The protection, quickly explained

Our Privacy Policy is based on the terms used by the European legislator for the adoption of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). Our Privacy Policy aims at being easy to read, and simple to understand for everyone. To make sure that this is the case, we will briefly explain the most important terms in advance.

1. Personal data
   Personal data is any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person (hereinafter "data subject"). An identifiable natural person is one who can be identified, directly or indirectly, especially by reference to an identifier such as a name. In short: Personal data is information that can be linked to a natural person.

2. Data subject
   A data subject is any identified or identifiable natural person whose personal data is processed by the controller.
3. Processing
   Processing refers to any operation or set of operations which is performed on personal data or on sets of personal data, whether or not by automated means, such as collection, recording, organization, structuring, storage, adaptation or alteration, retrieval, consultation, use, disclosure by transmission, dissemination or making it available in any other way, alignment or combination, restriction, erasure or the destruction of data.
4. Controller
   The controller, for the processing of personal data, is the natural or legal person, public authority, agency or other body who, or which, alone or jointly with others, determines the purposes and means of the processing of personal data.
5. Process
   The pro ho, or

Your data protection rights

You have the right of access to personal data concerning you, the right to rectify inaccurate data, the right to restrict processing, the right to erase unlawfully processed data and the right to data portability.

Furthermore, the GDPR also provides for a right to object to the processing of personal data if this processing is carried out to protect our overriding legitimate interests. If you have consented to the processing of your data, you can revoke this consent at any time. Please note that rights under the GDPR may be subject to other legal restrictions if the exercise of rights under the GDPR would impair the fulfillment of legal obligations.

Purpose o

The processing of this data is necessary for technical reasons. In addition, access to our website is statistically evaluated. This is done to further improve the website and make it more user-friendly, to find and rectify errors more quickly and to manage server capacities. We will only use this data in a personal form for the purpose of legal prosecution if there is a specific indication that our website has been used illegally.

In the Nuki Shop, we process the personal data that you have made available in order to process your purchases. Your data is also required in this context, especially for payment processing and the delivery of the ordered product(s).

Legal basis

The legal basis for the processing of access data (web server log files) is the legitimate interest (online service offering and data security) in accordance with Article 6(1)(f) GDPR. In the Nuki Shop, we also refer to Article 6(1)(b) GDPR (necessary for the performance of the contract / for pre-contractual measures), Article 6(1)(c) GDPR (necessary for compliance with legal obligations), Section 132 BAO (Federal Fiscal Code) (necessary for compliance with legal obligations), Section 190 UGB (Austrian Commercial Code) (necessary for compliance with legal obligations) as well as Section 212 UGB (necessary for compliance with legal obligations).

Storage period

The user name and IP address are stored for a period of maximum 14 days. Error logs, which record incorrect page views, are erased after a maximum of 14 days. In addition to the error messages, these also contain the IP address making the access and, depending on the error, the websit

Purpose of the processing	We use the Bloomreach Engagement service (formerly Exponea) to evaluate and support online marketing measures, in particular to process newsletter mailings. Bloomreach enables us to assess how the newsletters we send out are opened and used (e.g. clicks on links in a newsletter). This allows us to record and measure the success of certain marketing measures. Conversion tracking can also be used to analyze whether a predefined action (e.g. purchaser of a product on our website) has taken place after clicking on a link in the newsletter. This list shows the purposes of data collection and processing: ● marketing purposes based on interest ● retargeting ● optimization of our website offering (onsite personalization) ● analysis of surfing behavior ● automation of marketing campaigns
