such as time of capture and device information). You may disable sync permissions at any time.

(7) Information Collected by Third Party Services

Our Services provided to you may contain our service provider's Application Programming Interfaces (APIs) or Software Development Kits (SDKs), which may have tracking tools of such service providers. These third parties may use APIs and SDKs on our Services and collect and analyze user information. Third parties may access your information such as your device identifiers, region (defined as the location where a given language is used), location information and IP address under their respective privacy policies.

3. Team Services

(1) Team Administrator. A Team Administrator refers to a user authorized or designated by an enterprise or other organization to create a team and exercise backend administrative rights within the Timemark services.

(2) Administrator-Controlled Data. Team features are designed to serve organizational needs. Team administrators are appointed by the organization and are responsible for creating and managing teams. By using these features, you agree to be governed by the organization's policies. Administrators (as designated by the organization) have the following authorities:

(4) (i) Member management: inviting or removing team members;

(5) (ii) Content classification: creating team folders for photos (members can choose folders when uploading);

(6) (iii) Data export: exporting team data according to organizational needs.

(7) Content Submission and Storage. When you use the team publishing feature, your submitted text, photos, and videos will be stored on our servers in encrypted form, as such storage is essential to the function.

(8) Auto-Sync Functionality. When you enable the "Team Auto-Sync" photo feature, we will collect and store your uploaded photos, videos, and associated metadata (such as time of capture and device information). These files will be synchronized to the selected team and viewable by team members until deleted. Please be cautious when selecting teams for sync and avoid uploading irrelevant or sensitive personal content. You may disable sync permissions at any time.

(9) Scope of Data Collection. Whether you are an administrator or a team member, the system may collect the following Administrator-Controlled Data during your use of the team services, including but not limited to:

· (i)Your name, photo, mobile phone number, and other information required by the administrator;

· (ii)Other data designated or requested by the administrator.

(10) Data Processing and Control. You understand and agree that the above data will be stored on our servers. The administrator acts as the controller of such data, and we only process such data based on the administrator's

(14) Data Ownership and Team Exit. Team functions are conducted on a team basis. If you leave a team, the photos, videos, and other content you previously shared will not be deleted and will remain as part of the team's data. Even if you delete your account, such content will still be retained, and we will anonymize your avatar, name, or nickname to protect your privacy.

4. Information Sharing and Disclosure

Personal information (and non-personal information) collected through our Service may be shared with companies and organizations that perform services on our behalf (for example, companies that provide data management or other support services to us such as data storage and Web hosting services), but we won't sell your personal information.

We will not share with or disclose to third parties (other than our service providers) your personal information in whole or in part except for the purposes of:

(i) protecting the security of others or their property;

(ii) preventing or dealing with fraud;

(iii) safeguarding our legitimate rights and interests;

(iv) taking action in line with our purposes as described in the "The Information We Collect" or the "How We Use the Information We collect" sections;

(v) complying with laws and regulations or requests by government departments, judicial authorities, law enforcement, or private parties, which are typically designed to uphold Internet security and the rights, property and safety of us, our users and third parties; and/or

(vi) evaluating or completing a transaction where we are involved in a merger, acquisition, financing due diligence, reorganization, bankruptcy, receivership, sale of company assets, or other event where your information may be sold or transferred.

5. INFORMATION SECURITY

We take steps to ensure that your information is treated securely and in accordance with this policy. Unfortunately, the transmission of information via the internet is not completely secure. Although we will protect your personal data, for example, by encryption, we cannot guarantee the security of your information transmitted via our Services; any transmission is at your own risk.

information (including your personal information) for such period as is required for us to continue to provide you our Services.

7. PRIVACY RIGHTS

In accordance with applicable law, you may have the right to: (i) request confirmation of whether we are processing your personal information; (ii) obtain access to or a copy of your personal information; (iii) receive an electronic copy of personal information that you have provided to us, or ask us to send that information to another company (the "right of data portability"); (iv) object to or restrict our uses of your personal information; (v) seek correction or amendment of inaccurate, untrue, incomplete, or improperly processed personal information; (vi) withdraw your consent; (vii) request erasure of personal information held about you by us, subject to certain exceptions prescribed by law; （viii） request permanent deletion of your user account and all associated personal information, unless retention is required by law (e.g., for fraud prevention, financial records, or legal compliance).

If you wish to exercise your rights, you may send an email to timemarkofficial@gmail.com (please quote "Timemark" in your email title). We will process your request in line with applicable laws within a reasonable period of time after receiving your email or mail, and will cease collecting, using and disclosing your personal information thereafter, subject to certain exceptions prescribed by law. To protect your privacy, we will take steps to verify your identity before fulfilling your request. Please note that if you withdraw your consent or delete your personal information, your use of some of our Services may be affected.

California residents have the right not to receive discriminatory treatment by us for the exercise of their rights conferred by the California Consumer Privacy Act.

8. INFORMATION ABOUT CHILDREN

We will not knowingly collect or request personal information from children under 13 (with additional limits that may be set forth in the "Supplemental Terms – Jurisdiction-Specific"). If you are under 13, please do not send your personal information to us, including your name, address, phone number or email address. If we learn that we have collected personal information from children under 13 (or any other age stipulated by law applicable to your region), we will promptly take steps to delete such information.

9. CROSS-BORDER DATA TRANSFERS

You understand and agree that all information collected via or by us may be transferred, processed, and stored anywhere in the world, including but not limited to, Singapore, China, in the cloud, on our servers, on the servers of our affiliates, or the servers of our service providers, in order to provide the Services.
