Privacy Policy

Last Modified: 1 August 2025

Your privacy is important to us.

Meitu (China) Limited (“we”, “us” or “our”) is dedicated to protecting the privacy of our users (“users” or “you”). This Privacy Policy (this “Policy”) is meant to explain our practices regarding how we collect, store, use, manage and protect your user information (including your personal information) as a controller and/or business under applicable data protection laws during your use of BeautyCam application including all its features (our “Services”).For the purpose of this Policy, the term “affiliates” shall mean any entity which directly or indirectly controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with Meitu (China) Limited. For the purpose of the foregoing, “control” shall mean (i) the direct or indirect ownership of more than 50 per cent of the outstanding voting securities or capital stock of such entity or other comparable equity or ownership interest, or (ii) the control of management decisions and economic interests of the entity by way of contractual arrangements.

Please note that the scope of this Policy is limited solely to your user information (including your personal information) collected or received by us when you are using our Services. In this Policy, “personal information” refers to any information or combination of information that can be used to identify, contact or locate an individual to whom the collected information pertains.

BY USING OUR SERVICES, YOU ARE AGREEING TO THIS POLICY AND THE COLLECTION, USE, PROCESSING, RETENTION, DISCLOSURE AND SHARING OF YOUR USER INFORMATION, INCLUDING YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION, IN THE MANNER PROVIDED IN THIS POLICY. IF YOU DO NOT AGREE WITH ANY OF THE TERMS OF THIS POLICY OR ANY SUBSEQUENT CHANGES TO THIS POLICY, PLEASE DO NOT USE OUR SERVICES.

Please note that it is mandatory for you to provide certain categories of data (as specified at the time of collection). In the event that you do not provide any or sufficient data marked as mandatory, we may not be able to complete the registration process or provide you with our Services. Also, please note that, unless we define a term in this Policy, all capitalized terms used in this Policy have the same meanings as in our Terms of Service. So, please make sure that you have read and understand our Terms of Service.

If you have any questions regarding this Policy or any privacy-related matters, please contact our Data Protection Officer via email at compliance@meitu.com (please quote “BeautyCam” in your email title) or via registered mail at Unit 7702A, Level 77, International Commerce Centre, 1 Austin Road West, Kowloon, Hong Kong (attention: Legal Department, Meitu). Please note that for all other enquiries, feedback, suggestions and/or complaints not related to privacy or intellectual property infringement (including but not limited to any cancellation of subscription, payment disputes, refund requests and technical support of BeautyCam), you should contact us via email at*[global.support@meitu.com (please quote "BeautyCam" in your email title)]*. If your email is sent to an incorrect email address, relating to an incorrect subject matter, it may lead to a potential delay or failure in processing your requests properly.

THE INFORMATION WE COLLECT

In order to provide and improve our Services, we will collect and process your personal information and user information in accordance with this Policy. If you do not provide this information, we may be unable to provide you with our products or Services. You should ensure that all personal information and user information submitted to us is complete, accurate, true and correct. Failure on your part to do so may result in our inability to provide you with all or some of our Services.

Account Information

When you use our Services, we might recommend you sign up for an account with us to take full advantage of our Services and all their features. When you create an account, we will collect the following information that can be used to identify you or provide our Services to you:

- Mandatory: mobile phone number, device ID
- Optional: name, username, gender, date of birth, and location

Anyone can access our Services, but there are certain services that require a subscription fee, such as accessing to our premium content and enjoying advertisement privileges (the “Subscription Service”). If you choose to make a purchase on our Subscription Service, we will collect certain personally identifiable information, such as your device ID. A third-party app store or payment processor may receive, access or use your financial information and billing address for the purpose of processing transactions and renewals. If you purchase content or sign up for Subscription Services through a third-party app store or a payment processor, you should refer to that third party’s terms for information on how it maintains and uses personal financial information for all purchases. For the avoidance of doubt, we will not collect any financial information from you.

Mobile Device Information

When you use our Services on your mobile device, we will collect information about your device, including its International Mobile Equipment Identity (“IMEI”), Unique Device Identifier (“UDID”) or Android ID, Universally Unique Identifier (“GUUID”), User ID (“UID”), Identifier for Advertising (“IDFA”) and Identifier for Vendor (“IDFV”), Open Anonymous Device Identifier (“OAID”), Integrated Circuit Card Identifier (“ICCID”), Media Access Control (“MAC”) address, the type of device you use, operating system version, a list of mobile applications installed on your device and resolution, which will be used by us for statistical and/or analytical reasons, including without limitation to improve our technical functionality, server load-balancing, analysis of technical data relating to your mobile device so as to optimize our Services and graphics adaptation.

As stated below in the “Location Information” section, we may collect your location-based information from your mobile device if you choose to share it with us. If you subsequently wish to stop sharing Location Information, you may do so at any time by editing the relevant setting on your mobile device.

Mobile Analytics

We use mobile analytics software to allow us to better understand and improve the functionality of our Services. Such software may record information such as how often you use the application, the events that occur within the application, aggregated usage, performance data, and where the application was downloaded from.

Network Information

When you use our Services, we will collect information about the network you use, including the name of the operator and the type of network, so as to understand the distribution of operators and networks used by our users. In addition, we will collect information such as the name of the WiFi network to which you connect, the location of the WiFi network, and the duration of your WiFi connection to understand the environment under which you prefer to use our Services.

Location Information

We may collect your location-based information from your mobile device if you choose to share it with us.

- Mandatory: network information, IP address, and system time zone
- Optional: country code, latitude and longitude, network location, and system country

This information will help us understand user distribution and usage scenarios and allow us to provide users with the correct version of our apps, the reappearance of the geo-location or the publishing of the real-time geo-location where you take any photos or shoot any videos, and improve our Services. Unless we obtain your consent, location data WILL NOT BE ACQUIRED or USED to identify you individually. Except as otherwise provided in this Policy, we will not share this Location Information with any third parties. If you no longer wish to allow us to collect or use such information, you may turn off your Internet access or GPS, or disable our access to information about your network, GPS and device. Please note that we may still continue to receive some Location Information, such as your Network Information, IP address and system time zone, as a result of you using our Services.

Log Information

When you use some of our Services, including generating and browsing certain content, we will automatically collect certain relevant log information stored in BeautyCam ("Log Information"). Log Information may include (i) details on when and how often you use our Services, (ii) device statistics, including critical operation paths, errors, crashes, language and time zone. This Log Information is used to improve our Services and is NOT USED to identify our users individually.

Image Information

By choosing to use the cloud editing feature of our Services, you understand and agree that we must upload your photos to our server for processing before returning processed photos to you for the purposes of providing such service to you and continuous optimization and that we will also receive the EXIF data about your photos (EXIF data may contain GPS coordinates where photos were taken and processed, equipment type, ISO and information about the front and rear cameras and creation time, depending on the equipment manufacturer) for the purpose of further optimizing our Services, such as providing a better match of photo effects to your equipment.

Voice Information

By enabling the microphone on BeautyCam, you agree that we may collect your voice data (i.e. audio clips or recordings of your voice) for video editing. We will not use your voice information for advertising purposes. You can turn off BeautyCam's access to your microphone on your device at any time using the operating system settings on the device or by muting the microphone on your devices.

Metadata

Metadata refers to technical data associated with user content. Put simply, metadata is data that describes data. For example, metadata can describe the analysis results of facial features, gender, age of the characters in photos and other elements contained in photos, which are generated and tagged by the computer algorithm and artificial intelligence. When you use our Services, we will use photo metadata to provide you with certain features including precise “Facial Recognition”, “Key-Points Recognition”, “Region Segmentation”, “Content Tags” and other custom features based on a combination of these basic features. We may use your photo metadata to provide you with more suitable filters and better photo effect when our apps process your photos; we may also make use of the metadata to serve up a more contextually relevant products or services to you.

Facial Feature Information

In order to provide certain Services, apart from utilizing metadata as mentioned above, we may collect your facial feature information (including but not limited to facial images) and use face recognition technology to recognize faces in photos and camera experiences. We may detect and use facial marks to provide face recognition contents and facial manipulation features. The information we collect will not be used for identifying a specific person, and is used to provide the mentioned features only. When the content recommendation is finished or upon the closing of the application, the facial mapping information is discarded. This information is not shared with any third parties.

We will neither use the results for other purposes, nor capture any data in the file nor upload data to the server for recording purposes.

Cookies

We use “cookies” that store and retrieve information of user’s usage from time to time to provide customized Services for each user. Cookies are small amounts of information that the server uses to operate the app/website, sends to the user’s device and are also stored on the hard disk in the user’s device. You may refuse the installation of cookies. Information collected may include information about your Internet Protocol (IP) address, browser type, Internet Service Provider (ISP), referring and exit pages, your operating system, dates and timestamps, and clickstream data.

- Purpose of use of cookies: Cookies are used to provide information optimized for each user by identifying the visit to and use type of each service and website that the user has visited, popular search terms, secure access status, etc.
- Installation, operation and refusal of cookies: A user may refuse the installation of cookies by sending an email to global.support@meitu.com (please quote “BeautyCam” in your email title).
- If a user refuses to store cookies, he or she may experience difficulties in using customized Services.

Information Collected Through Integration

When you use the integrated features in BeautyCam, we may collect and process personal information that is included in your text inputs and the generated outputs.

Advertising-Related Information

We and our third-party service providers may include advertisements within our Services, and with your consent, we may collect and use information about you such as your Advertising ID, geographic location and IP address for the purpose of delivering and tracking these advertisements. If your device does not have Advertising ID, we may use other persistent identifiers. We may also access your App list and collect the application package names of the applications installed on your device. We use the above information to help us better count, track and provide advertisements based on suitability, language, geographic location and other details.For a list of our third-party service providers, please click here. If you wish to opt out of interest-based advertising, you may opt out by sending email to [global.support@meitu.com]. Please note you will continue to receive generic ads after you opt out of interest-based advertising.

Information Collected by Third Party Services

Our Services provided to you may contain our service provider's Application Programming Interfaces (APIs) or Software Development Kits (SDKs), which may have tracking tools of such service providers. These third parties may use cookies, APIs and SDKs on our Services and collect and analyze user information. In addition, some third-party SDKs may allow advertisers to collect information in order to provide content that is more relevant to you. Third parties may access your information such as your device identifiers, region (defined as the location where a given language is used), location information and IP address under their respective privacy policies. If you want to know more about such third parties, you may send an email to compliance@meitu.com (please quote "BeautyCam" in your email title).

Other Information

We may also collect other information which is not related to your identity. For example, we may collect information on the type and version number of your operating system to better understand system upgrades, we may collect information on your system language for the purpose of language adaptation, and we may collect your App list to understand user preferences. If we choose to collect such information, we will do so for the purpose of improving our Services provided to you.

HOW WE USE INFORMATION

In addition to the uses listed above, we collect and use your user information and personal information for the following purposes:

(i) Services. To provide, process, maintain, improve and develop our Services provided to you, including customer support, and other services provided through our products.

(ii) Statistical analysis. To develop and analyze statistics on the use of our products and Services for the purpose of improving our products and our Services.

(iii) To create an account. The personal information that we collect when you use our Services to create an account will be used by us to create your account and profile.

(iv) To provide location-based services. When you use our Services, we or third-party service providers may take advantage of your location information to provide you with advertising, the correct version of our Services and help you gain good user experience.

(v) To improve user experience. Certain optional features such as user experience programs allow us to analyze data regarding the use of our products and our Services and improve user experience.

(vi) To provide push services. Device information may be used by us to provide push services to assess the performance of adverts and the success of software updates, or provide notifications on new product releases.

(vii) To verify your identity. Verifying your identity using a text message when you log in to your account helps prevent unauthorized logins to your account.

(viii) To collect feedback from you. Your feedback is of great value in helping us to improve our Services. To keep track of your feedback, we may use the personal information provided by you to contact you and retain the records.

(ix) Other purposes. We will collect, store, maintain and use information about you for purposes under the “The Information We Collect”, and for purposes of running our operations, pursuing our legitimate interests (e.g., research (including marketing research), network and information security, and fraud prevention), and satisfying our legal obligations.

INFORMATION SHARING AND DISCLOSURE

We may share your information with third parties who provide services on our behalf to help with our business activities. These services may include:

(i) Fulfilling orders and delivering packages;

(ii) Providing you with advertising;

(iii) Payment processing;

(iv) Providing customer services;

(v) Fulfilling subscription services;

(vi) Conducting research and analysis; and

(vii) Providing cloud computing infrastructure.

We will not share with or disclose to third parties (other than our service providers) your personal information in whole or in part except for the purposes of:

(i) protecting the security of others or their property;

(ii) preventing or dealing with fraud;

(iii) safeguarding our legitimate rights and interests;

(iv) taking action in line with our purposes as described in the “The Information We Collect” or the “How We Use Information” sections;

(v) complying with laws, rules and regulations or requests by government departments, judicial authorities, law enforcement, or private parties, which are typically designed to uphold Internet security and the rights, property and safety of us, our users and third parties; and/or

(vi) evaluating or completing a transaction where we are involved in a merger, acquisition, financing due diligence, reorganization, bankruptcy, receivership, sale of company assets, or other event where your information may be sold or transferred.

BASES FOR USING YOUR INFORMATION

We will only collect and process personal information where we have lawful bases and we typically rely on one of the following four legal bases: -

(i)consent (where you have given consent);

(ii)contract (where processing is necessary for the performance of a contract with you, for example, to operate the site or deliver any services you have requested);

(iii)legitimate interests (for example we need to use your information to provide and improve our Services, including protecting your account, providing customer support). We rely on our legitimate interests as our lawful basis only where those interests are not overridden by the impact on you (unless we have your consent or our processing is otherwise required or permitted by law); and

(iv)legal obligations (to comply with the laws, rules and regulations or requests by government departments, judicial authorities or law enforcement).

If you have questions about the lawful bases on how we process your personal information, please contact us at compliance@meitu.com (please quote “BeautyCam” in your email title).

THIRD PARTY WEBSITES AND SERVICES

Our Services may contain links to other websites and services. In addition, other websites and services may reference or link to our Services. These other domains and websites are not controlled by us, and we do not endorse or make any representations about third party websites or services. We encourage our users to read the privacy policies of each and every website and service with which they interact. Visiting these other websites or services is at your own risk.

INFORMATION SECURITY

We will take reasonable measures to prevent the loss, improper use of, unauthorized access to or disclosure of information. For example, some of our Services will use encryption techniques (such as SSL) to protect your personal information. However, you understand and accept that (in the Internet industry) even though we take reasonable security measures, we cannot always guarantee that your information is 100% secure. You understand and accept that we cannot ensure or warrant the security of any information you provide to us. We do not accept liability for unintentional disclosure. Further, you understand and accept that the system and communication network used by you to access our Services may fail due to factors beyond our control.

INFORMATION ACCESS AND CONTROL

We will take all reasonable and appropriate technical measures to ensure that you can access, update and correct your personal information or other personal information provided to us by you when using our Services. Before you access, update, correct or remove such personal information, we may verify your identity in order to protect the security of your account.

DATA RETENTION

Subject to applicable laws, rules and regulations and the fulfillment of our business or legal purposes, we will delete your information (including your personal information) promptly upon your termination of your account with us.

PRIVACY RIGHTS

In accordance with applicable law, you may have the right to: (i) request confirmation of whether we are processing your personal information; (ii) obtain access to or a copy of your personal information; (iii) receive an electronic copy of personal information that you have provided to us, or ask us to send that information to another company (right to data portability); (iv) object to or restrict our uses of your personal information; (v) seek correction or amendment of inaccurate, untrue, incomplete, or improperly processed personal information; (vi) withdraw your consent; and (vii) request erasure of personal information held about you by us, subject to certain exceptions prescribed by law.

If you wish to exercise your rights, you may send an email to compliance@meitu.com (please quote “BeautyCam” in your email title) or mail your request to Unit 7702A, Level 77, International Commerce Centre, 1 Austin Road West, Kowloon, Hong Kong (attention: Legal Department, Meitu). We will process your request in line with applicable laws within a reasonable period of time after receiving your email or mail, and will cease collecting, using and disclosing your personal information thereafter, subject to certain exceptions prescribed by law. To protect your privacy, we will take steps to verify your identity before fulfilling your request. Please note that if you withdraw your consent or delete your personal information, your use of some of our Services may be affected.

INFORMATION ABOUT CHILDREN

We will not knowingly collect or request personal information from children under 16 (or any other age stipulated by law applicable to your region). If you are under 16, please do not send your personal information to us, including but not limited to your name, address, phone number or email address. If you believe we may have any information about children under 16, you may send an email to compliance@meitu.com (please quote “BeautyCam” in your email title) or send a registered mail to Unit 7702A, Level 77, International Commerce Centre, 1 Austin Road West, Kowloon, Hong Kong (attention: Legal Department, Meitu). If we learn that we have collected personal information from children under 16 (or any other age stipulated by law applicable to your region), we will promptly take steps to delete such information and terminate the associated account.

CROSS-BORDER DATA TRANSFERS

You understand and agree that all information collected via or by us may be transferred, processed, and stored anywhere in the world, including but not limited to, Singapore, China, the United States, the European Union, in the cloud, on our servers, on the servers of our affiliates, or the servers of our service providers, in order to provide our Services.

GOVERNING LAW

This Policy is established, comes into force, and will be enforced and interpreted under the laws of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region of the People's Republic of China, without regard to its conflict of law provisions. Any disputes arising hereunder will also be resolved in accordance with the Terms of Service. We do not represent or warrant that this Policy complies with the privacy law of any jurisdiction. Therefore, you should not interpret this Policy in accordance with such law.

AMENDMENTS TO THIS POLICY

You agree that we may update this Policy according to relevant laws and regulations or based on our business decisions, and you agree to be bound by any such revisions hereto. We will post any significant changes to this Policy on BeautyCam or notify you by other means as required by law.

FOR USERS IN THE EUROPEAN ECONOMIC AREA AND THE UNITED KINGDOM

For cases in which we process personal information within the scope of the European General Data Protection Regulation and the UK General Data Protection Regulation(collectively, "GDPR"), you will find the relevant details on the processing of your personal information in the GDPR Notice below.

FOR USERS IN JAPAN

Right to data disclosure, correction, erasure or suspension of use

If you are in Japan, as a data subject, you have the right to request the disclosure, correction, erasure or suspension of use of your personal information, and we are obliged to meet your request without undue delay. You may send your request by email to compliance@meitu.com (please quote "BeautyCam" in your email title) or by mail to Unit 7702A, Level 77, International Commerce Centre, 1 Austin Road West, Kowloon, Hong Kong (attention: Legal Department, Meitu).

The categories of sources from which we collect Personal Information and our business and commercial purposes for using and disclosing Personal Information are set forth in "The Information We Collect", "How We Use Information", and "Information Sharing and Disclosure" above, respectively. We will retain personal information in accordance with the time periods set forth in "Data Retention" above.

In the preceding twelve months, we have not "sold" any personal information (as defined by the CCPA), nor do we have actual knowledge of any "sale" of personal information of minors under 16 years of age.

In the preceding twelve months, we have not "shared" any personal information for "cross-context behavioral advertising" (as such terms are defined in the CCPA), nor do we have actual knowledge of any "sharing" of personal information of minors under 16 years of age for "cross-context behavioral advertising"

We only use and disclose sensitive personal information for the following purposes:

i. To provide the Services.

ii. To prevent, detect, and investigate security incidents that compromise the availability, authenticity, integrity, and or confidentiality of stored or transmitted personal information.

iii. To resist malicious, deceptive, fraudulent, or illegal actions directed at us and to prosecute those responsible for those actions.

iv. To ensure the physical safety of natural persons.

v. To verify or maintain the quality or safety of our products, Services, or devices, and to improve, upgrade, or enhance our Services or devices.

vi. For purposes that do not infer characteristics about individuals.

California residents have the right not to receive discriminatory treatment by us for the exercise of their rights conferred by the CCPA.

To protect your privacy, we will take steps to reasonably verify your identity before fulfilling requests submitted under the CCPA. These steps may involve asking you to provide sufficient information that allows us to reasonably verify you are the person about whom we collected personal information or an authorized representative. Examples of our verification process may include asking you to provide the email address or phone number we have associated with you and providing a verification code that is sent to your email address or phone number.

Only you, or someone legally authorized to act on your behalf, may make a verifiable consumer request related to your personal information. To authorize an agent, provide written authorization signed by you and your designated agent and contact us using the information in “Privacy Rights” above for additional instructions.

We do not “sell” personal information or “share” personal information for “cross-context behavioral advertising” so we do not respond to opt-out preference signals.

If you are a Nevada resident, we do not “sell” your personal information.

GDPR NOTICE

In context with the provision of the Services we process personal data.

If the GDPR applies to our processing of your personal data, we process personal data only in accordance with the GDPR. In our above (general) Privacy Policy, you find information on when the GDPR applies to our processing of personal data. This GDPR Notice supplements the above (general) Privacy Policy and includes detailed information on our processing of your personal data under the GDPR.

iii. Information on the use of cookies or similar technologies

The following section currently only deals with cookies. If similar technologies (browser fingerprints, local storage, session storage, etc.) are used, this section would have to be adapted accordingly.

We use cookies in connection with offering our Services. In doing so, we use the processing and storage functions of your device and/or your device's browser and collect information from the memory of your device and/or your device's browser.

You will find more detailed information on this in the following.

1. General information on cookies

Cookies are small text files with information that can be placed on a user's device when an app is used or a website is visited. When the relevant app or website is used or visited again with the same device, the cookie and the information it contains can be retrieved.

1. a) First-party and third-party cookies

Depending on where a cookie comes from, a distinction can be made between first-party cookies and third-party cookies:

First-party cookies	Cookies that are placed and accessed by the operator of the app or website as the controller or by a processor engaged by the controller
Third-party cookies	Cookies that are placed and accessed by controllers other than the operator of the app or website that are not processors engaged by the operator of the app or website

1. b) Transient and persistent cookies

A distinction can be made between transient and persistent cookies depending on how long they remain active:

Transient cookies (Session cookies)	Cookies that are automatically deleted when you close the app or your browser
Persistent cookies	Cookies that remain stored on your device for a certain period of time after the app or browser is closed

1. c) Consent-free cookies and cookies requiring consent

Users' consent is required for some cookies depending on their function and purpose of use. Thus, a distinction can be made between cookies that require users' consent and those that do not:

Consent-free cookies	Cookies that have as their sole purpose to transmit a message using an electronic communication network
	Cookies that are necessary so that the party offering a service that has been expressly requested by a participant or user can provide this service ("strictly necessary cookies")
Cookies requiring consent	Cookies for all purposes of use other than the aforementioned

2. Management of the cookies used in our app and on our website

3. a) Granting and withdrawing consents to the use of cookies in the data protection settings of our app and website

If consent is necessary for the use of certain cookies, we only use these cookies if you have previously granted your consent to this. You can find information as to whether the use of a particular cookie requires consent in the information on the cookies used in our Services in Section III.3. of this Privacy Policy.

You cannot deactivate cookies that are strictly necessary in the data protection settings of our app or website. However, you can generally deactivate these cookies in your app or browser at any time.

1. b) Managing cookies using device/browser settings

You can also manage the use of cookies in your device's or your browser's settings. Different browsers have different ways to configure cookie settings. You can find more extensive information on this, for example at http://www.allaboutcookies.org/manage-cookies/.

However, we would like to point out that some functions of our app or website may not work properly or at all if you deactivate cookies in general on your device.

3. Cookies used in our app and on our website

The following cookies may be used in our app and on our website:

Name	First-party / third-party	Purpose of use and content	Effective term	Consent necessary?

iv. Information on the rights of data subjects

As a data subject, you have the following rights with regard to the processing of your personal data:

Right of access (Art. 15 GDPR)

Right to rectification (Art. 16 GDPR)

Right to erasure (“right to be forgotten”) (Art. 17 GDPR)

Right to restriction of processing (Art. 18 GDPR)

Right to data portability (Art. 20 GDPR)

Right to object (Art. 21 GDPR)

Right to withdraw consent (Art. 7 (3) GDPR)

You may contact us for the purpose of exercising these rights using the contact information in Section I.

Where applicable, you find information on any specific modalities and mechanisms which facilitate the exercise of your rights, in particular the exercise of your rights to data portability and to object, in the information on the processing of personal data in Section II of this GDPR Notice.

You also have the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority (Art. 77 GDPR).

Below you find more detailed information on your rights with regard to the processing of your personal data:

1. Right of access

As a data subject, you have a right to obtain access and information under the conditions provided in Art. 15 GDPR.

This means in particular that you have the right to obtain confirmation from us as to whether we are processing your personal data. If so, you also have the right to obtain access to the personal data and the information listed in Art. 15 (1) GDPR. This includes information regarding the purposes of the processing, the categories of personal data that are being processed and the recipients or categories of recipients to whom the personal data have been or will be disclosed (Art. 15 (1) (a), (b) and (c) GDPR).

You can find the full extent of your right to access and information in Art. 15 GDPR.

2. Right to rectification

As a data subject, you have the right to rectification under the conditions provided in Art. 16 GDPR.

This means in particular that you have the right to receive from us without undue delay the rectification of inaccuracies in your personal data and completion of incomplete personal data.

You can find the full extent of your right to rectification in Art. 16 GDPR.

3. Right to erasure ("right to be forgotten")

As a data subject, you have a right to erasure ("right to be forgotten") under the conditions provided in Art. 17 GDPR.

This means that you have the right to obtain from us the erasure of your personal data and we are obliged to erase your personal data without undue delay when one of the reasons listed in Art. 17 (1) GDPR applies. This can be the case, for example, if personal data are no longer necessary in relation to the purposes for which they were collected or otherwise processed (Art. 17 (1) (a) GDPR).

If we have made the personal data public and are obliged to erase it, we are also obliged, taking account of available technology and the cost of implementation, to take reasonable steps, including technical measures, to inform controllers which are processing the personal data that you have requested the erasure by such controllers of any links to, or copy or replication of those personal data (Art. 17 (2) GDPR).

The right to erasure (“right to be forgotten”) does not apply if the processing is necessary for one of the reasons listed in Art. 17 (3) GDPR. This can be the case, for example, if the processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims (Art. 17 (3) (b) and (e) GDPR).

You can find the full extent of your right to erasure (“right to be forgotten”) in Art. 17 GDPR.

4. Right to restriction of processing

As a data subject, you have a right to restriction of processing under the conditions provided in Art. 18 GDPR.

This means that you have the right to obtain from us the restriction of processing if one of the conditions provided in Art. 18 (1) GDPR applies. This can be the case, for example, if you contest the accuracy of the personal data. In such a case, the restriction of processing lasts for a period that enables us to verify the accuracy of the personal data (Art. 18 (1) (a) GDPR).

Restriction means that stored personal data are marked with the goal of restricting their future processing (Art. 4 (3) GDPR).

You can find the full extent of your right to restriction of processing in Art. 18 GDPR.

5. Right to data portability

As a data subject, you have a right to data portability under the conditions provided in Art. 20 GDPR.

This means that you generally have the right to receive your personal data with which you have provided us in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and to transmit those data to another controller without hindrance from us if the processing is based on consent pursuant to Art. 6 (1) (a) or Art. 9 (2) (a) GDPR or on a contract pursuant to Art. 6 (1) (b) GDPR and the processing is carried out by automated means (Art. 20 (1) GDPR).

You can find information as to whether an instance of processing is based on consent pursuant to Art. 6 (1) (a) or Art. 9 (2) (a) GDPR or on a contract pursuant to Art. 6 (1) (b) GDPR in the information regarding the legal basis of processing in Section II of this GDPR Notice.

In exercising your right to data portability, you also generally have the right to have your personal data transmitted directly from us to another controller if technically feasible (Art. 20 (2) GDPR).

You can find the full extent of your right to data portability in Art. 20 GDPR.

6. Right to object

As a data subject, you have a right to object under the conditions provided in Art. 21 GDPR.

At the latest in our first communication with you, we expressly inform you of your right, as a data subject, to object.

More detailed information on this is given below:

Right to object on grounds relating to the particular situation of the data subject

As a data subject, you have the right to object, on grounds relating to your particular situation, at any time to processing of your personal data which is based on Art. 6 (1) (e) or (f), including profiling based on those provisions.

You can find information as to whether an instance of processing is based on Art. 6 (1) (e) or (f) GDPR in the information regarding the legal basis of processing in Section II of this GDPR Notice.

In the event of an objection relating to your particular situation, we will no longer process your personal data unless we can demonstrate compelling legitimate grounds for the processing which override your interests, rights and freedoms or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.

You can find the full extent of your right to objection in Art. 21 GDPR.

Right to object to direct marketing

Where your personal data are processed for direct marketing purposes, you have the right to object at any time to processing of your personal data for such marketing, which includes profiling to the extent that it is related to such direct marketing.

You can find information as to whether and to what extent personal data are processed for direct marketing purposes in the information regarding the legal basis of processing in Section II of this GDPR Notice.

If you object to processing for direct marketing purposes, we no longer process your personal data for these purposes.

You can find the full extent of your right to objection in Art. 21 GDPR.

7. Right to withdraw consent

Where an instance of processing is based on consent pursuant to Art. 6 (1) (a) or Art. 9 (2) (a) GDPR, as a data subject you have the right to withdraw your consent at any time pursuant to Art. 7 (3) GDPR. The withdrawal of your consent does not affect the legitimacy of the processing that occurred based on your consent until the withdrawal. We inform you of this before you grant your consent.

You can find information as to whether an instance of processing is based on Art. 6 (1) (a) or Art. 9 (2) (a) GDPR in the information regarding the legal basis of processing in Section II of this GDPR Notice.

8. Right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority

As a data subject, you have a right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority under the conditions provided in Art. 77 GDPR.

The supervisory authorities responsible for us are:

Der Hamburgische Beauftragte für Datenschutz und Informationsfreiheit

v. Information on the technical terms of the GDPR used in this GDPR Notice

The technical terms relating to data protection used in this GDPR Notice have the meaning used in the General Data Protection Regulation.

The full scope of the definitions of the General Data Protection Regulation can be found in Art. 4 GDPR.

You will find more detailed information on the most important technical terms of the General Data Protection Regulation used in this GDPR Notice below:

"Personal data" means any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person ("data subject"); an identifiable natural person is one who can be identified, directly or indirectly, in particular by reference to an identifier such as a name, an identification number, location data, an online identifier or to one or more factors specific to the physical, physiological, genetic, mental, economic, cultural or social identity of that natural person;

"Data subject" means the respective identified or identifiable natural person, to which the personal data refers to;

“Processing” means any operation or set of operations which is performed on personal data or on sets of personal data, whether or not by automated means, such as collection, recording, organisation, structuring, storage, adaptation or alteration, retrieval, consultation, use, disclosure by transmission, dissemination or otherwise making available, alignment or combination, restriction, erasure or destruction;

“Profiling” means any form of automated processing of personal data consisting of the use of personal data to evaluate certain personal aspects relating to a natural person, in particular to analyse or predict aspects concerning that natural person’s performance at work, economic situation, health, personal preferences, interests, reliability, behaviour, location or movements;

“Controller” means the natural or legal person, public authority, agency or other body which, alone or jointly with others, determines the purposes and means of the processing of personal data; where the purposes and means of such processing are determined by Union or Member State law, the controller or the specific criteria for its nomination may be provided for by Union or Member State law;

“Processor” means a natural or legal person, public authority, agency or other body which processes personal data on behalf of the controller;

“Recipient” means a natural or legal person, public authority, agency or another body, to which the personal data are disclosed, whether a third party or not. However, public authorities which may receive personal data in the framework of a particular inquiry in accordance with Union or Member State law shall not be regarded as recipients; the processing of those data by those public authorities shall be in compliance with the applicable data protection rules according to the purposes of the processing;

“Third party” means a natural or legal person, public authority, agency or body other than the data subject, controller, processor and persons who, under the direct authority of the controller or processor, are authorised to process personal data;

“International organisation” means an organisation and its subordinate bodies governed by public international law, or any other body which is set up by, or on the basis of, an agreement between two or more countries; and “Third country” means a country which is not a member state of the European Union (”EU”) or the European Economic Area (“EEA”) or the United Kingdom.

FOR USERS IN VIETNAM

If you are a user in Vietnam, this section will supplement and constitute an integral part of the Policy, and is formulated in accordance with the applicable laws and regulations in Vietnam, including Decree 13/2023/ND-CP on personal data protection (as amended from time to time) and other relevant laws, regulations, regulatory requirements and national standards that govern or otherwise relate to the processing of your personal information during the use of our Services (collectively, the “Vietnam Privacy Regulations”).

The terms in this section shall have the same meaning defined under the Policy unless otherwise clearly specified. In the event of any conflict between the terms in this section and the provisions of the main body of the Policy, the terms in this section will prevail.

The Information We Collect

In this Policy, "personal information" or "personal data" refers to any information in the form of symbols, letters, numbers, images, sounds or the like on an electronic medium that is associated with a particular person or helps to identify a particular person. Personal information includes basic personal data and sensitive personal data.

Some of the personal information that we collect may comprise "sensitive personal data". This refers to personal data that is associated with your privacy that, when violated, will directly affect your legitimate rights and interests. Sensitive personal data that we collect and process include but not limited to location information, voice information and facial feature information.

Scope of Processing

The Policy explains how we "process" your personal information. This includes how we may collect, record, analyse, verify, store, correct, disclose, associate, access, retrieve, revoke, encrypt, decrypt, copy, share, transmit, provide, transfer, delete, destroy or undertake such other related actions in respect of your personal information.

Our Legal Bases for Processing Your Personal Information

We will only process your personal information when we have a legal basis to do so. In most cases, we process your personal information after we have obtained your consent for the purposes listed in the Policy.
