PRIVACY POLICY

Supplemental Privacy Policy for Busuu

The purpose of this Supplemental Privacy Policy for Busuu ("Supplemental Privacy Policy") is to describe how we at Busuu Limited, including our parent company Chegg, Inc., together with other affiliates and subsidiary companies (collectively, "Chegg") use the personal information that we collect when you use Busuu.

The main Chegg Privacy Policy provides information on how and why your personal information is processed or used to support Chegg services (including Busuu), the legal grounds for the processing, the privacy choices you may exercise under applicable data protection laws, and the contact details for the exercise of such choices. This Supplemental Privacy Policy supplements (but does not replace) the Chegg Privacy Policy by providing additional details on the personal information that we collect, use, and share when you use Busuu.

Where there is an inconsistency or contradiction between this Supplemental Privacy Notice and the Chegg Privacy Notice, this Supplemental Privacy Notice shall prevail in relation to your use of Busuu. Capitalized terms used but not defined in this Supplemental Privacy Policy shall have the meanings given to them in the Chegg Privacy Policy.

This Supplemental Privacy Policy consists of two parts:

- Part One sets out the privacy practices that apply across our Services.<
- Part Two sets out the privacy practices specific to Busuu.

PART ONE: OUR PRIVACY PRACTICES ACROSS OUR SERVICES

The main Chegg Privacy Policy is available here.

5. Information Regarding Certain Information and Uses

In addition to the uses of information described in the Chegg Privacy Policy under section 2 "Additional Information Regarding Certain Information and Uses" (available here), we use information we collect when you use Busuu in the following ways:

A. Audio-Only AI Pronunciation Assistance Recordings ("Speaking Practice")

The Speaking Practice feature allows you to practice speaking and receive AI-generated feedback on how to improve your pronunciation.

If you choose to use this feature (which is an AI-powered service), your voice will be recorded, retained, and used to provide you with the service you requested (to provide you with feedback on your pronunciation) and to improve our services. Some portions of this feature are powered by service providers, such as Azure AI Speech services. We may also process such audio information to troubleshoot and improve the service by training our machine-learning models with support from expert human reviewers. Such audio information will not be used to uniquely identify you.

B. Audio-Only Community Recordings ("Community Corrections")

The Community Corrections feature allows you to either write or record your voice to submit to other Busuu users for feedback. A proficient speaker of the language you are learning will provide feedback, and in turn, you will also have the opportunity to provide feedback to learners of your own language.

If you choose to participate in the audio component of the Community Corrections feature, your voice will be recorded, retained, and used to provide you with the service you requested and to keep our services safe for all language learners. Such audio information will not be used to uniquely identify you. Additionally, some portions of this feature are supported by service providers for their content moderation services.

C. Audio-Only AI Conversations Recordings ("Conversations")

The Conversations feature allows you to have a conversational, spoken interaction with an AI-powered language partner specific to topics you are learning.
