iv. To secure the Services

Ensuring the security in the course of performing the Services is a top priority for us. We take appropriate security and technical measures to protect your information from unauthorized access, loss and misuse. To achieve this purpose, we also request our suppliers who process personal information on our behalf to take appropriate security measures.

In order to keep the Service safe, to fight fraud and to ensure acceptable use otherwise, we have a legitimate interest to process necessary data to

- Analyze and monitor use of the Services
- Prevent cheating, crime or fraud
- Take action against fraudulent or misbehaving users

Despite our efforts, we cannot guarantee the absolute security of your personal data, nor can we ensure the security of any of the communication facilities provided by us. We recommend that you exercise caution when disclosing any information through the Services. In particular, please note that any personally identifiable information or personally sensitive data that you communicate or disclose to any user in connection with the Services may be collected and used by others. As such, you should take care of the information shared online. Please also be reminded that any questions answers, comments, submissions that you post in the forum will be publicly available.

v. Designated Countries

For all purposes listed above, pursuant to the EU General Data Protection Regulation ("GDPR") or any equivalent legislation (collectively "Data Protection Laws"), we process the personal information of users located in the European Economic Area ("EEA"), United Kingdom and Switzerland (collectively, the "Designated Countries") based on our contract with you.

3. What Information Do We Share?

As mentioned above, your personal information may be shared with our third-party partners. We may disclose your personal information to our business partners, including advertisers, publishers, and data tracking companies. These business partners may use your personal information to show you advertisements, measure your ad/site interaction, and better understand the site and app traffic usage or user behavior in order to improve their services. Such partners' use of the information that we disclose to them will be governed by their privacy policies.

4. What Are the Important Permissions We Request?

Depending on the context of your interactions with us, we may ask you to provide certain permissions in order to let our app perform properly. You may choose to opt-out anytime, but please note that not giving us these permissions can result in malfunctioning of our app. The permissions we ask are listed below:

Location, approximate location (network-based), precise location (GPS and network-based). We may collect location in App or your device to offer you local news. We w able.
