Please note! We do not knowingly process the personal data of users under the age of 16. If you are such a user or the legal representative of such a user, please contact us.

By accessing or registering the App, the user agrees to the privacy notice and consents to collecting, transferring, and using personal data.

Before using the App, you must read and accept this privacy notice. If you don't accept and agree to this privacy notice, you must immediately stop using our App.

Sources of data

Depending on your actions, we receive your data when you use and interact with the App.

You can change your personal data by exercising your right to rectify it and contacting us. Please note that the changed data will be stored on the same lawful basis and terms.

We may also receive data from third parties. It depends on your settings and the features you use.

Lawful bases

For processing your personal data, we rely on the following lawful bases:

- performance of the contract — for the processing related to the negotiating on, conclusion, and performance of a contract (mainly, the Terms of Use) with you;
- legitimate interest — for the processing aimed at the development of our services, taking into consideration your interests, rights, and expectations;
- legal obligation — for the processing as required by applicable laws (for example, to comply with tax or KYC/AML regulations) or if requested by a law enforcement agency, court, supervisory authority, or another state-authorized public body;
- consent — for additional specific purposes.

Types of data we collect

Personal data, or personal information, means any information about an individual from which that person can be identified. It does not include data where the identity has been removed (anonymous data).

We also undertake to collect only such amounts and types of personal data strictly required for the purposes mentioned in this privacy notice section (data minimization principle).

To the extent necessary for those purposes, we take all reasonable steps to ensure that personal data is reliable, accurate, complete, and current for its intended use.

Third-party services and disclosures of your data

We share your Personal Data with our service providers, strictly limited to cases and purposes stipulated in this privacy notice.

We'll not use the information gained through your use of our App and other frameworks for advertising or similar services or sell it to advertising platforms, data brokers, or information resellers.

We require all third parties to respect the security of your personal data and treat it under the law. We do not allow our third-party service providers to use your personal data for their purposes and only permit them to process your personal data for specified purposes.

We will not process personal data in a way incompatible with the purposes for which it has been collected or subsequently authorized by you by Section "Types of data we collect" of this privacy notice or collect any personal data that is not required for the mentioned purposes.

We disclose potentially personally-identifying information (i.e., personal data) among our employees, contractors, and affiliated or other third-party organizations that (i) need to know that information in order to process it on our behalf or to provide services available at the Company, and (ii) that have agreed not to disclose it to others.

We use services from third parties to function our app. These parties help us with the storage of Personal Data, analyze or keep your data, and show relevant information about the App to us when you use the app to understand how you use the App, engage with particular features, and what you like or dislike the most to generate statistical reports. Please note that such third parties have their own privacy policies and statements. There are all third-party services, and how do we use them in our App:

AI technology

HomeDesignsAI provides an online platform and AI technology to generate innovative design ideas and visuals for various aspects of home interiors, exteriors, landscaping, and real estate purposes. We've used the HomeDesignsAI API to leverage AI to create new home design concepts quickly by users.

By accessing or registering the App, the user agrees to the transfer and processing of photos through the HomeDesignsAI API using AI technology. Please note that if you accidentally upload any photo that contains any person or personal data (for instance, document) we and HomeDesigns AI only process the photo itself, and do NOT process any personal data contained in the photo or identify any person on the photo.

Use of generated images Disclaimer: As part of the Application, we can collect your photos and derivative images generated as a result of their processing. Such photos and images can be used for internal analytical purposes or create marketing and other materials that show the product's functionality and help other users familiarize themselves with the application's functionality in more detail before using it. By continuing to use the Application, you consent to the publication of your images.

Cross-border transfer of personal data.

Some employees, contractors, and affiliated or third-party organizations may be located within or outside the USA, EU, or the European Economic Area (EEA). By using our App, you consent to transfer such information to them.

Changes to the privacy notice

We reserve the right to and may change this privacy notice occasionally. If we make any material changes, we will notify you through our App or email or by presenting you with a new version of this privacy notice for you to accept if we, for example, add new processing activities or collect additional personal data from you.

Your continued use of the App after the effective date of an updated version of the privacy notice will indicate your acceptance of the modified privacy notice.

Opt-out options

You can withdraw your consent or opt-out, whatever applies in your case, from sharing your Personal Data under this subsection anytime by using one of the following options:

- By contacting us at info@primasorte.com;
- By adjusting your device settings in Android;
- Stop using our App.

Obtaining data from third parties

When a user buys a subscription, we receive transaction data, ID subscriptions, subscription terms, and App statistics from Google Play.

The Google Play data processing policy further regulates the collection, processing, and transmission of purchase data via Google Play.

Banking information

When you pay for a subscription to our App, you share your banking information with Google Play. This relationship is further regulated between the user and privacy notices in Google Play.
We do not collect or process your bank information when buying a subscription.

Data security

We have implemented appropriate security measures to prevent your data from being accidentally lost, used, accessed unauthorized, altered, or disclosed. In addition, we limit access to your data to employees, agents, contractors, and other third parties who have a business need to know. They will only process your data based on our instructions and are subject to a duty of confidentiality.

We have put in place procedures to deal with any suspected personal data breach and will notify you and any applicable regulator of a breach where we are legally required to do so.

We also use technical data encryption tools like SSL protocols to secure your data.

Data retention

We will only retain your data for as long as necessary to fulfill the purposes for which we collected it, including satisfying any legal, accounting, or reporting requirements.

To determine the appropriate retention period for personal data, we consider the amount, nature, and sensitivity of the personal data, the potential risk of harm from unauthorized use or disclosure of your data, the purposes for which we process your data, and whether we can achieve those purposes through other means, and the applicable legal requirements.

This means that we store your data while you use our App.

In some circumstances, you can ask us to delete your data. To do so, email us at info@primasorte.com.

In some circumstances, we may anonymize your data (so that it can no longer be associated with you) for research or statistical purposes, in which case we may use this information indefinitely without further notice to you.

We require all third parties to respect the security of your personal data and treat it under the law. We do not allow our third-party service providers to use your personal data for their purposes and only permit them to process your personal data for specified purposes and under our instructions.

We do not use user data for sale (or any other commercial activity) to other companies. User data is used solely to ensure the app's functionality.

Your legal rights
