Privacy Policy

Alpharithm Technologies incorporated as a private limited company in the countries that we operate.

We, at Alpharithm Technologies, value your trust and confidence. We believe that we earn your trust and confidence when we continue to bring you exceptional services and do so in a very private and secure manner. We believe that trust and confidence is sustained as we honour that commitment to you, day in and day out. Our privacy statement sets forth your and our rights and responsibilities with regard to your personal information.

What information do we collect?

If you are just browsing on this site there is no need for you to disclose any personal information, such as your name or contact details. We will always let you have a copy of all personal information we have about you should you request it subject to such charges as we are permitted to make under relevant data protection legislation.

Information You Give Us: We receive and store any information you enter on our Web site or you provide to us in any other way, such as by telephone or by electronic mail and using the camera to scan the link.

Do we share the information we receive?

Except as set out in this Privacy Notice, you will receive notice when personal information about you might go to third parties, and you will have an opportunity to choose not to have us share that information. We provide the information to trusted partners who work on behalf of or with Alpharithm Technologies under confidentiality agreements. These companies may use your personal information to help Alpharithm Technologies communicate with you about offers from Alpharithm Technologies and our marketing partners. However, these companies do not have any independent right to share this information. We share personal information as described below:

Agents: We employ other companies and individuals to perform functions on our behalf. Examples include providing marketing assistance, providing customer services, sending postal mail and email to you, removing repetitive information from customer lists, and analyzing data. These persons have access to personal information needed to perform their functions. These companies do not retain, share, store or use personally identifiable information that you provide.

Protection and Compliance: We also access and other personal information when we believe release is: (i) appropriate to comply with the law of the land; (ii) necessary for compliance with any legal summons, notices, orders, or requests by law enforcement officials/court judicial forces; (iii) enforce or apply our Services Agreement and other agreements; (iv) protect the rights, property, or safety of Alpharithm Technologies, our users, or others. This includes exchanging information with other companies and organizations for fraud protection and credit risk reduction.

EMAIL

From time to time, Alpharithm Technologies may use your personal information to contact you by electronic mail concerning your use of our services. These communications are intended to inform you of important information regarding your account, or about general services provided by Alpharithm Technologies. If you do not want to receive email from us regarding service updates, please click the “unsubscribe link” at the bottom of any email you receive from Alpharithm Technologies.

Other Web sites

Although Alpharithm Technologies is committed to protecting your privacy. Alpharithm Technologies cannot be responsible for the content or privacy policies of other Web sites including those of advertisers to which it may link and those which link to Alpharithm Technologies. This Privacy Notice applies only to the information collected by this Web site. We ask that you review the privacy policies of every online service you use before submitting personal information.

Conditions of use, Notices and Revisions

If you choose to visit Alpharithm Technologies, your visit and any dispute over privacy is subject to this Notice and our Services Agreement, including limitations on damages. If you have any concern about privacy at Alpharithm Technologies, please contact Customer Support and we will try to resolve it. We use third-party advertising companies to serve ads when you visit our Web site. Our third-party advertising company also separately places or recognizes a cookie file on your browser in the course of delivering advertisements to this site. These companies may use information (not including your name, address, email address or telephone number) about your visits to this and other Web sites in order to provide advertisements about goods and services of interest to you. Other companies’ use of their cookies is subject to their own privacy policies, not this one. If you would like more information about this practice and to know your choices about not having this information used by these companies, please contact our Customer Support.

Changes to this Policy

Alpharithm Technologies may update this policy. We will notify you about significant changes in the way we treat personal information by sending a notice to the primary email address specified in your account or by placing a prominent notice on our site.
