I. How We Collect and Use Your Personal Information

The rednote Platform is a lifestyle platform for young people, with the mission to “inspire lives to share and discover the wonders of the world”. Users can record moments of their lives and share their lifestyles through short videos, pictures, texts and other forms of content, and form interactions based on interests. In this Privacy Policy, we will explain the scope of personal information that each function of our products and/or services may collect, the purposes of collection, the methods of collection, and the possible consequences of not providing your personal information. Please be aware that you can still use other functions of the rednote Platform Services if you do not provide the corresponding information necessary for each function.

We will collect and use the personal information you provide voluntarily or that is generated during your use of our products and/or services, following the principles of legitimacy, legality, and necessity, for the purposes stated in this Privacy Policy. If we intend to use your personal information for purposes not specified in this Privacy Policy, or use the collected information for other purposes based on specific needs, we will inform you in a reasonable manner and obtain your consent again before using it. You can access the details through [Me - Settings - Personal Information List].

1.Account Registration and Login

1.1 “rednote Account” or “Account” means the account that Users may need to register when using the rednote Platform. When you register and log in, if you use the one-click login function, based on our cooperation with the telecom operators, we will collect your mobile phone number and network operator information to provide you with fast login services. Additionally, to help you complete the registration process, we will also collect your gender, interests, and age to provide you with initial rednote Platform services. If you do not wish to provide such information, you can click [...] - [Skip this step] at the top right of the collection page.In addition, for the safety of your Account, when we identify that your mobile phone number may have been allocated more than once, we will provide your mobile phone number, account registration/login time to the telecom operator to check and confirm in order to protect the safety of your Account.

1.2 If you log in with a third-party account, to meet the requirements of the network real-name system, we will additionally collect your mobile phone number to complete real-name verification before you can use functions and services that require real-name verification, such as posting and commenting. Please consider carefully before providing such information. If you refuse to provide it, you may not be able to use the corresponding functions normally.

1.3 To ensure the safety of your Account, when we find that your activities may have safety risks, we may verify your identity via face ID, fingerprint ID, text message or other methods. Before using face ID or fingerprint ID, you need to input your face or fingerprint information to your device. When the verification has been triggered, you will need to complete it directly on your device. We only receive the result of such verification,We will not collect any of your face or fingerprint information. If you do not wish to use face ID or fingerprint ID to verify, you may choose other methods of verification

1.4 You can also choose to fill in or change your avatar, name, gender, birthday, occupation, region, school, profile, and outfit information according to your needs to complete your information. However, if you do not provide this information, it will not affect your use of this product and the related services.

1.5 If you successfully register a rednote Account, we will display your name, avatar, region, and profile information on the rednote Platform.

2.Providing Products and/or Services to You

2.1 Information Browsing, Posting, Liking, Collecting, and Sharing Functions

2.1.1 To provide you with our core information display services and recommend notes and related information that may interest you, we will collect the personal information you fill in, your gender, birthday, browsing records (your follows, browsing), and click operation records (interests, clicks, searches, likes, collections, shares, comments, posting records, and related behaviors). If you wish to disable our recommendations based on this information, you can refer to the instructions in Section I Article 2.16 of this Privacy Policy.

When you play videos or other content, in order to adapt to the status of your device, we will access your device's accelerometer and gyroscope sensors to identify whether your device is in portrait or landscape orientation.

2.1.2 When you use the posting and editing content functions, we will request your authorization for storage (photo albums, media, and other files), camera, and microphone (recording) permissions. If you refuse to authorize these permissions, you will not be able to use the corresponding functions, but it will not affect your normal use of other rednote Platform functions.

When you click "➕ " in app front page , if you have authorized our access to photo album in your device, we will preload the photo album information while all the preload information will only be cached in your device temporarily and will not be uploaded to our server.

To improve video upload speed, enrich posting functions, and optimize the experience, we will temporarily load the video you edited to the server before you click "publish notes". If you exit the editing page or do not post the note for other reasons, we will immediately delete the related video. You can disable this function through [Me - Settings - General Settings - Not allow Pre-upload videos before publishing].

When you post notes, live streams, and other interactive content, we will use your authorized geographic location information to determine your location when you post content and subsequently use this information to recommend your content to other users.

With your consent, we will display your live stream link and other live stream information on the map interface of the nearby feature based on your location information when you start the live stream, making it easier for users in the same geographic area to discover and access your live stream. Please note that to protect your privacy, if the map accuracy level is too high, we will not display your live stream information on the map. You can withdraw your consent by going to the pre-live stream page settings - Geographic Location - Hide My Location.

2.1.3 When you use the post, comment, like, collect, or share functions, the text, photo, video, audio, comment, like, collect, or share records you post will be stored on our servers, because storage is necessary for this function. We will store this information in an encrypted manner, and you can delete this information at any time.

2.1.4 If you use location stickers when shooting or editing content, with your authorization, we will use your location information to generate stickers. These stickers will be publicly displayed in the content. If you refuse to authorize location information, you will not be able to use this function, but it will not affect your use of other functions. We will also use your authorized location information to recommend location links on the content publishing page. Additionally, we will use the location information embedded in the media information of the image/video when recommending location anchors. You can control the access to this information through the Section IV Article 3 of this Privacy Policy.

2.1.5 When you use sports-related functions (such as running, cycling, sharing sports stickers, and other sports features), we will record your sports data. With your separate consent, we may also collect activity data from your device (including steps, calories, distance, altitude, sport intensity, active hours, daily activity data, and activity goals), as well as workout/exercise data (including sports types, detailed exercise records, and detailed exercise location data), to enable you to track your exercise. If you wish to create sports stickers, we may use the above data to creat sports stickers for you.

If you do not consent to our collection of sports, activity, and workout data, you may be unable to record your exercise or create sports stickers, but it will not affect your use of other features.

2.1.6 When you enable and use the "Limited Memories" function, we will automatically analyze and filter the pictures and videos in your device's album based on the shooting information (time, scene, and location) to generate videos for you. For optimal editing effects, we need to collect shooting information for analysis before generating each video. We promise not to store any information. After you enable the "Limited Memories" function, we will only analyze and filter within the album range you authorized. You can enable or disable this feature through the path indicated in the Section IV Article 3 of this Privacy Policy.

2.1.7 When you or other users use the 'Translation' feature, we will provide the content that needs to be translated to the translation service provider. We will only share the content that needs translation and will not disclose usernames or any other personally identifiable information.

2.2 Friend Recommendation or Discovery Function. When you use the function of recommending address book friends or discovering friends on your own initiative, with your express consent, we will encrypt and upload your address book information to our servers to recommend friends and content of people you may know. Your friends will also be able to see your use of the rednote Platform Services. If you do not want to be recommended, you can choose to turn off in [Me] - click on the upper left corner- [Settings] - [Privacy Settings] - [Hide Me from People I May Know]. Address book information is considered sensitive personal information, and refusing to provide this information will only prevent you from using the aforementioned function but will not affect your normal use of other rednote Platform functions.

2.3 Secure Operation and Risk Control Verification. To ensure the safe operation of the software and services, prevent your personal information from being illegally obtained, more accurately prevent fraud, and protect the security of Accounts, we will proactively collect your device information [Including: device/hardware model, device name, SIM card serial number (e.g., ICCID), device/hardware serial number (SN), device unique identifier (Including: IMEI, IMSI, Android ID, IDFA, IDFV, OAID (Harmony OS), OAID (Android), MEID)], running processes, app’s overall running situation and frequency, system crash, installation and visiting, performance data, data source, storage (photo albums, media and other files), browser type and setting, language setting, sensor, operating system, operating system version number and application version, installed apps, network device hardware address (MAC Address), WLAN-MAC, WLAN connecting points (e.g., SSID, BSSID), IP Address, Bluetooth address, way of accessing network, network quality data, station, mobile network information (including operator names), device sensor data (such as accelerometer, linear accelerometer, gravity sensor, gyroscope), software version number, and software usage record information, and upload them to the servers for processing and security risk control verification. If you do not agree to our collection of the above information, the risk control verification might not be able to be completed. Please understand that, in order to dynamically detect if there is any abnormal login in your Account, every time you switch the rednote Platform to background or restart the application, we may read this information again. We will control the reading frequency within a reasonable range. In order to maintain network security and ensure a properly functioning ecosystem, the region information corresponding to your IP address will be displayed on your profile page, note publishing page and comments. The domestic region information will be displayed to the province (region, city), and the overseas region information will be displayed to the country (region). The specific information is subject to the data of the network operator.

2.4 Search Function. When you use the rednote Platform search function, we will collect your search keywords (which may be in text or image form), browsing records, access time, comments and interaction records. Collecting such information allows us to provide you with the content you need and services you may be more interested in, and in the meantime, improve our products and services.

2.5 Location-Based Services. When you enable the device location function through system authorization and use location-based related services on the rednote Platform (including location-based content recommendations, nearby function, and the display of local life information and interactive content on the nearby function map interface, location positioning when publishing content, editing delivery information for shopping, and profile editing), we will collect and use your location information to provide you with these services. You can stop our collection of your location information by turning off location services in your mobile device's system, which will not affect your normal use of other rednote Platform functions. We will only display content or services that may be relevant to you based on network information (such as IP) or the corresponding city and/or district and/or street of the authorized location information.

2.6 Interactive Features and Services

2.6.1 When you follow the Accounts that you are interested in, browse, comment, like, collect or share content, we will collect the Accounts that you follow and the aforesaid information and show you the content published by the Accounts that you follow. Additionally, the content that you like or collect will be shown to your fans. You can set the collected content to be visible only to yourself in [Me] - [Collects] - [Collects Boards].

2.6.2 If you need to edit your delivery information when you purchase goods or services, we may request permission to access your address book. Address book permission is a sensitive permission. If you refuse to provide permission, you will only be unable to edit your delivery information through your address book, but it will not affect the use of other rednote Platform functions.

2.6.3 When you choose to add friends by scanning QR codes, we may request permission to access your camera (webcam). Camera (webcam) permission is a sensitive permission. If you refuse to provide permission, you will only be unable to add friends by scanning QR codes, it will not affect the use of other rednote Platform functions.

2.6.4 When you use the group chat function for interactive communications, we will collect information related to the group and group members and form a group list.

2.6.5 Live Stream Room Interaction

If you are a live stream host, your nickname and avatar will be displayed in the live stream room. Additionally, comments, gifts, likes, the number of online viewers, and the duration of the live stream and other statistical data will also be publicly displayed.

If you are a viewer watching the live stream, your nickname, avatar, and other public Account information, as well as interaction information in the live stream room (including but not limited to comments, gifts, and online status in the live stream room), will be publicly displayed. We will also form and publicly display statistical data (such as leaderboards and popularity) based on your interaction activity.

To provide you with quality interactive services, your nickname, avatar, and other public Account information, as well as interaction information with the live stream host (such as follow information, comments, likes, and gifts), may be synchronized for the live stream host to view.

2.6.6 If you are a professional account user, you may choose to enable the Direct Message Pro function: When using the contact card feature, you may voluntarily provide your mobile phone number, WeChat ID, DingTalk ID, or WeCom ID to us for generating your contact card, and independently choose to send it to specific users via direct message; when using the quick menu feature, you may independently set or reserve one or more of your mobile phone number, WeChat ID, DingTalk ID, or WeCom ID, so that other users who initiate a direct message conversation with you can conveniently view and use this contact information.

2.6.7 When you participate in "shake it", or other interactive functions or activities that are relied on your movement, we may activate sensors on your device to identify such movement in order to facilitate your participation or to display following interaction pages (according to different activities, these sensors may include accelerometer, gyro sensor, gravity sensor, linear accelerometer, step counter sensor and gait detection sensor).

2.7 Obtaining, Checking, and Using Virtual Assets. To allow you to check your virtual assets and minimize possible risks, [Wallet] will record your charge, balance and usage information.

2.8 Identity Authentication and Account Retrieval

2.8.1 When you apply for becoming an authenticated user by using the identity authentication function, we will collect your identity information, including your real name, ID number or photo(s) and facial recognition information to verify your identity. If you refuse to provide such information, this will not affect the normal use of other functions of the rednote Platform .

2.8.2 When you apply for Account Retrieval, we may collect your identity information, including your real name, ID number or photo(s) and facial recognition information to verify your identity and retrieve your Account. 2.8.3 When you apply to enable Live Stream function, as required by laws and regulations, we may collect your identity information, including your real name, ID number or photo(s) and facial recognition information to verify your identity. If you refuse to provide such information, this will not affect the normal use of other functions of the rednote Platform.

2.8.4 When you apply for the Product Cooperation function, as required by laws and regulations, we may collect your identity information, including your real name, ID number or photo(s) and facial recognition information to verify your identity. In order to help you successfully complete the product cooperation, we may collect your mobile phone number or WeChat number. If you refuse to provide such information, this will not affect the normal use of other functions of the rednote Platform.

2.8.5 When you apply for the Brand Cooperation function, for the purpose of verifying your identity and determining whether you meet the access conditions to use Brand Cooperation function, we may collect your real name, ID number or photo(s), rednote Account information, occupation, academic information and income details information. If you refuse to provide such information, this will not affect the normal use of other functions of the rednote Platform.

2.9 Product Purchase Function. You can order products/services through the rednote E-commerce Platform or the Quick Sale Service.To help you complete transactions smoothly, ensure transaction security, query order information, and provide logistics services, we will collect your transaction product/service information, order number, order time, transaction amount, payment method, recipient's name, address, contact number, and logistics information when you place an order or to complete the transaction. For certain special types of products and services, you may also need to provide additional information necessary for the product or service, such as your real name, ID number, and photos of both sides of your ID card for customs clearance in the case of cross-border transactions.

2.10 Customer Services and After-Sales Service Function. When you contact our customer service staff or make an after-sales application relating to our products and/or services, including for refund or return purposes, we may collect the communication records between you and the customer service staff. For the security of your Account and system, we may need you to provide relevant personal information that matches the personal information you previously provided to verify your user identity. After successful verification, we may collect your communication information with us (Account information, order information, picture/video/text information, and related information you provide to prove relevant facts), your contact information and your communication records with us, including online communication records and telephone recordings, to try to solve your problems as soon as reasonably possible and improve our products and/or services. At the same time, we may take the initiative to contact you by phone, text message, in-site letter, and other related methods to communicate your problems arising from using our products and services.

For quality assurance purposes, and to help deal with any service disputes, the call between you and the customer service staff may be recorded. The rules for the collection and use of the above information are as follows:

2.10.1 If you have a dispute with the rednote or merchant when you use the rednote Platform Services, we can retrieve and use the call recording as a reference for resolving disputes.

2.10.2 In order to provide you with customer service and after-sales service, we may store your call recordings in the third-party customer service system, and we will ensure that third parties cannot access your call recordings through contractual constraints. The rednote Platform will not provide the call recording to anyone (including the caller or the called party), except under the following circumstances: a. where the call recording is obtained by competent authority in accordance with legal procedures; or b. where the party whose call is recorded obtain the recording in accordance with the legal documents issued by judicial authority.

2.11 Payment Function. You can purchase goods/services and rednote membership services on the rednote Platform. During the process of using these functions, you may need to pay. During the payment process, we will collect your third-party payment accounts (Alipay account, WeChat account, UnionPay account and related accounts).

2.12 Information Pre-Fill Function. When you fill out forms or order information on the rednote Platform, to save you time, we will automatically fill in the form information based on the name, gender (if any), phone number, and region (if any) you provided to the rednote Platform during registration or purchasing.

Any refusal to provide such information may affect your participation in the relevant activities, but shall have no impact on other functions of the rednote Platform. We may share such information with our affiliates or third parties only with your consent, so as to ensure that you receive consistent services in the activities or entrust third parties to timely pay your rewards to you；

(5) Necessary sharing with our affiliates: We may share your personal information with our affiliates. We will only share the personal information that is necessary and such sharing shall be governed by the purposes stated in this Privacy Policy. If an affiliate wants to change the purpose of processing personal information, it will again obtain your authorization and consent; or

(6) another lawful basis under applicable laws applies；

(7) You may share your personal information or other information with third parties (including unspecified persons) on the rednote Platform. However, rednote shall have nothing to do with the disclosure and use of such information as a result of your sharing, and rednote shall not bear any legal liability.

2.Transfer:

Transfer means the transfer of control of your personal information to any other company, organization or individual. We will not transfer your personal information to any other company, organization or individual without your express consent, except in the following circumstances:

(1) Your prior consent shall have been obtained;

(2) The transfer is requested by you;

(3) In the event of any merger, division, dissolution or bankruptcy of rednote, which may involve the transfer of personal information, we will inform you of the name and contact information of the recipient, and request the new company or organization that holds your personal information to continue to comply with this Privacy Policy. If the recipient changes the purpose or method of processing personal information, we will require the recipient to obtain your express consent again.

(4) Other circumstances provided by laws and regulations.

3.Public disclosure:

Public disclosure means the release of information to the public or non-specific groups. In principle, we will not publicly disclose your personal information, except in the following circumstances:

(1) To display the necessary relevant desensitized information when publicizing Account in connection with winning prizes or punishment notices;

(2) Having obtained your express consent.

4.Exceptions to Authorized Consent for Sharing, Transfer and Public Disclosure of Personal Information

In accordance with relevant laws and regulations, we may share, transfer or publicly disclose your personal information without your prior authorization in the following circumstances:

(1) It is necessary for the conclusion and performance of any contract to which the individual is a party, or necessary for the implementation of human resources management in accordance with labor rules and regulations formulated in accordance with applicable laws or collective contracts concluded in accordance with applicable laws;

(5) Processing personal information that is publicly disclosed by individuals or others legally to a reasonable extent in accordance with the provisions of the Personal Information Protection Law;

(6) Other circumstances provided by laws and regulations.

Please understand that pursuant to the current applicable laws, regulations and regulatory requirements, sharing and transferring of anonymized personal information of which the recipient cannot recover and re-identify the subject do not need to give further notice to you and obtain your consent.

III. How We Store and Protect Your Personal Information

1.Storage:

Storage location: the location for us to store the personal information obtained during the operation of the rednote Platform is within the territory of the People's Republic of China. In the following circumstances, we will ensure that we provide your personal information to foreign entities, which are located outside of the People's Republic of China, subject to compliance with our obligations under laws:
(1) Expressly required by applicable laws;
(2) We have obtained your express authorization; or
(3) Your cross-border transactions via the Internet or other personal initiatives.

For the above situations, we will ensure that your personal information is protected to a degree no less than that stipulated in this Privacy Policy through contractual means.

Storage duration: We promise to store your personal information within a reasonable and necessary period as required by law. After exceeding this period, we will delete your personal information or anonymize your personal information.

If we cease operations, we will promptly cease the activities of collecting your personal information, and we will attempt to notify you of the cease of operation by delivering notices one by one or making a public announcement, and we will delete or anonymize your personal information held by us.

2.Protection:

In order to protect your personal information, we will endeavor to adopt various security measures in line with industry standards to protect your personal information in order to minimize the risks of destruction, theft, leakage, unauthorized access, use, disclosure and alteration of your personal information. We will actively establish data classification and grading systems, data security management standards and data security development standards to manage and standardize the storage and use of personal information, to ensure that no personal information irrelevant to the services we provide is collected.

All of your Accounts are equipped with security protection functions; please keep your Account and password information properly. We will ensure that your information will not be lost, misused or altered by backing up other servers, encrypting user passwords and implementing relevant security measures. Notwithstanding the above security measures, please be aware that there are no “perfect information security measures”. To help prevent the occurrence of security incidents, we have established early warning mechanisms and emergency plans in accordance with the provisions of laws and regulations. If a security incident does occur, we will promptly notify you of the relevant information by mail, letter, phone, pushing notice and other relevant methods as required by law. If it is difficult to notify the subjects of personal information one by one, we will adopt reasonable and effective methods to make public announcements. In the meantime, we will, in accordance with the requirements of regulatory authorities, actively report the handling situation of personal information security incidents, and closely cooperate with the government authorities.

When any of our products or services cease operations, we will immediately stop the activities of collecting personal information. We will attempt to notify you of the above changes by pushing out notices, announcements and relevant forms, and within a reasonable period of time, we will delete your personal information or anonymize it. (“anonymization” refers to a process in which the subject of personal information cannot be identified through technical processing of personal information, and the processed information cannot be restored. The information obtained after anonymization of personal information is not personal information.)

IV. How You Manage Your Personal Information

We attach great importance to and make efforts to protect your rights to your personal information.

1.Self-determination to Receive Information

You can choose to follow or unfollow Accounts based on your preferences, and the information displayed will be based on the Accounts you actively choose to follow.

2.Right to Access, Rectify and Delete Certain Information in Copies of Personal Information

Through the design of the interactive interface, we provide you with methods to access, correct and delete relevant personal information. You can set it up in the following ways:

(1) Access, obtain and rectify your own personal information through [Me - Edit Profile Information], including avatar, nickname, gender, permanent residence, college and enrollment date, birthday and profile;

(2) Set up, access, obtain and rectify Account information through [Me - Settings - Account Security], including mobile phone number (which can only be changed once a month), login password and bound third-party platform accounts (including WeChat, Weibo, QQ and other third-party accounts);

(3) Set up, access, obtain and rectify privacy information through [Me - Settings - Privacy Settings], including comment setting, @ setting, address book recommendation setting, Weibo recommendation setting, location information setting and blacklist setting;

(4) Access, obtain, rectify or delete relevant information through [Me - Posts/Collects/Likes].

In addition to the above, we shall delete your personal information, or you shall have the right to request us to delete such information, in any of the following circumstances:

(1) The purpose of processing has been achieved, is unable to be achieved or is no longer necessary for achieving the purpose of processing;

(2) We have stopped providing our products or services, or the storage period has expired;

(3) You have expressly withdrawn your consent;

(4) If you have good reasons to believe that we process your personal information in violation of laws, administrative regulations or agreements; or

(5) Other circumstances provided by laws and administrative regulations.

3.Change or Withdrawal of Authorization

You may change or withdraw the scope of authorization through [Me - Settings - Notification Settings/Privacy Settings/General Settings], including: 1) binding to your WeChat account, Weibo account and QQ account; 2) interaction, private message, community content, and mall notification; 3) comment setting, @ setting, address book recommendation setting, Weibo recommendation setting, location information setting and black list setting; 4) setting of obtaining and using default system fonts; 5) location information in media information of pictures/videos; 6) "Limited Memories" function.

You may also change or withdraw the authorization for microphone (recording), address book, notification, network, camera (webcam), calendar, floating windows, geolocation, storage (photo album, media and other files), and phone status permissions through the operating system of the device itself. Different device models may have different functions. We will collect personal information based on the settings for which you change or withdraw the authorization. If you withdraw the authorization, we will no longer collect information related to those permissions, but please note that this may result in the unavailability of some or all of the functions. Furthermore, your decision to change or withdraw the authorization will not affect our previous processing of personal information based on your authorization.

4.Conditional Right to Transfer Personal Information

If you need to transfer your personal information to other platforms, companies or organizations, you may contact us through the method disclosed in this Privacy Policy. We will review your request, and will provide you with a way to transfer your personal information if it is in compliance with the provisions of the Cyberspace Administration of China.

5.Restraint of Automated Decision Making

In some business functions, we may make decisions only based on information systems, including algorithms, and non-human automatic decision making mechanisms. If these decisions significantly affect your legal rights and interests, you have the right to ask us to explain, and we will provide appropriate remedies.

6.In compliance with relevant legal requirements, your close relatives can exercise the above rights to access, copy, correct, and delete your personal information, except where you have made other arrangements.

7.Contact Us for Management

For security and identification reasons, you may not be able to access, correct or delete certain information (information after real-name authentication, part of your usage records and other relevant information) directly through the rednote Platform. If it is necessary for you to access, rectify or delete such information, please email your question to the specified email address using the contact information provided in Section X of this Privacy Policy and we will review the question as soon as possible, and respond to you promptly after verifying your identity.

V. How You Cancel Your Account

You may cancel your Account through [Me – Settings – Help Center – Community Questions – How to Cancel Account] or [Me - Settings - Account Security – Account Cancellation], and choose [Application for Cancel Account] when you meet the conditions for Account cancellation. We will process it for you as soon as possible within 7 working days after receiving your cancellation application and verifying your identity. After your Account is cancelled, your personal information will be removed from the rednote Platform, except for the personal information that we must retain as explicitly required by laws (for example, the information relating to your transactions on the rednote Platform).

VI.Special Instructions on Products and/or Services Provided by Third Parties

The rednote Platform may contain products and/or services provided by third parties or provide links to information and/or services provided by third parties. You may need to redirect to the corresponding mini program or third-party website before using such third-party products and/or services. Any use by you of the services of the third party (including any personal information you provide to the third party) shall be subject to the terms of service and privacy policy (and not this Privacy Policy) of the third party. You need to read them carefully and decide whether to accept them. Please take good care of your personal information and provide it to others only as necessary. This Privacy Policy only applies to the information we collect, store, use, share and disclose, and does not apply to the services provided by any third party or the information usage rules of any third party. Any third party is solely responsible for their use of your personal information.

VII. How We Use Cookies and Other Similar Technologies

1. Use of Cookies

(1) When you accept cookies, the rednote Platform will set or retrieve cookies on your computer and related mobile devices so that you can log in or use the rednote Platform Services that rely on cookies. By using the cookies, the rednote Platform may provide you with more thoughtful and personalized services, including promotional services.

(2) You have the right to accept or decline cookies. You can refuse cookies by modifying your browser settings or setting it on your mobile device. However, if you choose to decline cookies, you may not be able to log in or use the rednote Platform services or functions that rely on cookies.

(3) This Privacy Policy shall apply to the relevant information obtained through the cookies set by the rednote Platform.

VIII. Protection of Minors

1.If you are under the age of 18 or do not meet the age requirements for using the rednote Platform in the place where you live, or if there are other legal requirements that are not compatible with user behavior, please follow the local legal requirements to (A) not use the rednote Platform, or (B) read this Privacy Policy under the supervision and guidance of your Guardian, and only use the rednote Platform after ensuring that your Guardian agrees to the content of this Privacy Policy as required by applicable laws.

2.We attach great importance to the protection of minors' personal information. Minors are requested to be more aware and cautious when filling in their personal information, and to use rednote Platform Services correctly under the guidance of their Guardians.

3.We will protect the confidentiality and security of minors' information in accordance with applicable laws and regulations as well as this Privacy Policy. If we find that we have collected minors' personal information without the prior and verifiable consent of their parents or Guardians, we will endeavor to delete the relevant data as soon as possible or take other appropriate actions consistent with applicable laws. Meanwhile, we have established strict rules for the collection and use of minors' information to protect the personal information of Minors. You may read the Rules Regarding the Protection of Personal Information of Minors of rednote for more details. If you are the Guardian of a minor, please contact us promptly in accordance with the contact information provided in Section X of this Privacy Policy if you have any concerns about the use of our services by the minors or the user information provided to us.

IX. How We Update the Privacy Policy

1.In order to provide you with better services, we may update the provisions of this Privacy Policy in accordance with new products and relevant laws and regulations. Such updates will become part of this Privacy Policy. We will not reduce your rights under this Privacy Policy as currently in effect without your express consent.

2.We will notify you of any updates to this Privacy Policy via the rednote Platform user-end application push notification or other reasonable means so that you are kept informed of the latest version.

X. How to Contact Us

If you have any complaints, suggestions, or questions about personal information protection, or if you have any questions about this Privacy Policy, you can contact us in the following way. We will review the issues involved as soon as possible and respond within fifteen working days after verifying your user identity: shuduizhang@xiaohongshu.com (mailto:shuduizhang@xiaohongshu.com).

XI. Miscellaneous

1.If there is any dispute arising out of this Privacy Policy and our processing of your personal information, you may file a complaint with Shanghai Huangpu District People's Court.

2.If you believe that our processing of personal information has harmed your legitimate rights or interests, you may also file a complaint with relevant government authorities.

XII. Supplemental EEA+ Privacy Statement

If you are located in the European Economic Area (EEA), the United Kingdom or Switzerland (collectively, the "EEA+"), please see our Supplemental EEA+ Privacy Statement at this Section. We address this Supplemental EEA+ Privacy Statement to individuals located in the EEA+ only. This document supplements our rednote User Privacy Policy and describes how we process your personal data when you use or interact with our products and/or services. If there are any inconsistencies between the rednote User Privacy Policy and this Supplemental EEA+ Privacy Statement, this Statement prevails.

If you are located in the EEA, the EU General Data Protection Regulation applies to our processing of your personal data, as well as local data protection laws, as the case may be. If you are located in the UK, the UK General Data Protection Regulation applies to our processing of your personal data. References to the "GDPR" are references to the General Data Protection Regulation as it applies in the country where you are located. If you are located in Switzerland, the Swiss Federal Data Protection Act (the "FDPA") applies to our processing of your personal data, and references to the GDPR below shall be interpreted analogously for the purposes of applying the FDPA.

1.Who is the data controller?

The data controller is Xingyin Information Technology (Shanghai) Co., Ltd., registered address at Rooms C201, C202, C203, C204, C205, C206 and C207, C/F, Fuxing SOHO Plaza, No. 368, Madang Road, Huangpu District, Shanghai, and its affiliates. To contact our EEA and UK GDPR representatives, please contact shuduizhang@xiaohongshu.com (mailto:shuduizhang@xiaohongshu.com).

2.What types of personal data do we collect and how do we collect it?

Please see Section I above.

3.For what purposes do we process personal data?

Please see Section I above.

4.What lawful bases of processing and legitimate interests do we rely on?

If we have entered into a contract with you and the processing is necessary for us to perform our contract with you or take steps at your request prior to entering into the contract, the lawful basis is that it is necessary per Article 6(1)(b) GDPR.

If the processing is necessary for us to comply with an applicable legal obligation under EEA or UK laws, the lawful basis is that it is necessary per Article 6(1)(c) GDPR.

In some cases, the processing is necessary for us to realize a legitimate interest based on an assessment of that interest and your privacy and other fundamental interests, including where we endeavour to provide you with a positive user experience, seek to comply with the laws or regulations outside of the EEA or UK, to maintain the security and integrity of our products and/or services and related platforms and systems, operate and optimize our business, improve our Products and/or Services, develop new services, manage our relationships with users, and administer communities of users. In these cases, the lawful basis is that it is necessary per Article 6(1)(f) GDPR. More information on our assessments of legitimate interests balanced against privacy and other fundamental interests is available on request.

In some cases, we rely on your consent to process your personal data, per Article 6(1)(a) GDPR, including when we use non-essential cookies or other technologies to process your data. In these cases, you can withdraw your consent at any time with future effect by using the consent settings on our products and/or services or by emailing us at shuduizhang@xiaohongshu.com (mailto:shuduizhang@xiaohongshu.com) with a description of what data processing activities of ours you would like to withdraw your consent from.

5.What categories of recipients receive personal data from us?

Please see Section II above. Please refer to the Third Party Information Sharing List (https://www.xiaohongshu.com/crown/community/third_checklist) for details.

6.Where is your personal data processed and on what basis do we transfer personal data across borders?

We may disclose personal data to third parties in locations including the People's Republic of China. We take measures to ensure that our processors provide an adequate level of data protection by ensuring appropriate safeguards are in place and performing data transfer arrangements as appropriate. If you have any questions or would like more information, you can contact us at shuduizhang@xiaohongshu.com (mailto:shuduizhang@xiaohongshu.com).

7.How long do we process personal data?

We retain your personal data only as necessary for the purposes for which the personal data is processed or for legal requirements. The length of time for which we retain personal data depends on the purposes for which we collect and use it and how long we need to retain it to comply with applicable laws (including for the purpose of satisfying any legal, regulatory, tax, accounting or reporting requirements). If we retain the personal data solely to satisfy legal requirements, we will implement measures to prevent the data's processing. Once the personal data is no longer necessary for the purposes for which we collected it, we will delete it.

8.What data protection rights do you have?

In the EEA, Switzerland and the UK you have the following rights, subject to the conditions under the GDPR and/or local data protection law:

- To object, on grounds relating to your particular situation, to the processing of your personal data by us. This includes the right to object to our processing of your personal data for direct marketing (also known as mass marketing under Swiss law) and the right to object to our processing of our personal data where we are performing a task in the public interest or pursuing our legitimate interests or those of a third party. If we process your personal data based on our legitimate interests or those of a third party, or in the public interest, you can object to this processing, and we will cease processing your personal data, unless the processing is based on compelling legitimate grounds or is needed for legal reasons. Where we use your personal data for direct marketing for our own products and services, you can always object and opt out of future marketing messages using the unsubscribe link in such communications or through other means.

- To obtain from us confirmation as to whether your personal data is being processed, and, where that is the case, to request access to details about how we process your personal data and copies of the personal data.

- To obtain from us the rectification of inaccurate personal data concerning you.

- To ask us to erase your personal data to the extent it is not required for legally required purposes or necessary for security and integrity purposes.

- To request restriction of processing of your personal data, in which case, it would be marked and processed by us only for certain purposes.

- To receive your personal data which you have provided to us in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and you have the right to transmit the personal data to another entity without hindrance from us.

- To withdraw your consent at any time. This will not affect the lawfulness of our use of your personal data before your withdrawal.

- To lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority.

- In some jurisdictions such as France and Portugal, you also have the right to provide us with guidelines as to the processing of your personal data after your death.

You may view a list of supervisory authorities in the EEA, UK and Switzerland and their respective contact information here:

- EEA: https://edpb.europa.eu/about-edpb/about-edpb/members_en (https://edpb.europa.eu/about-edpb/about-edpb/members_en)

- United Kingdom: https://ico.org.uk/global/contact-us/ (https://ico.org.uk/global/contact-us/)

- Switzerland: https://www.edoeb.admin.ch/edoeb/en/home/the-fdpic/contact.html (https://www.edoeb.admin.ch/edoeb/en/home/the-fdpic/contact.html)

To submit a request to exercise your privacy rights, you can contact us by emailing shuduizhang@xiaohongshu.com. In your request, please describe what rights you are exercising and how you would like us to assist. We may need to request specific information from you to help us verify your identity and that you have the right to request what you are requesting. These are security measures to ensure that we do not disclose personal data to any person who has no right to receive it, or otherwise process the data in unauthorized ways. We may also contact you to ask for further information about your request to clarify the scope of your request and speed up our response. We will respond to requests to exercise privacy rights according to applicable laws.

9.Are you required to provide us with your personal data?

You are not legally required to provide personal data to us but we cannot provide our products and/or services without receiving some personal data from you.

XIII.Supplemental Virginia, Colorado, Connecticut, Utah, Oregon, Texas, Montana, Delaware, Iowa, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New Jersey or California Privacy Statement

If you reside in Virginia, Colorado, Connecticut, Utah, Oregon, Texas, Montana, Delaware, Iowa, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New Jersey or California, please refer to the Supplemental Privacy Statement in this Section.

We address this Supplemental U.S. Privacy Statement to U.S. residents only. This Statement does not reflect our collection, use or disclosure of U.S. residents' personal information where an exception under U.S. privacy laws applies.

VIRGINIA, COLORADO, CONNECTICUT, UTAH, OREGON, TEXAS, MONTANA, DELAWARE, IOWA, NEBRASKA, NEW HAMPSHIRE AND NEW JERSEY

The following is only addressed to residents of Virginia, Colorado, Connecticut, Utah, Oregon, Texas, Montana, Delaware, Iowa, Nebraska, New Hampshire and New Jersey.

Depending on where you live and subject to the conditions under the applicable U.S. state privacy laws, you may have the following rights with respect to the personal data that we have collected from or about you:

- Right to request whether or not we are processing your personal data and provide access to such data;
- Right to request that we correct inaccuracies in your personal data, taking into account the nature of the personal data and the purposes of processing of the consumer's personal data, except this right is unavailable in Iowa and Utah;
- Right to request that we delete the personal data provided by or obtained about you;
- Right to request to opt out of the processing of your personal data for the purposes of: (i) targeted advertising, (ii) the sale of personal data, or (iii) profiling in furtherance of decisions that produce legal or similarly significant effects concerning you.

When you use our products and/or services, we may collect, use and disclose your device information, browsing and usage data, and purchase history for targeted advertising purposes as described in Section I Article 2.16 above. Some of the laws that apply to our processing of personal data qualify our collection, use and disclosure of personal data for targeted advertising purposes. You may opt out of targeted advertising on our products and/or services by clicking [the three lines icon]-[Settings]-[Privacy Settings]-[Personalized Options] and toggling off [Enable Ads Personalization].

To submit a request to exercise the remaining rights, please email shuduizhang@xiaohongshu.com and specify in your email the details of your request. Please note that these rights are subject to exceptions. To verify your identity, we may require you to confirm receipt of an email sent to an email address that matches our records, provide us with details relating to your history with us, or provide additional information. If we are unable to verify your identity, we may deny your request. You may also have the right to appeal our decision if we deny your request. To appeal, please contact us at the email address set out above and specify what you wish to appeal.

CALIFORNIA

The following is only addressed to residents of California.

Notice of Collection: Please see Section I above for information about the types of personal information we collect. The categories of personal information correspond with the following categories of personal information enumerated under the California Consumer Protection Act (CCPA) definition of “personal information” and their respective letter grouping:

(A)—Identifiers including name, postal address, phone number, unique personal identifier, IP address, email address and Account name.

(B)—Information that identifies or is capable of being associated with you.

(D)—Commercial information, including information about products or services purchased, obtained, or considered through our products and/or services, and other purchasing or consuming histories or tendencies.

(F)—Internet or other electronic network activity information.

(G)—Geolocation data.

(H)—Audio, electronic, visual or similar information.

(K)—Inferences drawn from any of the information identified above reflecting your preferences and characteristics.

If California residents upload videos to the rednote Platform, they may also disclose any type of personal information to us and others in the videos.

Please see Section I above for information about the purposes for which we use personal information. We may collect, use and disclose California residents' device information, browsing and usage data, and purchase history for cross-context behavioral advertising purposes, which the CCPA qualifies as "selling" and "sharing" personal information. Further below is a copy of our CCPA Privacy Policy, which includes our Notice of Right to Opt-Out of Selling/Sharing of Personal Information.

We retain personal information only as necessary for the purposes for which the personal information is processed or for legal requirements. The length of time for which we retain personal information depends on the purposes for which we collect and use it and how long we need to retain it to comply with applicable laws (including for the purpose of satisfying any legal, regulatory, tax, accounting or reporting requirements). Once personal information is no longer necessary for the purposes for which we collected it, we will delete it.

CCPA Privacy Policy:

A.Right to Know About Your Personal Information

We describe here the personal information we collect, use, and disclose about California residents. You have the right to request that we disclose what personal information we collect, use, disclose and sell about you specifically ("right to know"). To submit a request to exercise the right to know, please email shuduizhang@xiaohongshu.com and include "California Request to Know" in the subject line. Please specify in your request the details you would like to know, including any specific pieces of personal information you would like to access.

We will ask that you provide certain information to verify your identity. If you have a password-protected Account with us, we may verify your identity through our existing authentication practices for your Account. The information that we ask you to provide to verify your identity will depend on your prior interactions with us and the sensitivity of the personal information at issue. We will respond to your request in accordance with the CCPA. If we deny your request, we will explain why.

B.Our Personal Information Handling Practices over the Preceding 12 Months

We have set out below the categories of personal information we have collected about California residents in the preceding 12 months, as enumerated in the CCPA's definition of "personal information".

- Identifiers including name, postal address, phone number, unique personal identifier, IP address, email address and Account name.

- Information that identifies or is capable of being associated with you.

- Commercial information, including information about products or services purchased, obtained, or considered through our products and/or services, and other purchasing or consuming histories or tendencies.

- Internet or other electronic network activity information.

- Geolocation data.

- Audio, electronic, visual or similar information.

- Inferences drawn from any of the information identified above reflecting your preferences and characteristics.

- Precise geolocation data.

We collected all of these types of personal information from California residents directly and used all of these types of personal information as described in Section I above, which describes how we use each type of personal information. We disclosed this information as described in Section II above. We “sold” and “shared” device information, browsing and usage data, and purchase history to advertising networks and advertising partners who may use such personal information for their own purposes, including to tailor their advertising to you.

Additionally, some of the Personal Information we collect may be considered as sensitive Personal Information under the CCPA. We collect, use, and disclose such sensitive personal information only for the permissible business purposes for sensitive personal information under the CCPA or without the purpose of inferring characteristics about consumers.

C.Right to Request Deletion of Personal Information

You have a right to request the deletion of personal information that we collect or maintain about you. To submit a request to delete personal information, please contact us by mail or submit an email request to shuduizhang@xiaohongshu.com (mailto:shuduizhang@xiaohongshu.com) and include “California Request to Delete” in the subject line. Please specify in your request the personal information about you that you would like to have deleted, which can be all of your personal information as required by the CCPA.

We will ask that you provide certain information to verify your identity. If you have a password-protected Account with us, we may verify your identity through our existing authentication practices for your Account. The information that we ask you to provide to verify your identity will depend on your prior interactions with us and the sensitivity of the personal information at issue. Once we have verified your identity, we may ask you to confirm that you wish to have your personal information deleted. Once confirmed, we will respond to your request in accordance with the CCPA. If we deny your request, we will explain why.

D.Right to Request Correction of Personal Information

You have a right to request the correction of personal information that we collect or maintain about you. To submit a request to correct personal information, please contact us by mail or submit an email request to shuduizhang@xiaohongshu.com and include “California Request to Correct” in the subject line. Please specify in your request the personal information about you that you believe is incorrect and any supporting information reflecting the correct information.

We will ask that you provide certain information to verify your identity. If you have a password-protected Account with us, we may verify your identity through our existing authentication practices for your Account. The information that we ask you to provide to verify your identity will depend on your prior interactions with us and the sensitivity of the personal information at issue. Once we have verified your identity, we may ask you to confirm that you wish to have your personal information corrected. Once confirmed, we will respond to your request in accordance with the CCPA. If we deny your request, we will explain why.

E.Right to Opt-Out of Selling/Sharing of Personal Information

We disclose personal information to third-party advertising networks and advertising partners who may use such personal information for their own purposes, including to tailor their advertising to you, which may constitute “selling” and “sharing” of your personal information as defined under the CCPA. You may exercise your right to opt out of the “sale” and “share” of your personal information in our products and/or services by clicking [three lines icon] - [Settings] - [Settings] - [Personalized Options] and toggling off [Enable Ads Personalization]. You may also submit an opt-out request by sending an e-mail to shuduizhang@xiaohongshu.com. Rednote does not have actual knowledge that it “sells” or “shares” the personal information of consumers under 16 years of age.

F.Right to Non-Discrimination for the Exercise of a Consumer’s Privacy Rights

You may not be discriminated against because you exercise any of your rights under the CCPA.

G.Verification Process and Authorized Agents

Only you, or someone legally authorized to act on your behalf, may make a request related to your personal information. In your request or in response to us seeking additional information, you, or your authorized agent, must provide sufficient information to allow us to reasonably verify that you are, in fact, the person whose personal information was collected, which will depend on your prior interactions with us and the sensitivity of the personal information being requested. We may ask you for information to verify your identity and, if you do not provide enough information for us to reasonably verify your identity, we will not be able to fulfil your request. We will only use this information for the purposes of verifying your identity and to fulfill your request.

You can designate an authorized agent to make a request under the CCPA on your behalf if:

- The authorized agent is a natural person or a business entity registered with the Secretary of State of California; and

- You sign a written declaration that you authorize the authorized agent to act on your behalf.

If you use an authorized agent to submit a request to exercise your right to know or your right to request deletion, please have the authorized agent take the following steps in addition to the steps described in sections A and C of this Section above:

- Mail a copy of your written declaration authorizing the authorized agent to act on your behalf to Rooms C201, C202, C203, C204, C205, C206 and C207, C/F, Fuxing SOHO Plaza, No. 368, Madang Road, Huangpu District, Shanghai (we will reimburse you for the costs of notarizing the declaration and mailing it to us if you provide a receipt showing the costs paid and they are reasonable); and

- Provide any information we request from you to verify your identity and that you provided the authorized agent permission to submit a request under the CCPA on your behalf. The information that we ask you to provide to verify your identity will depend on your prior interactions with us and the sensitivity of the personal information at issue. We may deny requests from an agent if the agent does not submit proof that they have been authorized by you to act on your behalf.

If you provide an authorized agent with power of attorney pursuant to Probate Code sections 4121 to 4130, it may not be necessary to perform these steps and we will respond to any request from such authorized agent in accordance with the CCPA.

H.Contact Information

If you have any questions about this Privacy Policy or if you want to exercise your privacy rights, please contact us at shuduizhang@xiaohongshu.com (mailto:shuduizhang@xiaohongshu.com) or by sending us postal mail at Rooms C201, C202, C203, C204, C205, C206 and C207, C/F, Fuxing SOHO Plaza, No. 368,

Madang Road, Huangpu District, Shanghai.
