GENERAL TERMS

INTRODUCTION

This Privacy Policy describes the information that Likee ("we", "our," or "us") (see Contact Information below) collects from visitors to and users of https://likee.video (the "Website") and any mobile application in relation to the Website (the "App" or "Likee") (the Website and the App are collectively referred to as "Likee Services") and how we use it, how we protect it, and your rights.

Likee does not intend to create account for users who are under the age of 16 years old or other age of majority as required by the laws of the country of your domicile or 18 if you use our live streaming services. So please do not use Likee and Likee Services if you are under such age requirement.

BY ACCESSING OR USING LIKEE SERVICES, YOU ACKNOWLEDGE THAT YOU HAVE READ THIS PRIVACY POLICY AND THAT YOU UNDERSTAND YOUR RIGHTS IN RELATION TO YOUR INFORMATION AND HOW WE WILL COLLECT, USE AND PROCESS IT. IF YOU DO NOT AGREE WITH THIS PRIVACY POLICY IN GENERAL OR ANY PART OF IT, YOU SHOULD NOT USE LIKEE SERVICES.

Capitalized terms, if not defined herein, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the Terms of Use.

HOW WE COLLECT YOUR INFORMATION

In order to provide Likee Services, and improve the user experience and security of Likee Services, we will collect, record, store, adapt, use, share or otherwise process your personal information, when you register a Likee account and use Likee Services.

We collect your personal information on the following grounds:

i. We need to process such information, based on your permission or authorization, to provide Likee Services to you.

ii. Certain data are collected automatically to enhance you better experience on Likee.

Information You Consent to Provide

You consent to provide some or all of the following personal information for Likee Services when you create an account on the App and use Likee Services:

- Registration information, such as your username, age, profile images, self-introduction, phone number, email, password, social media information (for details, please refer to the scenario “third-party social media when you create a Likee account by connecting” under this Section), etc.;

- User generated contents (“UGC”), including photographs, livestreams, videos, audio recordings, hashtags, virtual item content, comments, messages, code or other data or materials that you upload, distribute or stream on the App when you use Likee Services (e.g. uploading logs, creator information, etc.);

- Voice and facial data, while you use some features provided by us to create special effects or emojis for your streaming section or pictures that you uploaded on Likee Services. We need to identify such biometric information to support your use of these features, however such data will only be processed offline (such as on your device) to fulfill the special effects or emojis. We will not transfer, store or use it for other purposes unless we have obtained your explicit consent. Further, we will not use such data for marketing or advertising, nor will we share such data with any third party. However, please be noted that certain features cannot be activated if you do not give your consent, but your access to other features of Likee will not be affected;

- Your contacts, with your permission. When you activate the “Discover Friends” function, you can find people to follow, interact with people you already follow, get recommended content you might be interested in, and enjoy a more personalized service;

- Messages, which include information you provide when you compose, send, or receive messages through Likee’s messaging functionalities. They include comments you post on other users’ profiles or UGC pages and messages you send through our chat functionality. Such information includes the content of the message (private chats excluded) and the messaging log, such as when it was sent, received, or read, and message participants. Please be aware that messages you choose to send to other Likee users will be accessible by those users and that we are not responsible for the manner in which those users use or share the messages;

- Your location data, with your permission. Your refusing of such permission will not affect your ability to search or locate specific locations manually. You may change the access to your location data via the settings on your mobile device;

- Your opt-in choices and correspondence with us, such as information used to verify your account or to resolve your feedbacks or complaints;

- Your installed application data, with your permission. We use your installed application list to refine our content recommendation algorithms and provide you with more personalized content recommendations;

- Purchase information, such as orders, payment information, billing and shipping address, etc.;

- Your consent of the usage of microphone, camera when you use certain web-based programs or games, which you may withdraw at any time;

- Information you provide when participating in in-app surveys and activities; and

- Information you provide from such third-party social media when you create a Likee account by connecting with a third-party social media, such as YouTube, Facebook, Instagram, Google, or if you link a Likee account with a third-party social media account. The third party's collection, use and disclosure of your information will be subject to that third-party service's privacy policy. In particular, Likee's YouTube integration uses the YouTube API Services and such use is subject to Google's Privacy Policy (http://www.google.com/policies/privacy). You can manage and revoke Likee YouTube integration's access to your data via the Google security settings page at https://security.google.com/settings/security/permissions .

Auto-collected Information

The following information may be used automatically for providing you better Services:

- Network activity information, such as your browsing history (your visiting logs, etc.), search history, the date and time of visits to your profile, your subscriptions, and information regarding your interaction with other users (for details, please refer to the scenario "message" under the previous Section);

- Information about you from third-party service providers, such as advertising partners and data analytics providers;

- Historical records of your purchases on Likee;

- Device information and device identifiers, such as your operating system, browser type, brand, model and serial number of your mobile device, Internet Protocol (IP) address, mobile carrier, screen resolution, language setting, and media access control addresses;

- Metadata, associating with the UGC you provided us, which describes other data and provides information about how, when, and by whom the piece of UGC was collected and how that UGC was formatted, such as hashtags used to label the keywords to the video and captions; and

- Cookies, small pieces of data to enable us to provide certain features, which are collected by us or our business partners to measure and understand the web pages you click on and how you use Likee Services, enhance your experience using Likee Services, and provide you with targeted advertising on Likee Services and elsewhere across your different devices. For more information about what cookies we use and how cookies help better your experience on the App, see our Cookie Policy.

We may preserve and share with our advertising, marketing, and analytics business partners de-identified device information or statistics, such as de-identified mobile advertising identifiers, which cannot be used to identify you. We may also, based on the collected data, produce and share aggregated insights that do not identify you. Aggregated data is de-identified data even though it may be derived from your personal information. For example, we may aggregate your usage data to calculate the percentage of users accessing a specific website feature, to generate statistics about our users, or to calculate ad impressions served or clicked on. Such information would help us in better analyzing, measuring and improving the effectiveness of advertisements, promotions, and related services.

We do not collect special categories of personal information about you (this includes details about your race or ethnicity, religious or philosophical beliefs, political opinions, trade union membership, information about your health and genetic and biometric data).

HOW WE USE YOUR INFORMATION

We collect, use and/or disclose the information about you for the following purposes, or as notified to you at the time of collection:

- to administer Likee Services (i.e. to provide Likee Services to you) and for internal operations, including troubleshooting, data analysis, testing, research, statistical and survey purposes (i.e. to guarantee Likee Services' stability and security) and to solicit your feedback;
- to allow you to participate in interactive features of Likee Services, when you choose to do so;
- to personalize the contents that you receive and provide you with tailored content that will be of interest to you which could include online ads or other forms of marketing;
- to provide you with user support and to improve, develop Likee Services and facilitate product development;
- to provide you with services based on the country settings you have chosen, such as content pushing and other content that is related to the country settings;
- to provide you with web-based program or game services, provided that you have given consent of authorization for the web-based program or game developer or operators to use your personal information;
- to allow other users to identify you via the "Discover Friends" function as a user of Likee Services, and allow you to find other users and enjoy related socializing functions;
- to enable our messenger service to function and to communicated with you;
- to help us detect abuse, fraud, and illegal activity on Likee Services;
- to review pictures, images and contents posted or generated on Likee Services to ensure that we comply with any applicable content regulations in any relevant jurisdiction;
- to enforce our terms, conditions, and policies; and
- to comply with other applicable laws and regulations.

HOW WE SHARE YOUR INFORMATION

We may share your information with certain authorized third parties, while it's necessary, to assist in the improvement and optimization of Likee Services such as:

- our business partners so that we can improve Likee Services, including inter-platform linking, uploading and managing UGC, online purchases of Paid Services, processing payment, user experience activities, user services, etc.;
- our technology partners to help in preventing illegal uses, increasing user numbers, operating system development, engineering and analysis of information or for our internal business purposes;
- our qualified IT and IDC service providers to transfer or preserve data;

We may also share certain information such as cookie data with third-party advertising partners. This information would allow third-party ad networks to, among other things, deliver targeted advertisements that they believe will be of most interest to you.

Except for the above, we will not disclose or share with any third party your personal information, unless under the following circumstances:

- if we obtained your consent, either implied or express;
- if we are required to do so in order to comply with the applicable laws and regulations and government requests;
- If we believe in our good faith that this is necessary to protect the public interest;
- If it is necessary to do so to protect the safety and fundamental rights of another person;
- If it is necessary to address fraud, security, or technical issues; and
- If it is necessary to ensure the enforcement of our terms and conditions and the daily operation of Likee Services.

THIRD-PARTY APPLICATIONS

Likee Services may allow you to access to content, products or services offered by third parties through hyperlinks (in the form of word link, banners, channels or otherwise), API or otherwise to such third parties' web sites (such as YouTube, Twitter, Instagram, etc.). You are cautioned to read such web sites' terms and conditions and/or privacy policies before using the Sites. Likee's YouTube integration uses the YouTube API Services. By using Likee YouTube integration, you agree to be bound by the YouTube Terms of Service (https://www.youtube.com/t/terms) and acknowledge that such use is subject to Google's Privacy Policy (http://www.google.com/policies/privacy). You can manage and revoke Likee YouTube integration's access to your data via the Google security settings page at https://security.google.com/settings/security/permissions .

You acknowledge that Likeme has no control over such third parties' web sites, does not monitor such web sites, and shall not be responsible or liable to anyone for such web sites, or any content, products or services made available on or through such web sites.

HOW WE TRANSFER YOUR INFORMATION

We maintain servers around the world and your information collected by us are firstly stored and processed in servers nearest to your region; however, in specific cases your information may be stored and processed in another country or area where we maintain data collection facilities. We have complied with relevant applicable data localization rules with respect to our data transfer practices. We take appropriate steps to ensure that the information we collected is processed in accordance with the privacy policy and the relevant applicable laws and regulations.

If we provide any information about you to any legal agency, we will take appropriate measures to ensure such receiving institutes protect your information adequately in accordance with this privacy policy and the applicable laws.

With your request to transfer your personal data, we would provide appropriate ways by applicable laws and regulations.

HOW LONG WE KEEP YOUR INFORMATION

We use the following criteria to determine the period for which we will keep your information:

- obligation(s) under the applicable laws and regulations to retain data for a certain period of time;
- our contractual obligations and rights in relation to the information involved;
- statute of limitations under the applicable laws;
- our reasonable business purposes; and
- disputes or potential disputes.

We retain your information for as long as it is necessary to provide you with Likee Services so that we can fulfil our contractual obligations and rights in relation to the information involved, or for other legitimate purpose such as complying with our legal obligations, resolving disputes, and enforcing our agreements. Because these needs vary for different type of information, the context of our interactions with you or your use of Likee Services result in different retention periods for different type of information. Where we do not need your information in order to provide Likee Services to you, we retain it only for so long as we have a reasonable business purpose in keeping such data.

HOW TO MANAGE YOUR ACCOUNT AND INFORMATION

The privacy settings allow you to control whether or not to share certain information and whether you wish to entertain certain functions.

You may download and save the short videos or sound tracks you have shared through Likee Services. If you need to download the short videos or sound tracks you uploaded on a massive basis (more than 100 files), you may email us for help.

You may also delete your account. To delete your account, you may use “Settings” > “Account” > “Delete Account” on the App or click “Delete Account” on the Website. Feel free to contact feedback@likee.video if you encounter any issues during this process. Please note that once your account is deleted, you will not be able to restore your account and all your historical data on Likee Services (due to the differences in applicable laws, the erasure of data might be after a certain period (usually within 24 months).)

Please be noted that, Likeme has no control over any third-parties' products, services data collecting and storing policies, and that certain third parties may retain copies of your information even after your Likee account has been deleted.

You can navigate to "Ads" in your in-app settings to opt-out of targeted advertising based on personal information about your activity on nonaffiliated apps and websites.

SECURITY OF YOUR INFORMATION

We take appropriate administrative, technical and physical security measures to safeguard your personal information from unauthorized access and disclosure. For example, only authorized employees are permitted to access personal information, and they may do so only for permitted business functions. In addition, we use encryption in the transmission of certain of your personal information between your system and ours, and we use firewalls to help prevent unauthorized persons from gaining access to your personal information. Please be advised, however, that we cannot fully eliminate security risks associated with the storage and transmission of your personal information. You should use caution whenever submitting information through Likee Services and take special care in deciding which information you provide us with.

You are responsible for maintaining the secrecy of your password and account information at all times.

CHILDREN PROTECTION

Likee Services is not directed to children, and if you are under the age of 16 years old or other age of majority as required by the laws of the country of your domicile or 18 if you use our live streaming services, you may not create a Likee account or use Likee Services except under guardianship of your parents or other guardians and you have read this Privacy Policy carefully.

We will only collect, use, share or disclose children's personal information as permitted by law, with the express consent of a parent or other guardian, or as necessary to protect the children. We provide a separate experience for children, in which we collect and process only limited information. For information about how we collect, use, share, and otherwise process the personal information of under-aged users, please refer to our Privacy Policy for Young Users.

We have zero tolerance to any form of child abuse or exploitation. Your data (including messages) may be shared with legal agencies if we in our good faith believe that you have engaged in child abuse, or if we are requested to do so by relevant legal agencies.

MODIFICATIONS

We may amend any of the terms of the privacy policy by posting the terms. We will also update the "Last Updated" date at the top of this policy, which reflects the effective date of such policy. Your continued access to or use of Likee Services after the date of the updated policy constitutes your acceptance of the updated policy. If you do not agree to the updated policy, you must stop accessing or using Likee Services.

U.S TERMS

INTRODUCTION

This Privacy Policy describes the information that Likeeme Pte. Ltd. and its affiliated companies ("we," "our," or "us") collect from visitors and users of https://likee.video (the "Website"), the mobile application Likee (the "App" or "Likee"), or any other website, application, and services provided by us that link to this Privacy Policy (collectively referred to as the "Likee Services"), and how we use and protect your information and your rights.

PLEASE READ THIS PRIVACY POLICY AND THE TERMS OF USE CAREFULLY. IF YOU DO NOT AGREE WITH THE TERMS OF THIS PRIVACY POLICY OR OUR TERMS OF USE, DO NOT USE THE LIKEE SERVICES. BY USING THE LIKEE SERVICES, YOU AGREE TO THE TERMS OF THIS PRIVACY POLICY AND OUR TERMS OF USE.

Capitalized terms, if not defined herein, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the Terms of Use.

CONTACT INFORMATION

If you have any questions about this Privacy Policy or our information-handling practices, please contact us at legal@likee.video.

INFORMATION WE COLLECT ABOUT YOU

When you use the Likee Services, you may choose to share some of your personal information with us. We may also need to collect some of your personal information in order to provide you with the Likee Services. While you are not obligated to provide us with your information, in some cases, we may be unable to offer you certain features or services without it.

Information You Provide to Us

- Registration and Account Information. When you create an account on the Likee Services, you may provide us with your username, user ID, date of birth, gender, profile images, self-introduction, phone number, email, password, and other information on your profile page.

- User-generated Content ("UGC"). When you use the Likee Services, you may provide us the photographs, livestreams, videos, audio recordings, hashtags, virtual item content, text, comments, code, or other data or materials (e.g. uploading logs and creator information) that you create, upload, distribute, or stream on the Likee Services.

- Message. When you compose, send, or receive messages through the Likee Services, such as using the App messaging functionalities, you provide us the content of those messages (private chats excluded), and the messaging log, such as the time it was sent, received, or read, and the message participants. Please be aware that messages you choose to send to other Likee users will be accessible to those users, and we are not responsible for how they use or share those messages.

- Phone and Social Network Contacts. When you activate the "Discover Friends" function, you can find people to follow, interact with people you already follow, get recommended content you might be interested in, and enjoy a more personalized service..

- Communication and Preferences. When you contact us for support, including feedback and complaints, you may provide information in those instances. You may also provide us with information about your opt-in or opt-out choices.

- Installed Application List. We use your installed application list to customize content recommendations and optimize platform recommendation technology experiences. We will not collect the installed application information without your permission.

- Purchase information. When you make a purchase on the Likee Services, you may provide us with information about your orders, payment information, billing, and shipping address.

- Consent. You provide your consent to us when you use your device microphone or camera to access certain features on the Likee Services, which you may withdraw at any time.

- Marketing Activities. When you participate in our promotions, challenges, contests, and sweepstakes, you may provide us with information such as your name, gender, age, likeness, and other contact information.

Information We Obtain from Third-Party Sources

We may obtain your personal information from third-party sources under the following circumstances.

- When you create an account on the Likee Services by connecting with a third-party platform, such as YouTube, Facebook, Instagram, or Google, or if you link a Likee account to one, we will use information from such third-party platform, such as your public profile information and email. To understand how to manage third-party apps connected to your social media accounts, please refer to their specific guidelines: Google (http://www.google.com/policies/privacyand YouTube (https://security.google.com/settings/security/permissions), Facebook, Instagram, and Apple.

- We may collect information from third-party service providers, such as advertising partners and data analytics providers. The collection, use, and disclosure of your information by these third-party service providers will be subject to that third-party service's privacy policy.

- We may receive information from third parties, including law enforcement and other Likee users, regarding potential violations of our Terms of Use or other App policies.

Information We Collect Automatically

We may collect some or all of the following personal information about you automatically when you use the Likee Services.

- Usage Information. We collect Information related to your use of the Likee Services, including your browsing and viewing history (e.g., visiting log), search history, the date and time of profile visits, applied filters and effects, subscriptions, information regarding your interaction with other users, and your purchase information and history.

- Device Information and Identifiers. We collect information about your device operating system, browser type, device brand, model and serial number, Internet Protocol (IP) address, mobile carrier, screen resolution, language setting, and media access control addresses.

- Audio and Image Data. When you use certain features to create special effects or emojis for your livestreams or uploaded photos, those features use information about your face and voice, which may be considered biometric information under applicable laws. This information supports your use of these features, but it will only be processed offline (on your device) to fulfill the special effects or emojis. If we are required by law, we will obtain your consent prior to collecting your data. We will not transfer, store, or use it for other purposes unless we have obtained your explicit consent. Additionally, we will not use this data for marketing or advertising, nor will we share this data with any third party. We also do not use this information to identify you. Please note that certain features cannot be activated if you do not give your consent, but your access to other features of the Likee Services will not be affected.

- Metadata. This is information associated with the UGC you provide us, which describes the UGC and provides information about how, when, and by whom the piece of UGC was collected and formatted, such as hashtags used to label the keywords to the video and captions.

- Cookies. It is a small piece of data that enables us to provide certain features, which are collected by our business partners or us to measure and understand the web pages you click on and how you use the Likee Services, to enhance your experience using the Likee Services, and to provide you with more relevant ads on the Likee Services. For more information about what cookies we use and how cookies help better your experience on the Likee Services, see our Cookie Policy.

- Location Information. We may collect information about your location (e.g., country) based on your IP addresses. We may also collect and use your precise location with your permission and when you use certain location-related features.

SENSITIVE INFORMATION

If some of the Information we collect about you is considered sensitive data or sensitive information, under applicable state privacy law, we will only process that information to provide you with the Likee Service and as permitted by applicable laws and exemptions. For example, if we are required, we will ask for your permission before collecting that information.

HOW WE USE YOUR INFORMATION

We will only use your personal information in accordance with applicable laws and as described in this Privacy Policy. In general, we use your personal information for the following purposes:

- to provide and administer the Likee Services and for internal operations, including troubleshooting, data analysis, testing, research, statistical and survey purposes (i.e. to guarantee the Likee Services' stability and security) and to solicit your feedback;

- to allow you to participate in interactive features of the Likee Services, when you choose to do so;

- to personalize the content that you receive and provide you with tailored content that will be of interest to you;

- to provide you with user support and to improve, develop the Likee Services, and facilitate product development;

- to use information that you provided us, such as the pictures and video content that you choose to upload or broadcast on the Likee Services, as part of our advertising and marketing campaigns to promote the Likee Services;

- to measure and understand the effectiveness of the advertising we serve to you and others;

- to provide you with services based on the country settings you have chosen, such as content pushing and other content that is related to the country settings;

- to enable us and our advertising partners to provide ads that may be more relevant to your interests;

- to make suggestions and recommendations to you and other users of the Likee Services about goods or services that will interest you or them;

- to provide you with web-based program or game services, provided that you have given consent of authorization for the web-based program or game developer or operator to use your personal information;

- to allow other users to identify you via the "Discover Friends" function as a user of Likee Services, and to allow you to find other users and enjoy related socializing functions;
- to enable our messenger service to function and to communicate with you;
- to help us detect abuse, fraud, and illegal activity on the Likee Services;
- to review pictures, images, and contents posted or generated on the Likee Services to ensure that we comply with any applicable content regulations in any relevant jurisdiction;
- to enforce our terms, conditions, and policies; and
- to comply with other applicable laws and regulations.

SHARING OR DISCLOSURE OF YOUR INFORMATION

Please note that while we may disclose or share your personal information in certain circumstances as described below, we will not sell your personal information to any third party or share your personal information for cross-context behavior advertising.

We may preserve and share with our advertising, marketing, and analytics business partners de-identified device information or statistics, such as de-identified mobile advertising identifiers, which cannot be used to identify you. We may also, based on the collected data, produce and share aggregated insights that do not identify you. Aggregated data may be derived from your personal information but is not considered personal information as this data does not directly or indirectly reveal your identity. For example, we may aggregate your usage data to calculate the percentage of users accessing a specific website feature, to generate statistics about our users, or to calculate ad impressions served or clicked on. Such information would help us in better analyzing, measuring and improving the effectiveness of advertisements, promotions, and related services.

- With other Likee Users.

  We may share some of your personal information on the public page of your account, which may be accessible by other users, such as your username, name, gender, age and self-introduction. You can adjust your privacy settings to hide this information from other users.

- With Business Partners and Service Providers.

  We may share with our business partners so that we can improve the Likee Services, such as inter-platform linking, uploading and managing UGC, online purchases of Paid Services, processing payment, user experience activities, and user services.

  We may share with our technology partners help in preventing illegal uses, increasing user numbers, operating system development, engineering, and analysis of information, or for our internal business purposes.

  We may share with our qualified IT and IDC service providers to transfer or preserve data.

We may share with our advertising, marketing, and analytics business partners de-identified device information or statistics, such as de-identified mobile advertising identifiers, which cannot be used to identify you.

- With Third Parties.

We access, preserve, and share your personal information with regulators, law enforcement, or others where we reasonably believe such disclosure is needed to (a) comply with any applicable law, regulation, legal process, or governmental request, (b) enforce applicable terms of use, including investigation of potential violations thereof, (c) detect, prevent, or otherwise address illegal or suspected illegal activities, security or technical issues, (d) protect against harm to the rights, property or safety of our company, our users, our employees, or other third parties; or (e) to maintain and protect the security and integrity of Likee Services or infrastructure.

We may share information as part of a merger, acquisition, consolidation, asset sales, or bankruptcy. In such an event, your personal information may be among the assets transferred.

- With our Affiliates.

We may share information with our affiliates within our corporate group as necessary to enable them to provide certain important functions for the Likee Services.

THIRD-PARTY APPLICATIONS

The Likee Services may allow you to access content, products, or services offered by third parties through hyperlinks (in the form of word links, banners, channels, or otherwise), API, or otherwise to such third parties websites (such as YouTube, Twitter, Instagram, etc.).

We have no control over, do not review, and will not be responsible for, these third-party websites or mobile applications or their content. You are cautioned to read such websites' terms and conditions and/or privacy policies before using the Sites.

In particular, Likee's YouTube integration uses the YouTube API Services. By using Likee YouTube integration, you agree to be bound by the YouTube Terms of Service (https://www.youtube.com/t/terms) and acknowledge that such use is subject to Google's Privacy Policy (http://www.google.com/policies/privacy).

TRANSFERS OF YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION TO OTHER COUNTRIES

We may collect, process, store, and transfer your personal information in the United States and other countries outside of where you live. We take appropriate steps to ensure that the information we collect is processed in accordance with this privacy policy and applicable laws and regulations.

SECURITY OF YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

We take appropriate administrative, technical, and physical security measures to safeguard your personal information from unauthorized access and disclosure. For example, only authorized employees are permitted to access personal information, and they may do so only for permitted business functions. In addition, we use encryption in the transmission of certain personal information between your system and ours, and we use firewalls to help prevent unauthorized persons from gaining access to your personal information. Please be advised, however, that we cannot fully eliminate security risks associated with the storage and transmission of your personal information. You should use caution whenever submitting information through the Likee Services and take special care in deciding which information you provide us with. You are responsible for maintaining the secrecy of your password and account information at all times.

CONTROL OVER YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

There are ways you can control your personal information and privacy.

- Your Browser. You can set your browser to refuse all or some browser cookies or to alert you when cookies are being sent. Please note that your choice to disable cookies will be specific to the particular browser or device that you are using when you disable cookies, so you may need to separately disable cookies for each type of browser or device. If you disable or refuse cookies, please note that some parts of the Website may then be inaccessible or not function properly.

- Push Notification. You can opt out of push notifications at any time by adjusting your device's permissions.

- Withdraw Your Permission. You have the ability to revoke permission to certain features and functions on the Likee Services or your device settings. Please note that if you choose to revoke permission for certain functions such as the Camera or Microphone, certain associated features in the App will no longer work.

- Activities. You may choose not to provide us with certain personal information, but this may prevent you from using certain features of Likee Services. Such information may be required for you to register as a user, purchase Paid Services, participate in a promotion, survey, or sweepstakes, or make complaints.

- Tracking. You can change the mobile advertising identifiers in your mobile device or limit advertising tracking through your mobile device’s privacy settings. For more information on how to change the advertising identifier privacy settings on your device, please visit http://www.networkadvertising.org/mobile-choice or http://youradchoices.com/appchoices .

- Do Not Track (“DNT”). DNT is a privacy preference that users can set in certain web browsers and devices. DNT is a way for users to inform websites and services that they do not want certain information about their webpage visits collected over time and across websites or online services. Please note that we do not respond to or honor DNT signals or similar mechanisms transmitted by web browsers.

- Access, Delete, and Correct. You can access, correct, update, or delete your information by going to your profile settings and editing your profile or deleting your account.

YOUR RIGHTS

Residents of certain states may have specific rights and are subject to certain exceptions under their state's privacy laws. Depending on your state, you may have some or all of the following rights:

- Right to Access. Right to know what personal information is collected about you, including the specific pieces and categories of personal information, how it is used, and with or to whom it is shared or sold.
- Right to Correct. Right to correct any inaccurate personal information that we maintain about you.
- Right to Delete. Right to delete your personal information.
- Right to Portability. Right to request transfer of your personal information, which will be provided in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format.
- Right to Appeal. If we deny your rights request, you may have the right to appeal that decision.
- Right to Opt Out of Sale or Sharing. We don't sell your personal information and we don't share your personal information with any third parties for cross-context behavior advertising. You can navigate to "Ads" in your in-app settings to opt-out of targeted advertising based on personal information about your activity on nonaffiliated apps and websites.
- Right to Opt Out of Profiling. Right to opt out of profiling in furtherance of decisions that produce legal or similarly significant effects concerning the consumer. We do not engage in such profiling as defined by the applicable state's privacy law.
- Right to Non-Discrimination. We are committed to honoring your privacy rights and will not discriminate against you for exercising them.

To exercise these rights, you or your authorized agent may either use the Help or Feedback function on the Likee Services or submit a request via email to legal@likee.video. We will address your request in accordance with applicable laws.

We may require you to verify your request before we can provide your personal information, correct or delete your personal information, or otherwise process your request. We may require you to provide your name, email address, state of residence, and phone number. If we believe we need further information to verify your request as required by law, we may ask you to provide additional information to us.

Please note that these rights may be subject to certain exceptions and limitations under applicable law. For example, if you exercise your right to delete your information, we may not be able to completely delete it if it is required to maintain to meet our legal obligations. Additionally, we cannot guarantee the complete deletion of personal information that has already been shared or reposted by other users or third parties.

CHILDREN

The Likee Services is not intended for children under the age of 13. We do not knowingly collect personal information from users in this age group. You must also be at least 18 to use the live streaming feature.

We will only collect, use, share or disclose children's personal information as permitted by law, with the express consent of a parent or other guardian, or as necessary to protect the children. We provide a separate experience for children, in which we collect and process only limited information. For information about how we collect, use, share, and otherwise process the personal information of underage users, please contact us.

We have zero tolerance for any form of child abuse or exploitation. Your data (including messages) may be shared with legal agencies if we in our good faith believe that you have engaged in child abuse, or if we are requested to do so by relevant legal agencies.

If you believe that we have inappropriately collected personal information from a Young User, please contact us at legal@likee.video.

RETENTION

We will retain your personal information for as long as reasonably necessary for the purposes described in this Privacy Policy, or as required by laws (for example, for legal, tax, accounting or other purposes), whichever is the longer.

To determine the appropriate retention period for your personal information, we will consider the amount, nature, and sensitivity of the personal information, the potential risk of harm from unauthorized use or disclosure of your personal information, the purposes for which we use your personal information and whether we can achieve those purposes through other means, and the applicable legal requirements.

NO ERROR-FREE PERFORMANCE

We do not guarantee error-free performance under this privacy policy. We will use reasonable efforts to comply with this privacy policy and will take prompt corrective action when we learn of any failure to comply with our privacy policy. We shall not be liable for any incidental, consequential, or punitive damages relating to this Privacy Policy.

CHANGES TO OUR PRIVACY POLICY

We may modify or revise our Privacy Policy from time to time. Although we may attempt to notify you when major changes are made to this Privacy Policy, you are expected to periodically review the most up-to-date version found at Likee Services so you are aware of any changes, as they are binding on you.

If we change anything in our Privacy Policy, the date of change will be reflected in the “last updated date”. You agree to note the date of the last revision to our Privacy Policy. By continuing to use Likee Services subsequent to us making available an amended version of our Privacy Policy in a way that you can easily take notice of it, you thereby consent to such amendment.

INTRODUCTION

This Privacy Policy describes the information that Likee (“we”, “our,” or “us”) (see Contact Information below) collects from visitors to and users of https://likee.video/ (the “Website”) and any mobile application in relation to the Website (the “App”) (the Website and the App are collectively referred to as “Likee Services”) and how we use it, how we protect it, your choices regarding it and your rights.

Likee does not intend to create account for users who are under the age of 16 years old or other age of majority as required by the laws of the country of your domicile or 18 if you use our live streaming services. So please do not use Likee and Likee Services if you are under such age requirement.

PLEASE READ THIS PRIVACY POLICY AND THE TERMS OF USE CAREFULLY. IF YOU DO NOT AGREE WITH THE TERMS OF THIS PRIVACY POLICY OR OUR TERMS OF USE, DO NOT USE OR VISIT THE WEBSITE OR APP. BY USING OR VISITING THE WEBSITE OR APP, YOU AGREE TO THE TERMS OF THIS PRIVACY POLICY AND OUR TERMS OF USE.

Capitalized terms, if not defined herein, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the Terms of Use.

CONTACT INFORMATION

If you have any questions about this privacy policy or our information-handling practices, please contact us at legal@likee.video.

INFORMATION WE COLLECT ABOUT YOU

Personal information, means any information about an individual from which that person can be identified ("Personal Information"). We collect your Personal Information on the following grounds:

i. We need to process such information, based on your permission or authorization, to provide Likee Services to you.

ii.Certain data are collected automatically to enhance you better experience on Likee.

Information You Consent to Provide

You consent to provide some or all of the following personal information for Likee Services when you create an account on the App and use Likee Services:

- Registration information, such as your username, age, profile images, self-introduction, phone number, email, password, social media information (for details, please refer to the scenario "third-party social media when you create a Likee account by connecting" under this Section), etc.;

- User generated contents ("UGC"), including photographs, livestreams, videos, audio recordings, hashtags, virtual item content, comments, messages, code or other data or materials that you upload, distribute or stream on the App when you use Likee Services (e.g. uploading logs, creator information, etc.);

- Voice and facial data, while you use some features provided by us to create special effects or emojis for your streaming section or pictures that you uploaded on Likee Services. We need to identify such biometric information to support your use of these features, however such data will only be processed offline (such as on your device) to fulfill the special effects or emojis. We will not transfer, store or use it for other purposes unless we have obtained your explicit consent. Further, we will not use such data for marketing or advertising, nor will we share such data with any third party. However, please be noted that certain features cannot be activated if you do not give your consent, but your access to other features of Likee will not be affected;

- Your contacts, with your permission. When you activate the "Discover Friends" function, you can find people to follow, interact with people you already follow, get recommended content you might be interested in, and enjoy a more personalized service;

- Messages, which include information you provide when you compose, send, or receive messages through Likee's messaging functionalities. They include comments you post on other user's profile or UGC pages and messages you send through our chat functionality. Such information includes the content of the message (private chats excluded) and the messaging log, such as when it was sent, received, or read, and message participants. Please be aware that messages you choose to send to other Likee users will be accessible by those users and that we are not responsible for the manner in which those users use or share the messages;

- Your opt-in choices and correspondence with us, such as information used to verify your account or to resolve your feedbacks or complaints;

- You installed application list, with your permission. We use your installed application list to customize content recommendations and optimize platform recommendation technology experiences;

- Purchase information, such as orders, payment information, billing and shipping address, etc.;

- Your consent of the usage of microphone, camera when you use certain web-based programs or games, which you may withdraw at any time;

- Information you provide when participating in in-app surveys and activities; and

- Information you provide from such third-party social media when you create a Likee account by connecting with a third-party social media, such as YouTube, Facebook, Instagram, Google, or if you link a Likee account with a third-party social media account. The third party's collection, use and disclosure of your information will be subject to that third-party service's privacy policy. In particular, Likee's YouTube integration uses the YouTube API Services and such use is subject to Google's Privacy Policy (http://www.google.com/policies/privacy). You can manage and revoke Likee YouTube integration's access to your data via the Google security settings page at https://security.google.com/settings/security/permissions.

The following information may be used automatically for providing you better Services:

- Network activity information, such as your browsing history (your visiting logs, etc.), search history, the date and time of visits to your profile, your subscriptions, and information regarding your interaction with other users (for details, please refer to the scenario "message" under the previous Section);

- Information about you from third-party service providers, such as advertising partners and data analytics providers;

- Historical records of your purchases on Likee;

- Device information and device identifiers, such as your operating system, browser type, brand, model and serial number of your mobile device, Internet Protocol (IP) address, mobile carrier, screen resolution, language setting, and media access control addresses;

- Metadata, associating with the UGC you provided us, which describes other data and provides information about how, when, and by whom the piece of UGC was collected and how that UGC was formatted, such as hashtags used to label the keywords to the video and captions; and

- Cookies, small pieces of data to enable us to provide certain features, which are collected by us or our business partners to measure and understand the web pages you click on and how you use Likee Services, enhance your experience using Likee Services, and provide you with targeted advertising on Likee Services and elsewhere across your different devices. For more information about what cookies we use and how cookies help better your experience on the App, see our Cookie Policy.

We may preserve and share with our advertising, marketing, and analytics business partners de-identified device information or statistics, such as de-identified mobile advertising identifiers, which cannot be used to identify you. We may also, based on the collected data, produce and share aggregated insights that do not identify you. Aggregated data is de-identified data even though it may be derived from your personal information. For example, we may aggregate your usage data to calculate the percentage of users accessing a specific website feature, to generate statistics about our users, or to calculate ad impressions served or clicked on. Such information would help us in better analyzing, measuring and improving the effectiveness of advertisements, promotions, and related services.

We do not collect special categories of personal information about you (this includes details about your race or ethnicity, religious or philosophical beliefs, political opinions, trade union membership, information about your health and genetic and biometric data).

HOW WE USE YOUR INFORMATION

We collect, use and/or disclose the information about you for the following purposes, or as notified to you at the time of collection:

- to administer Likee Services (i.e. to provide Likee Services to you) and for internal operations, including troubleshooting, data analysis, testing, research, statistical and survey purposes (i.e. to guarantee Likee Services' stability and security) and to solicit your feedback;

- to allow you to participate in interactive features of Likee Services, when you choose to do so;

- to personalize the contents that you receive and provide you with tailored content that will be of interest to you which could include online ads or other forms of marketing;

- to provide you with user support and to improve, develop Likee Services and facilitate product development;

- to provide you with services based on the country settings you have chosen, such as content pushing and other content that is related to the country settings;

- to provide you with web-based program or game services, provided that you have given consent of authorization for the web-based program or game developer or operators to use your personal information;

- to allow other users to identify you via the "Discover Friends" function as a user of Likee Services, to allow you to find other users and to connect with them on Likee Services, and to support the socializing function of Likee Services;

- to enable our messenger service to function and to communicated with you;

- to help us detect abuse, fraud, and illegal activity on Likee Services;

- to review pictures, images and contents posted or generated on Likee Services to ensure that we comply with any applicable content regulations in any relevant jurisdiction;

- to enforce our terms, conditions, and policies; and

- to comply with other applicable laws and regulations.

SHARING OR DISCLOSURE OF YOUR INFORMATION

We may share your information with certain authorized third parties, while it’s necessary, to assist in the improvement and optimization of Likee Services such as:

- our business partners so that we can improve Likee Services, including inter-platform linking, uploading and managing UGC, online purchases of Paid Services, processing payment, user experience activities, user services, etc.;

- our technology partners to help in preventing illegal uses, increasing user numbers, operating system development, engineering and analysis of information or for our internal business purposes;

- our qualified IT and IDC service providers to transfer or preserve data;

We may also share certain information such as cookie data with third-party advertising partners. This information would allow third-party ad networks to, among other things, deliver targeted advertisements that they believe will be of most interest to you.

Except for the above, we will not disclose or share with any third party your personal information, unless under the following circumstances:

- if we obtained your consent, either implied or express;

- if we are required to do so in order to comply with the applicable laws and regulations and government requests;

- If we believe in our good faith that this is necessary to protect the public interest;

- If it is necessary to do so to protect the safety and fundamental rights of another person;

- If it is necessary to address fraud, security, or technical issues; and

- If it is necessary to ensure the enforcement of our terms and conditions and the daily operation of Likee Services.

THIRD-PARTY APPLICATIONS

Likee Services may allow you to access to content, products or services offered by third parties through hyperlinks (in the form of word link, banners, channels or otherwise), API or otherwise to such third parties' web sites (such as YouTube, Twitter, Instagram, etc.).

You acknowledge that Likeme has no control over, does not review, and cannot be responsible for, these third-party websites or mobile applications or their content. You are cautioned to read such web sites' terms and conditions and/or privacy policies before using the Sites.

In particular, Likee's YouTube integration uses the YouTube API Services. By using Likee YouTube integration, you agree to be bound by the YouTube Terms of Service (https://www.youtube.com/t/terms) and acknowledge that such use is subject to Google's Privacy Policy (http://www.google.com/policies/privacy).

TRANSFERS OF YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION TO OTHER COUNTRIES

We share your Personal Information with our affiliates of our corporate group. This will involve transferring your data to a country outside the European Economic Area ("EEA"), such as Singapore. Many of our external third parties are based outside the EEA so their processing of your personal data will involve a transfer of data outside the EEA. Whenever we transfer your personal data out of the EEA, we ensure a similar degree of protection is afforded to it by ensuring the implementation of standard contractual clauses, that is:

Where we use certain service providers or cause the data to transfer to our affiliates of our corporate group, we will use specific contracts approved by the European Commission which give personal data the same protection it has in Europe. For further details, see European Commission: Model contracts for the transfer of personal data to third countries.

SECURITY OF YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

We take appropriate administrative, technical, and physical security measures to safeguard your Personal Information from unauthorized access and disclosure. For example, only authorized employees are permitted to access Personal Information, and they may do so only for permitted business functions. In addition, we use encryption in the transmission of certain of your Personal Information between your system and ours, and we use firewalls to help prevent unauthorized persons from gaining access to your Personal Information. Please be advised, however, that we cannot fully eliminate security risks associated with the storage and transmission of your Personal Information. You should use caution whenever submitting information through Likee Services and take special care in deciding which information you provide us with.

You are responsible for maintaining the secrecy of your password and account information at all times.

CHOICES REGARDING YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

You can set your browser to refuse all or some browser cookies, or to alert you when cookies are being sent. Please note that your choice to disable cookies will be specific to the particular browser or device that you are using when you disable cookies, so you may need to separately disable cookies for each type of browser or device. If you disable or refuse cookies, please note that some parts of the Website may then be inaccessible or not function properly.

You can at any time request to opt out from further allowing us to send you push notifications by adjusting the permissions in your mobile device.

You can switch off GPS location, Microphone, Camera or other similar functions on your mobile device if you do not wish to share them.

You can choose not to provide us with certain Personal Information, but that may result in you being unable to use certain features of Likee Services because such information may be required in order for you to register as a user; purchase Paid Services; participate in a promotion, survey, or sweepstakes; or make complaints.

You can change the mobile advertising identifiers in your mobile device or limit advertising tracking through your mobile device's privacy settings. For more information on how to change the advertising identifier privacy settings on your device, please visit http://www.networkadvertising.org/mobile-choice or http://youradchoices.com/appchoices.

You can navigate to "Ads" in your in-app settings to opt-out of targeted advertising based on personal information about your activity on nonaffiliated apps and websites.

You can make changes to your information, including accessing your information, correcting, or updating your information or deleting your information by editing your profile in the App.

You may delete your account. To delete your account, you may use "Settings" > "Account" > "Delete Account" on the App or click "Delete Account" on the Website. Feel free to contact feedback@likee.video if you encounter any issues during this process. Please note that once your account is deleted, you will not be able to restore your account and all your historical data on Likee Services (due to the differences in applicable laws, the erasure of data might be after a certain period (usually within 24 months).

Please be noted that, Likeme has no control over any third-parties' products, services data collecting and storing policies, and that certain third parties may retain copies of your information even after your Likee account has been deleted.

YOUR RIGHTS

You have the following rights with respect to our collection of the Personal Information we collect about you. We will respond to your request consistent with the applicable laws as soon as practicable, normally within one month, after proper verification procedures. Your exercise of these rights is usually free of charge, unless we deem it is chargeable under the applicable laws. We WILL NOT DISCRIMINATE due to your exercise of any right to privacy.

Right to access- You may submit a request to access the Personal Information we collect about you by (a) using Help or Feedback function on Likee Services or (b) by sending your request to us via email at legal@likee.video.

Right to rectification- You may submit a request to rectify the Personal Information we collect about you by (a) using Help or Feedback function on Likee Services or (b) by sending your request to us via email at legal@likee.video.

Right to erasure-You may submit a request to erase the Personal Information we collect about you by (a) using Help or Feedback function on Likee Services or (b) by sending your request to us via email at legal@likee.video. Though we cannot guarantee a complete erasure of your data that have been stored in our backup servers, we promise that we will not use the data within the backup servers for any other purpose.

Right to data portability-You may ask us to transfer some of your Personal Information, if it is collected on the basis of your consent, in structured, commonly used and machine-readable formats to you or other environments designated by you, if technically feasible, by (a) using Help or Feedback function on Likee Services or (b) by sending your request to us via email at legal@likee.video.

Right to withdraw consent-You may withdraw your consent and ask us not to continue to collect or process your Personal Information at any time if that information is collected on the basis of your consent by (a) using Help or Feedback function on Likee Services or (b) by sending your request to us via email at legal@likee.video. Your exercise of this right will not affect the processing activities occurred before your withdrawal.

Right to restrict processing-You may request us to stop processing your Personal Information if you believe such information is collected unlawfully or you have other particular reason for wanting the restriction by (a) using Help or Feedback function on Likee Services or (b) by sending your request to us via email at legal@likee.video. We will examine your request and respond accordingly.

Right to object-You may object to the processing of any Personal Information we collect about you, if such information is collected on the basis of legitimate interests, at any time by (a) using Help or Feedback function on Likee Services or (b) by sending your request to us via email at legal@likee.video. Please note that we may reject your request if we demonstrate compelling legitimate grounds for the processing, which override your interests and freedom or the processing is for the establishment, exercise, or defense of legal claims.

Right in relation to automated decision making and profiling-You may ask us to stop automated decision making or profiling you if you believe such automated decision making and profiling has legal or similarly significant effect upon you by (a) using Help or Feedback function on Likee Services or (b) by sending your request to us via email at legal@likee.video. We will examine your request and let you know if your request is applicable under the relevant laws and regulations.

In addition to the foregoing rights, you also have the right to lodge complaints before the competent data protection authority (“DPA”), usually the DPA of your home country.

CHILDREN

Likee Services is not directed to children, and if you are under the age of 16 years old or other age of majority as required by the laws of the country of your domicile or 18 if you use our live streaming services, you may not create a Likee account or use Likee Services except under guardianship of your parents or other guardians and you have read this Privacy Policy carefully.

We will only collect, use, share or disclose children's personal information as permitted by law, with the express consent of a parent or other guardian, or as necessary to protect the children. We provide a separate experience for children, in which we collect and process only limited information. For information about how we collect, use, share, and otherwise process the personal information of under-aged users, please refer to our Privacy Policy for Young Users.

We have zero tolerance to any form of child abuse or exploitation. Your data (including messages) may be shared with legal agencies if we in our good faith believe that you have engaged in child abuse, or if we are requested to do so by relevant legal agencies.

If you believe that we have inappropriately collected Personal Information from a Young User, please contact us at legal@likee.video.

RETENTION

We will retain your Personal Information for as long as reasonably necessary for the purposes described in this privacy policy, or as required by laws (for example, for legal, tax, accounting or other purposes), whichever is the longer.

To determine the appropriate retention period for your Personal Information, we will consider the amount, nature, and sensitivity of the Personal Information, the potential risk of harm from unauthorized use or disclosure of your Personal Information, the purposes for which we use your Personal Information and whether we can achieve those purposes through other means, and the applicable legal requirements.

NO ERROR-FREE PERFORMANCE

We do not guarantee error-free performance under this privacy policy. We will use reasonable efforts to comply with this privacy policy and will take prompt corrective action when we learn of any failure to comply with our privacy policy. We shall not be liable for any incidental, consequential, or punitive damages relating to this privacy policy.

CHANGES TO OUR PRIVACY POLICY

We may modify or revise our privacy policy from time to time. Although we may attempt to notify you when major changes are made to this privacy policy, you are expected to periodically review the most up-to-date version found at Likee Services so you are aware of any changes, as they are binding on you.

If we change anything in our privacy policy, the date of change will be reflected in the “last updated date”. You agree to note the date of the last revision to our privacy policy. By continuing to use Likee Services subsequent to us making available an amended version of our privacy policy in a way that you can easily take notice of it, you thereby consent to such amendment.
