1. Who do we mean when we say SAP in this Privacy Statement?

This privacy statement applies to the collection and processing of personal data: (i) during the central operation of this website and other globally operated SAP Concur business activity by Concur Technologies, Inc., 601 108th Avenue NE, Suite 1000, Bellevue, WA 98004 ("SAP Concur US"), or a specific SAP group entity as may be stated in the Additional Country and Regional Specific Provisions at the end of this privacy statement; (ii) in the context of a pre-contractual or contractual business relationship with you or your employer by SAP Concur or Concur Holdings (Netherlands) B.V. ("SAP Concur BV"); or (iii) in the context of a registration form when a specific SAP group entity is directly collecting personal data for the purpose of registering to a service or event and is therefore presented as the relevant controller on this registration page or website by referencing to this privacy statement.

SAP Concur US, SAP Concur BV, and each relevant SAP group entity are, depending on the given case, hereinafter referred to as "SAP Concur". Any references to "SAP" mean SAP SE, SAP America, Inc. or the applicable SAP group entity.

This privacy statement does not apply to SAP internet-pages or web-services which present their own Privacy Statement.

2. For what purposes does SAP process your personal data?

When conducting business and operating our various web presences and other communication channels, SAP Concur processes personal data of the people it interacts with, including customers, partners, suppliers, vendors, candidates, and any other people with whom we interact.

In any of these cases, SAP Concur may process personal data for one or more of the following business purposes:

A. To pursue business relationships with customers, partners, and others

SAP Concur processes personal data to pursue its business relationships with customers, partners, and other users to fulfill pre-contractual and contractual business relations. This may include satisfying requests, processing orders, delivering an ordered product or service, or engaging in any other relevant action to establish, fulfill and maintain our business relationships.

services from SAP Concur on behalf of a corporate customer or are otherwise associated as contact person for the business relationship between SAP Concur and a corporate customer or partner (a "Customer Contact"), SAP Concur will use your personal data for this purpose. More specifically, SAP Concur may use your personal data to confirm your opening of an account, manage the contract execution, send you disclosures as may be required by law, notice of payments, and other information about our products and services. SAP Concur may respond to related inquiries, provide you with necessary support and process your feedback.

In the context of your or your employer's use of our products or services, SAP Concur may communicate with you by post, email, live chat, contact forms, phone or any other medium to resolve your, a user's, or a customer's question or complaint or to investigate suspicious transactions. In case of telephone calls or chat sessions, SAP Concur may record such calls or chat sessions to improve the quality of services of SAP Concur after informing you accordingly during that call and, subject to applicable law, receiving your prior consent before the recording begins.

Within an existing business relationship between you or your employer and SAP Concur, SAP Concur processes your personal data to help us understand how satisfied you are with the functionality and quality of our products and services, to provide you with relevant information on our latest product announcements, software updates or upgrades, events, special offers, and other information about software and services of Concur that is relevant and useful to you.

B. To develop products and services

To the extent permitted by applicable law, SAP Concur may process your personal data for internal research, technological demonstration and development, and to help SAP Concur create, develop, operate, deliver, improve, upgrade or enhance SAP Concur products and services. SAP Concur may process personal data to create anonymized data sets which may then be used to improve products and services of SAP Concur.

C. To ensure compliance with laws and regulations

SAP Concur processes your personal data for the purpose of ensuring an adequate level of technical and organizational security of its products, services, online events, facilities, and premises. For this, SAP Concur will take the measures necessary to verify or maintain the quality and safety of a product or service which is owned, manufactured by or for, or controlled by SAP Concur. This may comprise the use of personal data for sufficient identification and authorization of designated users, internal quality control through auditing, analysis, and research, debugging to identify and repair errors that impair existing or intended functionality, account and network security, replication for loss prevention, detecting security incidents, protection against malicious, deceptive, fraudulent, or illegal activity, and prosecuting those responsible for such kind of activity. We may further process your name, likeness, and other contact or compliance related data when you visit a local SAP Concur affiliate or lab in the context of access management and video surveillance to protect the security and safety of our locations and assets.

countries oblige SAP Concur to prevent organizations, legal entities and other parties listed on government-issued sanctioned-party lists from accessing certain products, technologies, and services through its websites or other delivery channels (e.g. the European Union Sanctions List, the US sanctions lists including the Bureau of Industry and Security's (BIS) Denied Persons Lists (DPL), the Office of Foreign Assets Control's (OFAC) Specially Designated Nationals and Blocked Persons List (SDN-List) and the US DOCs Bureau of Industry and Security's Entity Lists and the United Nations Security Council Sanctions). SAP Concur processes personal data to the extent necessary to comply with these legal requirements. Specifically, SAP Concur processes personal data to conduct automated checks against applicable sanctioned-party lists, to regularly repeat such checks whenever a sanctioned-party list is updated or when a user updates his or her information. In case of a potential match, SAP Concur will block the access services and systems of SAP Concur and contact the user to confirm his or her identity.

If necessary, SAP Concur uses personal data to prevent or prosecute criminal activities such as any form of cybercrime, the illegal use of our products and services or fraud, to assert our rights or defend SAP Concur against legal claims.

D. To comply with data protection and unfair competition law related requirements.

Depending on the country in which the relevant SAP group entity operates, and whether you have expressly consented to or opted out of receiving commercial information, SAP Concur may process personal data necessary to accommodate your data protection and privacy choices for the receipt of such information and, when necessary to ensure compliance, exchange such information with the other entities of the SAP group.

E. To operate SAP Concur internet pages, web-offerings, or other online events

SAP Concur processes personal data for the purpose of operating, providing to you and administering your use of its internet pages, web offerings, or other online events.

Creating user profiles

Certain web offerings linked to websites, including forums, blogs, and networks of SAP Concur (e.g., the SAP Concur Community), require you to register and create a user profile. Through the user profile you can share personal information about you with other users, such as your name, photo, social media accounts, postal or email address, telephone number, personal interests, skills, and basic information about your company. The user profiles serve to personalize the interactions between the users (for example, by way of messaging or follow functionality) and to allow SAP to foster the collaboration and quality of communication through such offerings. The profile settings of the relevant web offering allow you to determine which information you want to share.

Identity service

The user profile may be specific to a single web offering of SAP Concur, but it also allows you to access other web offerings of SAP Concur or of other entities of the SAP group. It is your choice whether or not to use any of these additional web offerings. If you do, SAP Concur will make your personal data you.

Event profiling

If you register for an event, seminar, or webinar of SAP Concur, SAP Concur may share basic participant information (your name, company, and email address) with other participants of the same event, seminar, or webinar to promote the interaction between the participants and to stimulate the communication and the exchange of ideas.

User experience improvement

SAP Concur processes information that relates to your visit to our web offerings to improve your user experience, identify your individual demand and to personalize the way we provide you with the information you are looking for. For this purpose, we collect information regardless of whether you register with a user profile or not.

Cookies and similar tools

SAP Concur processes personal data about the users of SAP Concur websites and other web offerings using cookies or similar technologies for the purposes set out in this Privacy Statement and its Cookie Statement. By visiting the "Cookie Preferences" link in the footer of the concur.com homepage, you will find further information and have the option to exercise your cookie preferences.

F. To search for talent

SAP Concur may collect and process personal data of qualified individuals and people interested in our career opportunities from various sources. Job applicants and candidates are asked to apply via the SAP Career Portal, regardless of whether this is done initiatively or in response to an advertised posting. If you apply, SAP Concur collects personal data by means of the SAP Career Portal for the purposes of carrying out the application procedures and selecting applicants. You may find further information about how SAP Concur collects and processes applicant's data in the Privacy Statement specific to the SAP Career Portal.

G. To offer SAP Concur products and services

SAP Concur collects and processes personal data for sales and marketing purposes. We aim to keep you updated on upcoming events and the latest products and services of SAP Concur. Where you have indicated your interest to us, such as through a web or event form, we may contact you to discuss further your interest in SAP Concur services and offerings.

Request feedback, questionnaires and surveys

To the extent allowed by applicable law, SAP Concur may contact you for feedback regarding the improvement of the relevant material, product, or service. SAP Concur may also invite you to participate in questionnaires and surveys. These will generally be designed so you can participate without having to provide information that identifies you as a participant. If you nonetheless provide your personal data, SAP Concur will use it for the purpose stated in the questionnaire or survey or to improve its products and services.

processes your personal data to inform you about SAP Concur products or services which are similar or relate to products and services you or your employer have already purchased or used. SAP Concur will inform you by email or phone about such news only as far as it is allowed by law, or if SAP Concur has collected such information in the context of the business relationship. You are entitled to object to the use by SAP Concur for this purpose at any time by selecting the opt-out option at the bottom of each marketing related approach.

Personalized Content

SAP Concur processes information about your interactions with SAP Concur across its various business areas and its offerings (your or your employer's prior and current use of SAP Concur products or services, your participation in and use of SAP Concur web offerings, events, white papers, free trials or newsletters) to provide you with the requested products and services and to improve our personal communications with you. This data may also be used to efficiently operate the business of SAP Concur, which also includes: the automation and aggregation of data to support various analytic and statistical efforts, performance and predictive analytics and exploratory data science to support your customer journey and to fulfill such requests. To the extent permitted by law, SAP Concur may combine and use such information in an aggregated manner to help us understand your interests and business demands, develop our business insight and marketing strategies, and to create, develop, deliver, and improve our personalized communications with you. It may also be used by SAP Concur to display relevant content on SAP Concur owned or third-party websites.

Advertising ID's

Provided your consent or to the extent permitted by applicable law, SAP Concur may create a hashed user ID to provide to third party operated social networks or other web offerings (such as Twitter, LinkedIn, Facebook, Instagram or Google). This information is then matched against the third party's own user database to display to you more relevant SAP Concur content.

3. What personal data does SAP process?

SAP Concur processes various types of personal data about the people we interact with when conducting our business or operating our various web presences and other communication channels.

Depending on the individual case, this may comprise the following types of personal data:

A. Contact Data

SAP Concur processes the following categories of personal data as contact data: first name, last name, email addresses, postal address/location (country, state/province, city), telephone numbers, and your relationship history with SAP Concur.

B. Personal data related to the business relationship with SAP Concur

In the context of established business relationships, SAP Concur processes the business partner's company name, industry, your job title and role, department and function and your company's relationship history to SAP Concur. If you provide a credit card number or bank details to order

C. Compliance related personal data

If required by statutory law or regulation, SAP Concur may process data categories like date of birth, academic credentials, identity cards or other ID numbers, geolocation, business partner relevant information about e.g., significant litigation or other legal proceedings, and other export control or custom compliance relevant information.

E. Data generated through your use of, or participation in, internet pages, web, or online offerings of SAP Concur

Usage data

SAP Concur processes certain user related information, e.g., info regarding your browser, operating system, or your IP address when you visit its web properties. We also process information regarding your use of our web-offerings, like the pages you visit, the amount of time you spend on a page, the page which has referred you to our page and the links on our sites you select.

Registration data

SAP Concur may process your contact data as set out above and other information which you may provide directly to SAP Concur if you register for any of its events or other web services.

Participation data

When you participate in webinars, virtual seminars, events, or other SAP Concur web services, SAP Concur may process your interactions with the relevant webservice to organize the event including its sessions, polls, surveys, or other interactions between SAP Concur and/or its participants. Depending on the event and subject to a respective notification of the participants, SAP Concur may collect audio and video recordings of the event or session.

F. Special categories of personal data

In connection with the registration for an event, SAP Concur may ask for your dietary preferences or information about potential disabilities for purposes of consideration for the health and well-being of our guests. Any collection of such information is always based on the consent of the participants. Kindly note that if you do not provide such information about dietary preferences, SAP Concur may not have the opportunity to respond to such requests at the time of the event.

G. Personal data received by third parties, including publicly available sources

SAP Concur generally aims to collect personal data directly from the data subjects. If you or applicable law allows SAP Concur to do so, SAP Concur may obtain personal data also from third party sources. These third-party sources may include: (i) your employer in the context of its business dealings with SAP Concur and/or the SAP group, (ii) third parties you directed to share your personal data with SAP Concur, (iii) third party sources and publicly available sources like business oriented social networks or information broker.

When we collect personal data from third party sources, established internal controls aim to ensure that the third-party source was permitted to provide this information to SAP Concur and that we may

H. Personal data necessary for customer satisfaction

To the extent permitted by law or based on your consent, SAP Concur may combine the information we collect either directly or indirectly about specific users to ensure the completeness and correctness of the data and to help us better tailor our interactions with you and determine the information which best serves your respective interest or demand.

4. How long does SAP Concur process my personal data?

SAP Concur processes your personal data only for as long as it is required: (i) to make products and services requested by you or your employer available to you; (ii) for SAP Concur to comply with statutory obligations to retain personal data, resulting from, for example, applicable export, finance, tax or commercial laws; (iii) to fulfill the legitimate business purposes of SAP Concur as further described in this Privacy Statement, unless you object to its use of your personal data for these purposes; (iv) until you revoke a consent you previously granted to SAP Concur to process your personal data. To learn more about how you may revoke consent, please see guidance below in section titled, “What are your data protection rights".

SAP Concur may process your personal data for product or service development until this no longer necessary or SAP Concur is informed that your relationship with the SAP Concur customer has changed.

SAP Concur may retain your personal data for additional periods if necessary for compliance with legal obligations to process your personal data or if the personal data is needed by SAP Concur to assert or defend itself against legal claims. SAP Concur will retain your personal data until the end of the relevant retention period or until the claims in question have been settled.

5. Who are the recipients of your personal data?

Your personal data may be passed on to the following categories of third parties:

A. Entities of the SAP Group

As SAP Concur is selling its products and services to its customers only via local business relationships, SAP Concur may transfer your personal data to the locally relevant SAP group entity for the purpose and to the extent necessary to conduct a business relationship. Other entities of the SAP Group may also receive or gain access to personal data either when rendering group internal services centrally and on behalf of SAP SE and the other SAP group entities or when personal data is transferred to them on a respective legal basis. In these cases, these entities may process the personal data for the same purposes and under the same conditions as outlined in this Privacy Statement. The current list of SAP Group entities can be found here. If you would like to find out which SAP group entity is responsible for the business relationship with you or your employer, please contact us at privacy-request@concur.com.

B. Third party service providers access to personal data when rendering their services and will constitute recipients within the meaning of the relevant data protection law, including GDPR.

C. SAP Concur partners

With your consent or as otherwise indicated by your request, including to fulfill your ordered services, SAP may share your personal data with designated partner companies to provide you the product or service you have requested.

D. Other third parties

SAP Concur may transfer your registration data based on your consent or as otherwise indicated by your request to companies listed on the registration page of an SAP Concur seminar, webinar or event. These companies may receive your personal data as co-organizer or sponsor of the event and will use your registration data for the purposes of their participation in the event. They will provide you directly with any legally required information about their processing purposes and how you may exercise your rights.

6. What are your data protection rights?

A. Right to access, correct and delete

You can request from SAP Concur at any time access to information about which personal data SAP Concur processes about you and, if necessary, the correction or deletion of such personal data. Please note, however, that SAP Concur can or will delete your personal data only if there is no statutory obligation or prevailing right of SAP Concur to retain it. If you request from SAP Concur to delete your personal data, you may not be able to continue to use any SAP Concur service that requires use by SAP Concur of your personal data.

B. Right to receive personal data back from SAP Concur

If SAP Concur uses your personal data based on your consent or to perform a contract with you, you can further request from SAP Concur a copy of the personal data you provided to SAP Concur. In this case, please contact privacy-request@concur.com and specify the information or processing activities to which your request relates, the format in which you would like to receive the personal data, and whether it should be sent to you or another recipient. SAP Concur will carefully consider your request and discuss with you how it can best be fulfilled.

C. Right to restrict

You can request from SAP Concur to restrict your personal data from further processing in any of the following events: (i) you state the personal data about you is incorrect, subject to the time SAP Concur requires to check the accuracy of the relevant personal data, (ii) there is no legal basis for SAP Concur to process your personal data and you demand SAP Concur to restrict your personal data from further processing, (iii) SAP Concur no longer requires your personal data, but you state you require SAP Concur to retain such data to claim or exercise legal rights or to defend against third party claims, or (iv) in case you object to the processing of your personal data by SAP Concur based on its legitimate

D. Right to object

If and to the extent SAP Concur is processing your personal data based on the Legitimate Interest of SAP Concur, specifically where SAP Concur pursues its legitimate interest to engage in direct marketing or to apply profiling in relation to direct marketing, you have the right to object to such a use of your personal data at any time. When you object to processing by SAP Concur of your personal data for direct marketing purposes, SAP Concur will immediately cease to process your personal data for such purposes. In all other cases, SAP Concur will carefully review your objection and cease further use of the relevant information, subject to its compelling legitimate grounds for continued use of the information, which may override your interest in objecting, or if SAP Concur requires the information for the establishment, exercise, or defense of legal claims.

E. Right to revoke consent

Wherever SAP Concur is processing your personal data based on your consent, you may at any time withdraw your consent by unsubscribing or giving us respective notice of withdrawal. In case of withdrawal, SAP Concur will not process personal data subject to this consent any longer unless legally required to do so. In case SAP is required to retain your personal data for legal reasons your personal data will be restricted from further processing and only retained for the term required by law. However, any withdrawal has no effect on past processing of personal data by SAP Concur up to the point in time of your withdrawal. Furthermore, if your use of an SAP Concur offering requires your prior consent, SAP Concur will no longer be able to provide the relevant service (or services, if you revoke the consent for SAP Concur to use your profile under the SAP Identity Authentication Service for multiple SAP Concur offerings), offer or event to you after your revocation.

F. Right to lodge a complaint

If you take the view that SAP Concur is not processing your personal data in accordance with the requirements in this Privacy Statement or under applicable data protection laws, you can at any time, to the extent required by applicable law, lodge a complaint with your locally relevant data protection authority, specifically when you are located in an EEA country, or with the data protection authority of the country or state where SAP Concur has its registered seat.

7. How can you exercise your data protection rights?

Please direct any requests to exercise your rights to privacy-request@concur.com

8. How will SAP verify requests to exercise data protection rights?

SAP Concur will take steps to ensure it verifies your identity to a reasonable degree of certainty before it will process the data protection right you want to exercise. When feasible, SAP Concur will match personal data provided by you in submitting a request to exercise your rights with information already maintained by SAP Concur. This could include matching two or more data points you provide when you submit a request with two or more data points that are already maintained by SAP Concur.

SAP Concur will decline to process requests that are manifestly unfounded, excessive, fraudulent, represented by third parties without duly representing respective authority or are otherwise not

In general, SAP Concur websites and online services are not directed to users below the age of 16 years, or equivalent minimum age in the relevant jurisdiction. If you are younger than 16, you cannot register with and use these websites or online services.

10. Additional Country and Regional Specific Provisions

A. Where SAP Concur is subject to privacy requirements in the EU, EEA, or other GDPR relevant countries

Who is the Data Protection Officer of the Controller?

You can reach SAP group's data protection officer any time at privacy@sap.com.

Who is the relevant Data Protection authority of the Controller?

SAP group's lead data protection supervisory authority is in Germany, the Landesbeauftragter für den Datenschutz und die Informationsfreiheit Baden-Württemberg and can be reached at Lautenschlagerstraße 20, 70173 Stuttgart. If you are in any other EU or EWR country, you may find the contact details of your competent data protection supervisory authority here.

What are the legal permissions for SAP Concur to process personal data?

SAP Concur is processing your personal data for the business purposes set out above based on the following legal permissions:

General remark regarding processing by SAP Concur of personal data based on your prior consent

SAP Concur may process your personal data for the specific processing purposes based on your prior consent.

General remark regarding processing by SAP Concur of personal data based on legitimate business interest

Where we refer to GDPR Article 6.1 (f) and consequently the legitimate business interest of SAP Concur as our legal permission to process your personal data, SAP Concur is pursuing its legitimate business interests to efficiently manage and perform its business operations, to maintain and operate intelligent and sustainable business processes in a group structure optimized for the division of labor and in the best interest of our employees, customers, partners, and shareholders, to operate sustainable business relationships with SAP Concur customers and partners including you (each of which as further set out below), serve you with the best possible user experience when using its web services, comply with extraterritorial laws and regulations, or assert or defend itself against legal claims.

We believe that our interest in pursuing these business purposes is legitimate and thereby not outweighed by your personal rights and interest to refrain from processing. In any of these cases, we duly factor into our balancing test: the business purpose reasonably pursued by SAP Concur in the given case, the categories, amount and sensitivity of personal data that is necessarily being processed,

If you wish to obtain further information on this approach, please contact privacy request@concur.com.

Pursue business relationships with customers, partners, and others

When pursuing business relationships with customers, partners and others, SAP Concur and local SAP group entities may be processing personal data based on: GDPR Article 6.1 (b) if necessary, to fulfill pre-contractual obligations with you; GDPR Article 6.1 (c) if necessary, to fulfill legal requirements applicable to SAP Concur; GDPR Article 6.1 (f) if the contract or pre-contractual relation relates to a company or other legal body and if SAP Concur processes your personal data as Customer Contact to fulfill (pre-)contractual obligations with your employer (legitimate interest to efficiently perform or manage the business operation of SAP Concur); GDPR Article 6.1 (f) if necessary, to maintain our business relationships with you, ensure your satisfaction as a user or customer representative, and provide you with information about other SAP Concur products and services as indicated by your interest or demand (legitimate interest to operate sustainable business relationship with SAP Concur customers and partners); or a legal permission under other national laws equivalent to any of the above, when applicable.

Ensure compliance with laws and regulation

When ensuring compliance with applicable laws and regulations, SAP Concur and local SAP group entities may process your personal data based on: GDPR Article 6.1 (c) if necessary, to fulfill legal requirements under European Union or EU Member State law to which SAP Concur is subject; GDPR Article 6.1 (f) if necessary, to fulfill laws and regulations extraterritorial to the EU (legitimate interest to comply with extraterritorial laws and regulations); or the equivalent articles under other national laws, when applicable.

Operate SAP Concur internet pages, web offering, or other online events

When operating its internet pages, web-offerings or other online events ("web-services") and depending on the respective operating purpose, SAP Concur or the local SAP group entity is processing your personal data on the basis of the following legal permissions: GDPR Article 6.1 (b) and (f) to provide the web services and functions, create and administer your online account, updating, securing, troubleshooting the service, providing support, improving, and developing the web service, answering and fulfilling your requests or instructions, (legitimate interest to efficiently perform or manage the business operation of SAP Concur); GDPR Article 6.1 (c) and (f) to manage and ensure the security of our web services and prevent and detect security threats, fraud or other criminal or malicious activities and as reasonably necessary to enforce the web services terms, to establish or preserve a legal claim or defense, to prevent fraud or other illegal activities, including attacks on our information technology systems (legitimate interest to efficiently perform or manage the business operation of SAP Concur and assert or defend itself against legal claims); GDPR Article 6.1 (a) if it is necessary that we ask you for your consent to process your personal data; or equivalent legal permissions under other relevant national laws, when applicable.

personal data; GDPR Article 6.1 (b) if necessary to fulfill (pre-)contractual obligations with you; GDPR Article 6.1 (f) if necessary to fulfill (pre-)contractual obligations with the company or other legal body you represent as a customer contact (legitimate interest to efficiently perform or manage the business operation of SAP Concur); or equivalent legal permissions under other relevant national laws, when applicable.

Collection of data from third parties, including publicly available sources

When collecting personal data about you from third parties, the legal basis for the collection by SAP Concur or the local SAP group entity may be based on: GDPR Article 6.1 (a) if it is necessary that we or the third party transferring your personal data to SAP Concur has asked you for your consent to process your personal data; GDPR Article 6.1 (b) if necessary to fulfill (pre-)contractual obligations with you; GDPR Article 6.1 (c) if necessary to fulfill legal requirements under European Union or EU Member State law to which SAP Concur is subject; GDPR Article 6.1 (f) if necessary to fulfill laws and regulations extraterritorial to the EU (legitimate interest to comply with extraterritorial laws and regulations) or to maintain our business relationships with you, ensure your satisfaction as a user or customer representative, and provide you with information about other SAP Concur products and services as indicated by your interest or demand (legitimate interest to operate sustainable business relationship with SAP Concur customers and partners); or equivalent legal permissions under other relevant national laws, when applicable.

Offering SAP Concur products and services

When engaging in marketing activities, SAP Concur is processing your personal data on the basis of the following legal permissions: GDPR Article 6.1 (a) if your consent is required by law for SAP Concur to process your data for this purpose; GDPR Article 6.1 (f) if necessary to fulfill (pre-)contractual obligations with the company or other legal body you represent as a customer contact (legitimate interest to efficiently perform or manage SAP the business operation of SAP Concur), to maintain our business relationships with you or your employer, to ensure your satisfaction as a user or customer contact, to map the relevant group internal structures and bundle relevant business activities at central sources within the SAP group to operate them uniformly and to provide you with information about other SAP Concur products and services as indicated by your interest or demand, which may also comprise the combination about you from different sources (profiling) (legitimate interest to maintain and operate intelligent and sustainable business processes in a group structure optimized for the division of labor and in the best interest of our employees, customers, partners, and shareholders and to operate sustainable business relationship with SAP Concur customers and partners). SAP Concur may provide you with this information to your postal address to pursue our legitimate interest to address customers, prospects and targets for the purpose of advertising our products and services, to your email address for the purpose of direct marketing of similar products or services provided that we (i) received your email address in connection with the purchase of our products or services, (ii) you did not object to the use of your email address for direct advertising and (iii) and we inform you in every approach that you may object to our use of your email address for marketing purposes at any

How does SAP justify international data transfers?

As a global group of companies, SAP Concur has SAP group entity affiliates and uses third party service providers also in countries outside the European Economic Area (the "EEA"). SAP Concur may transfer your personal data to countries outside the EEA as part of its international business operations. If we transfer personal data from a country in the EU or the EEA to a country outside the EEA and for which the EU Commission has not issued an adequacy decision, SAP Concur uses the EU standard contractual clauses to contractually require the data importer to ensure a level of data protection consistent with the one in the EEA to protect your personal data. You may obtain a copy (redacted to remove commercial or irrelevant information) of such standard contractual clauses by sending a request to privacy-request@concur.com. You may also obtain more information from the European Commission on the international dimension of data protection here.

B. Where SAP Concur is subject to certain privacy requirements in the United States, the following also applies:

SAP Concur does not knowingly collect the personal data of children under the age of 13. If you are a parent or guardian and believe SAP Concur collected information about a child, please contact SAP Concur as described in this Privacy Statement. SAP Concur will take steps to delete the information as soon as possible.

C. Where SAP is subject to certain privacy requirements in the United States in the State of California, the following also applies:

You have the right: (i) to request from SAP Concur access to your personal data that SAP Concur collects, uses, or discloses about you; (ii) to request that SAP Concur delete personal data about you; (iii) to opt-out of the use or disclosure of your sensitive personal information; (iv) to non-discriminatory treatment for exercise of any of your data protection rights; and (v) if you request access to your personal data, for such information to be portable, if possible, in a readily usable format that allows you to transmit this information to another recipient without hindrance.

In accordance with the disclosure requirements under the California Consumer Privacy Act ("CCPA"), SAP Concur does not sell or share your personal data. In the course of our business activities we may share personal data with third parties, or permit third parties to collect data across various SAP Concur websites. Given that SAP Concur websites and online services are not directed to users under 16 years of age and in accordance with the disclosure requirements of the CCPA, SAP Concur does not sell the personal data of any minors under 16 years of age.

Data Subject Access Requests:

SAP Concur receives Data Subject Access Requests from across the globe and works to ensure all valid requests where SAP Concur is the Controller are responded to within the appropriate timeframe. In accordance with the verification process set forth in the CCPA, SAP Concur will require a more stringent verification process for deletion requests, or for personal data that is considered sensitive or valuable, to minimize the harm that might be posed to you by unauthorized access or deletion of your

In addition to contacting SAP Concur at privacy-request@concur.com, you may also exercise your rights by contacting Concur Technologies, Inc., 601 108th Avenue NE, Suite 1000, Bellevue, WA 98004, USA, Attention: Privacy Manager.
